

THE CONDON GLOBE.

FRIDAY, JANUARY 22, 1897.

NOTICE.

The yearly subscription to the Globe is $1.50, if paid in advance. If not paid in advance $2 will be charged. A pencil mark around this notice indicates that your subscription has expired. Please renew promptly.

GLOBOSITIES.

The Globe will take county warrants on account at face value.

The Antelope Herald says that Charles Perrin is again in charge of the harness shop at that place, having bought out J. D. Tunny.

Item in Grant county court proceedings: Resignation of Z. J. Martin, J. P. of Haystack precinct, accepted and the office declared vacant.

Frank Labous has sold his ranch and 50 head of cattle and 40 head of horses in Ferry Canyon to Mrs. Mailey and her sons. We have not learned what Frank intends to do.

Rev. R. Warner, presiding elder, assisted Rev. Johns in the revival meetings here the first three nights of this week. He left Wednesday, not having time to remain longer.

Blue Mountain Eagle: Ed. Copner, formerly a merchant of Lone Rock, has gone into the mercantile business at Sumpter, Baker county, the terminus of the Sumpter Valley railroad.

Messrs. John M. Brown and J. B. Goff, two of Lone Rock's best citizens, attended divine services at Condon Sunday night, also the quarterly conference business meeting next morning.

The following ad appears in the Salem Statesman: 160-acre farm in Gilliam county, 140 acres under cultivation and pasture of about 2,000 acres, fenced, and about 175 horses to trade for city property.

Wayne Grider received a dispatch from Oregon City Monday night, conveying the sad news of the death of his sister at that place. He left next day, expecting to reach there in time to attend the funeral.

The pupils of our public school had an examination in all the branches last week and the result shows that all of them are making good progress in their studies. Want of space forbids us publishing the average of each.

Walla Walla county has advertised for bids to furnish 1000 pounds of strychnine for squirrel poisoning, with the option to be given the county of purchasing another 1000 pounds later on, if desired by the commissioners.

The Goldendale Agriculturist is a good local newspaper, but its readers would appreciate it a great deal more if a paragraph were made of each item, instead of running all of them together in one solid article. Try the change, brother.

A wave of economy has struck the Oregon senate, and only 57 clerks are thus far employed by that body, each on a salary of $3 a day. This is an improvement over last session, when clerks were paid $5 a day for doing 50 cents worth of work.—Statesman.

Married—On Sunday, Jan. 17th, Mr. Robert E. Summers and Miss Nettie Schilling, both of Matney Flat. They have already begun housekeeping at the groom's comfortable and well-improved home on Matney Flat, with the best wishes of their many friends.

Banker Hurlburt of the Arlington National Bank, informs us that the bank will receive Gilliam county warrants on deposit at their face value—the same as checks. This will be pleasing news to those who have found it difficult to dispose of their county warrants.

Senator Dufur of The Dalles is practicing economy while attending to his duties as state senator, and is setting an example which his colleagues might well pattern after. While other senators have from one to two clerks, Mr. Dufur has none.—Salem Journal.

It appears that there are yet a few people who do not understand that all timber culture claims filed on after Sept. 15, 1887, must be advertised, the same as homesteads, before final proof can be made. This law does not permit of any exceptions and there is no way of getting around it. Proofs of this kind made otherwise are unlawful.

A dispatch from Washington says: The house committee on public lands has authorized a favorable report on the bill providing that settlers of the Northern Pacific railroad lands, whose rights would have been forfeited on Jan. 1, 1897, for non-compliance with the law, shall have an additional term of two years in which to comply with the regulations.

Senator Mitchell has introduced a bill in the legislature authorizing the governor of the state to appoint officers to construct and maintain a portage railway along the Columbia between The Dalles and Celilo. It is designed to relieve the United States government of that labor, and it carries an appropriation of $195,000 for that purpose.

The Kansas City Journal says: "Florence Berry is the name of a handsome LeBette county (Kansas) girl who has just arrived in Oregon, where she will marry a man she has never seen. The match was arranged by correspondence and she sent her money not only for her fare but also to pay for a handsome trousseau." (Whether this match is the result of Geo. Crawford's ad in an Eastern matrimonial paper we are unable to say, but presume it is. Congratulations in advance, George!)

Condon was visited this week by a professional corn-picker—the kind that grows on toes. The editor of this family paper has no faith in such cures. About four years ago we had a bushel or so of red-hot, luscious corns extracted and in a month or two they were larger and warmer-hearted than ever. A number of others here had their corns picked, with the same result.

