THE OFFICIAL PAPER OF GILLIAM COUNTY, OREGON.

CONTROL OF THE SENATE.

The Dalles Chronicle.

It might be well for the Republican contingent which refuses to organize the legislature to consider carefully what the result will be, and to realize to what extent they are playing into the hands of the Populists and Democrats. If a Republican senator is elected from Oregon, the Republicans will have exactly one-half the senate, and with the vice-president, who only votes in case of a tie, they will have control of that body. If no senator is elected from Oregon, the combination opposed to Republican ideas will have one majority. No tariff legislation can be enacted, and the Republican party will be powerless to carry out its theories.

The majority of the legislature want Mitchell, and certainly a large majority of the people want him. The only question in the election of a senator is, shall the majority select the man for the position, or shall it permit the minority to do so?

Oregon, after one of the hardest fought political battles it ever experienced, was carried for Republican principles by a bare majority of 2,000. The fruits of that victory are about to be snatched from the party by a few boss-ruled Republicans.

It is not only the interests of the state that are being jeopardized, but those of the nation. If the legislature adjourns without electing a United States senator, the party will not have control of the upper house of congress, and the blame for this state of affairs must rest entirely on Joe Simon and the small Republican contingent of the Oregon legislature that he controls. The Oregonian and Simon are willing to ruin the party, state and nation, in their insane desire to down Mitchell, and by the assistance of a few traitors, they seem to be in a fair way to accomplish that purpose.

Ex-Judge and Senator Davis of Illinois pays the following tribute to the local paper: Each year every local paper gives from $500 to $5000 in free lines for the benefit of the community in which it is located. No other agency can or will do this; the editor, in proportion to his means, does more for his town than any other man, and in all fairness he ought to be supported—not because you may happen to like him or admire his writing, but because a local paper is the best advertisement a community can make. It may not be crowded with great thoughts, but financially it is more of a benefit than both teacher and preacher. Today editors of local papers do more work for less pay than any man on earth. Patronize your local paper not as a charity but as an investment.—Exchange.

R. E. Williams, a Kansas populist, has prepared a bill which was introduced in the Kansas legislature Monday, providing for disposing of county offices by auction to the lowest bidder. In substance it provides that on the first day of January of each year the applicants for county offices shall submit bids stating the minimum amount for which they will serve the county in a stated capacity. Each bid must be accompanied by a $50 cash deposit as a guarantee that a sufficient bond will be given. These bids are to be opened by the sheriff and county clerk. The successful applicant will then be permitted to move into the court house, while the cash deposits will be returned to the other bidders.

A bill has been introduced into the Missouri legislature making it a misdemeanor for a train man to flirt with the lady passengers and imposing a fine upon the railroad company of $15. It is thought by some that if the above law comes into force it will bankrupt all the railroads.

JOSEPH W. WHITE,
MATNEY, OR., Jan. 23, 1897.

Under the constitution it requires a joint resolution of both houses to adjourn the legislature. As there is no house recognized by the senate, the question arises, "how will it adjourn?" As long as it is not getting paid the country will not bother itself about it, in fact, will be highly pleased if it continues to keep Joe and Jonathan at Salem. One would think they would get tired of staying so near the pen.

A bill has been introduced in the legislature at Harrisburg to remove the capital of Pennsylvania to Philadelphia. The latter place is working with renewed energy, since the $1,000,000 state capitol building at Harrisburg was burned recently. This reminds us that nearly everybody in Oregon, outside of Marion county, would like to see the state capital moved to Portland, where it naturally belongs.

Weyler's Cuban campaign during 1896 cost Spain the neat little sum of $120,000,000, and victory appears about as far off for Spain as it did before a dollar of this money was put into Weyler's campaign. In the meantime Cuba is steadily advancing towards independence and victory.

We agree with the La Grande Chronicle and Baker City Republican that no county in the state should collect state taxes this year. They are not needed, as the money cannot be used for any purpose for two years at least.

LANDS.
All persons desiring to acquire title to any lands under the laws of the United States, or under the laws of the State of Oregon, will do well to take their business to United States Commissioner S. A. D. Gurley, at Arlington, Oregon.

Edwards is carrying in connection with his mammoth stock of drugs at Arlington a full and complete line of jewelry and you can find anything you want in that line at prices that will surprise you.

SUMMONS.
In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for the County of Gilliam.
W. E. Swentzel, Plaintiff, vs. Byron Murch, Lydia Ann Murch, Henry C. Flower, Abraham S. Hyatt and Osborn W. Bright, Defendants.
To Byron Murch, Lydia Ann Murch, Henry C. Flower, Abraham S. Hyatt and Osborn W. Bright, the above-named defendants: In the name of the State of Oregon you and each of you are hereby required to appear and answer the complaint filed against you in the above entitled suit on or before the first day of the next term of said court following the expiration of this summons, to-wit: By the 2d Monday in April, 1897, on the 12th day of said month of April, and if you fail so to appear and answer, the plaintiff for want thereof will apply to the court for the relief prayed for and demanded in the complaint herein, to-wit: Will take judgment against you for the sum of $550.00, with interest thereon from the first day of December, 1894, at the rate of eight per cent per annum; the further sum of $50.00 attorney's fees; the further sum of $34.40 and interest thereon at the rate of eight per cent per annum from the first day of December, 1893; the further sum of $34.40 and interest thereon from the first day of Dec., 1894, together with his costs and disbursements, and will take decree foreclosing the mortgage described in said complaint and declare the same to be a first lien upon the land therein described, to-wit: The southeast quarter of section twenty, township three north, of range twenty east, of the Willamette Meridian, situated in the County of Gilliam, State of Oregon; and that said defendants, Henry C. Flower, Abraham S. Hyatt and Osborn W. Bright, and all persons claiming by, through or under them, be forever barred of all right or equity of redemption in said premises; and that the same may be sold to satisfy said judgment, and that the defendants, Byron Murch and Lydia Ann Murch, be foreclosed of all right, claim or interest in said premises except as redemptioners under the statute; and for such other and further relief as to the court may seem just and equitable.

This summons is published by order of Hon. W. L. Bradshaw, Judge of the said court, made and dated on the 18th day of February, 1897.

Situated on Thirtymile; 2 miles of running water all the year; sheep shed 20x30 feet; box house, and orchard all under fence; best sheep range in the county. For particulars apply to the proprietor on the premises.
JOSEPH WHITE.

I have given Chamberlain's Cough Remedy a fair test and consider it one of the very best remedies for croup that I have ever found. One dose has always been sufficient, although I use it freely. Any cold my children contract yields very readily to this medicine. I can conscientiously recommend it for croup and colds in children.—Geo. E. Wolff, Clerk of the Circuit Court, Fernandina, Fla. Mr. Ward L. Smith of Fredericktown, Mo., was troubled with chronic diarrhoea for over thirty years. He had become fully satisfied that it was only a question of a short time until he would have to give up. He had been treated by some of the best physicians in Europe and America but got no permanent relief. One day he picked up a newspaper and chanced to read an advertisement of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. He got a bottle of it, the first dose helped him and its continued use cured him. For sale by druggists.
