

The GLOBE always pays its debts and expects to keep on doing so, therefore we cannot afford to do county printing or any other kind of work for nothing, simply to have the name of doing it.

The salaries paid county officials in the state of Washington seem more in keeping with hard times and the salaries paid other employes than do those in Oregon.

The "Nebraska Editor," one of the most useful publications in the land, truthfully says: "It is a fact that a paper can be 'ensmalled' without impairing its value, usefulness or popularity; subscribers would rather have a moderate amount of live, spicy literature, well printed, than a shoreless waste of dreary stuff hideously printed."

The Suez canal is only ninety-nine miles long, but it cuts off 4000 miles of journey by ship from England to India.

Cuban officers estimate the total losses on their side at 1,200 killed and wounded, and on the Spanish side at about 2000.

A number of the state papers believe that a bill will be presented in the legislature at this session to cut down, just one-half, all of the official salaries in this state.

The net taxable property of the state of Washington amounts to $204,677,668, or $61,502,153 greater than that of Oregon.

Let every man in America say the good times are here, and they will be here. They are talking that way all over the East now, and we will fall in pretty soon, says the Salem Statesman.

The Diphtheria Scare at Lone Rock.

Condon, Jan. 12th. If people who are so unfortunate as to be visited by contagious diseases were to observe the precautions taken there during and after the visit of that dread disease there would be less epidemics.

The Coyote Bounty.

The county court at its Jan. 1897 term made the following entry upon its docket in the matter of coyote bounty:

The Sheepmen's Protective Union of Gilliam county is hereby notified that the offer of the county court to pay $1.00 bounty on coyote scalps still holds good; that said payment will be made in the future as in the past on certificates of the Union showing that a like amount has been paid by them.

The Gazette truthfully says: "It is a well-known fact that whenever a sore-head 'stops his paper' because of some fancied grievance against the editor, he is always more anxious to see the paper each week than his honest neighbor from whom he borrows it."

We learn that a man was held up in Heppner last Friday in broad daylight while he was on his way home.

SUMMONS.

In Justice's Court for Condon Precinct, Gilliam County, Oregon. C. W. White, Plaintiff, vs. Elijah Hendrix, Defendant.

To the constable of Condon precinct, Gilliam county, Oregon: In the name of the State of Oregon we command you to summon Elijah Hendrix to appear before me, the undersigned, a justice of the peace in said Condon precinct, in said county and state, on the 20th day of February, 1897, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon of said day at my office, to answer the complaint of C. W. White, founded on an agreement to pay money, viz: The sum of twenty dollars for hay and stable room for defendant's horses, on or about December 1, 1894, on the plaintiff's premises on Thirty Mile, in Lost Valley, Gilliam county, Oregon, and interest at the rate of eight per cent per annum from Dec. 1, 1894, and for the costs and disbursements of this action, for which sum judgment will be rendered against you if you fail so to appear and answer the said complaint, filed Dec. 23, 1896.

It is hereby ordered that this summons be published in the CONDON GLOBE, a weekly newspaper published at Condon, Oregon, for the period of six weeks from Jan. 8, 1897.

Given under my hand this 4th day of Jan. 1897. GEORGE TAROM, Justice of the Peace for Condon Precinct.