F. A. Palmer arrived home Tuesday, after a three months' course in a barbers' college in San Francisco. He does not know yet where he will open a shop. Bert Horton, who went down there to learn the barber's trade also, changed his mind after getting there and after "taking in" the city a month or six weeks returned to Oregon. He is now visiting his father at Eugene and will return to Condon in a month or so.

Mrs. Chas. B. Sears of Mayville, chairman of the musical committee, sends us the following item: "The Mayville Aid Society will give a musical and literary entertainment on Feb. 12th in the Odd Fellows hall. Every lady is to furnish a basket containing a lunch for two, to be sold to the highest bidder. Special features will be introduced and nothing left undone to make the entertainment an success. Proceeds to go toward building a Union church at Mayville. Admittance 25c. Everybody invited to come and bring a basket."

The Times-Mountaineer thinks it will be a blessing to the state if no other legislation is done but to cut off a dozen or more useless commissions and taxing concerns, such as the state normal schools, attorney-general's office, board of equalization, etc., and cut down all of the official salaries in the state about one-half. It says: The present salaries were decided upon four years ago, when the wages for all kinds of labor and prices for products were double what they are now, and to cut the salaries through in the middle now would even things up properly.

When the legislature convened on the 11th, the Senate, composed of 30 members, promptly organized, with Joe Simon as president. But the House, composed of 60 members, has stubbornly refused to organize, owing to a scheme of those who oppose the re-election of Senator Mitchell to delay the matter, hoping by some hook or crook to defeat him. Each day when the roll call is made about one-half of the members purpose to remain away, so that there can be no quorum, it requiring 40 of the 60 members to constitute a quorum. It begins to look like no senator will be elected, as the vote for senator can not be taken within two weeks after organization. We are glad to note that our representative, J. E. David, is not a party to the disgraceful hold-up.

We have talked with a great many people from different parts of the county this week and they say there is general dissatisfaction over the change our county court made in the road tax. They believe that were the matter submitted to a vote that out of the 1000 votes in the county, not 50 would favor the change. Several representative citizens and taxpayers of the Mayville country say that instead of having to pay the cash for their road tax they would very much prefer letting it go towards building a court house at Condon. It seems to be the general opinion of the taxpayers from nearly every section of the county that the county court used very poor judgment in not favorably considering the matter of building a court house, after the liberal offer of Condon to donate $1000 cash towards it. The people are becoming very tired of paying over $100 per year rent for a court room, when the county is well able to afford a decent court house. The proposition is to build a two-story fire-proof brick building, larger and something on the same style as the Union Block in Arlington, which thirteen years ago cost something like $6,000.

Olex Explosions.
Joe Budd says it looks like rain. W J Edwards of Mayville was on the creek the past week buying cattle. Mr. Jerry Kiley and his sister Ella are spending the winter in California. The sheepmen are coming in and signing the notes, in accordance with the last levy. We learn that Rev. Moore, who was here last summer, died in Texas recently, of fever. Quite a number of residents on the creek are rebuilding their dams and raftering the banks that were washed out last month. Lookout for the entertainment soon to be given at Olex for the benefit of our school. There is lots of rehearsing and practicing and it will be worth coming a long way to hear. Rev. Warner, presiding elder for this circuit, preached an eloquent and instructive sermon last Saturday night and Sunday morning. Wish more preachers like him would visit us. Mr. J. R. Ralston is now able to be up and around the house and is improving nicely. Frank Ralston has returned home to Lone Rock and Mrs. Adams of Tacoma. Mrs. J. R. Ralston arrived in Olex Saturday from Wyoming, where she has been spending the winter. The consolidating of the road districts meets with general disfavor in this vicinity. The people say they have a hard enough time to do what road work they can and say they will rebel against paying money to some one else who will not do as much as they have done in the past. They say if they are not given a chance to work their tax out they will not pay it.

Arlington Items.
Some wheat is still coming in and being sold at good prices. Mrs. A C Hawson was called to Walla Walla last week, caused by the death of her father. Attorneys Guley and Jayne were at Salem several days last week, viewing the legislative ruins. Fin Thomas's little girl, who was so badly burned last week is improving slowly and will likely pull through. Rev. H Barnhart and family arrived here last Wednesday and is now working with the other Rev. Barnhart in the revival work at the M. E. church. About 20 tramps struck the town Sunday morning and, as usual, none of them had had anything to eat for three days. To hear them tell it—when applying for a "hand-out." Mr. Hubble of Winlock, Grant county, spent several days in town the first of the week. He came in to meet his youngest daughter, Stella, who has been in the East and California for the last five years. Confidence Lodge No. 25, K. P., installed the following officers last Monday: F C Hindle, C C; S G Hawson, V C; Bob Watkins, K R S. After the installation a fine lunch was spread and all had a way-up time. Sherley Miller and Mr. Sharrard, a brother of Arthur Sharrard of this place, have started for Wall creek, up in the Blue mountains, near Monument. They will be back in about two weeks if they don't get lost too badly. We are sorry to note that Mrs. R H Robinson is confined to her bed with typhoid fever, contracted at Mayville some weeks ago while attending her sister, who died with the same fever. Her many friends sincerely hope for her recovery. Everybody is kicking about the way the legislature is being "held up" at Salem. Of course it is the dear people's money that they are spending, at the rate of $2,000 a day, and they do not care. It shows the necessity of electing senators by popular vote, which would stop all such muddles. Then disburse with one of the houses and all the laws could be made in less time than 40 days and what laws were passed could be considered and passed intelligently. As it is now, the time is all taken up wire-pulling for some office or commission—thus making it cost the people double—pay to get them in and pay them when they are in. We are glad to learn that Miss Ricks is improving and is expected back within a few days. The Goldendale Agriculturist says that Mrs. Brown, wife of Atty. Jno. A. Brown of Spokane, is clerking in a store in Tacoma. T K Long, a cattle buyer from Indianola, Iowa, passed through town Monday on his way to Condon and Mayville. Mr. Long made a shipment from The Dalles last fall. It was decided at the school meeting held Saturday to continue the school for the full term of nine months. They also levied a tax of ten mills, as last year there was no assessment made. H S Comfort left Sunday night for Seattle, where he expects to reside for the present. Mr. Comfort is a thorough musician and was a valuable acquisition to the "Arion Club," of which he was a member. The city treasurer's report shows that there was paid to the city during the last year for license, $1432.50 and for taxes, $373.95. Paid out for city warrants, $1633.00; interest on same, $173.13, leaving the city about $1600 in debt. The Arion Club, assisted by Mrs. Barfoot, gave a short musical Friday evening to several of their friends. We are sorry to learn that the club does not intend to give any more dances, for the music rendered by them on Christmas and New Years was the best Arlington has enjoyed for many a long year.

Lone Rock Rumbings.
A fine warm rain the first of the week has taken most of the snow off the hills around our burg. We understand that the society ladies here have organized a "Sisters' Oriental Lodge," and are having gay times, from the noise they make. The pops of our section, as well as others, are roaring because they are being taxed for the benefit of the few sheepmen. They say it is an outrage. Most of our people are very much opposed to the change the county court made in the road districts. They feel confident that there should be more than two road supervisors in the county or the roads in this locality, especially, will not get much attention. Capt. Miller and his daughter and children expect to start for Goldendale Monday. The generous people of Lone Rock aided Mrs. McKinney and her children to a considerable extent in the way of financial aid, which was very acceptable to the poor family. Our inhabitants took another stampede Monday morning, when Mrs. Hogan was taken seriously ill and all hands pronounced it diphtheria. Dr. Hogan was sent for and arrived about 7 p. m., and soon allayed all fears by assuring the patient that she was only suffering from a bad cold, bordering on la grippe.

For Sale or Trade.

All those desiring to subscribe for the San Francisco Examiner should remember that the best way to do it is through the special agent at the Globe office. If you want to win a prize you should not forget this.

Dr. W. W. Oglesby and Robt. Clow of Junction City are about to establish a saw mill at Blachley, Lane county. It is to be run by water power and they believe it will be the only one of that kind in the state.

The News says: "Have you ever noticed that those who do not pay any taxes are always the loudest and most anxious to vote for a tax, and the larger the tax the better it suits them. This is one form of anarchy."

An exchange advises editors to carefully scan their ten-dollar bills, as many dangerous counterfeits of that denomination are abroad. If somebody will lend us a ten dollar bill, we'll give it a critical inspection with pleasure.

There is only one class in Oregon whose income has not been reduced within the past few years, and that class is the office holder. The legislature should see to it that they too are placed on an equality with other people by judiciously pruning down salaries.—Grant County News.

Madder Than a Wet Hen.
"A Mother" writes to the Goldendale Sentinel as follows: "What are school directors elected for, anyway? I think it would be a good thing to send some of our teachers (?) off to a reform school, so they can learn how to control themselves and their scholars. This habit of sending little ones up to the principal's room is getting ridiculous and monotonous. As it is, the principal has all he can attend to, especially when he spends a great portion of his time prancing up and down the room pawing his hair. After he has worked himself up to such a frenzy, he wrecks his ire on the little ones. Any so-called teacher that is not able to conduct the affairs of his own room had better resign, or be caused to. For my part, the next time my child is spanned by any one, excepting his teacher, I'll go down to that school and clean out the whole outfit. I mean business."

"Under The Laurels."
