FRIDAY, MARCH 19, 1907.

THE OFFICIAL PAPER OF GILLIAM COUNTY, OREGON.

The scarcity of children in France has set her statesmen to cudgeling their brains for a scheme to protect the "infant industry."

The Salem Journal is authority for the statement that Secretary of State Kincaid will refuse to accept the responsibilities imposed upon him through failure of the present legislature to pass the appropriation bill.

Mr Cleveland will not resume the practice of law. He proposes to live in dignified retirement, as becomes a man of means and an ex-president of the United States.

State Secretary Kincaid says that he considers the state normal school appropriations merely biennial donations, and that he cannot recognize the schools when the appropriation is lacking.

If the European powers will not allow Greece and Turkey to fight at home, they should come over to fighters' paradise—Nevada, and pummel each other.

The Iowa Republican says that as the republicans prophesied all kinds of hard times in case of Bryan's election, and as the hard times are still here, it wants the vote recounted to see if Mr. Bryan was not elected.

Governor Lord has refused to sign the railroad commissioners' bonds, and holds that a vacancy exists. This will force the commissioners to go to work now for a living.

The dull, sickening thud sounds heard here yesterday from the direction of Nevada was caused by the big mill in operation there—a mug and nose-smashing foundry.

The largest tree in the world lies broken and petrified at the end of a defile in northwestern Nevada. It is said to be 666 feet long.

An exchange has made the wonderful discovery that it is much easier to live within your income than without one.

Every miserly old bachelor in the country ought to be fined for contempt of court—ing, thinks the Dispatch.

The largest mill Nevada ever had started up in that one-horse state yesterday, 17th, at Carson City.

Ex-Senator J. N. Dolph died at Portland last Thursday.

Some land in Paris has been sold at the rate of $2,000,000 per acre, some in London for what would net $5,000,000 per acre, and some in New York for a sum equal to $8,000,000.

A woman's face may be her fortune, but it would be better if some of them would make an assignment.—News.

We call special attention to what "Observer" has to say this week, under the head "do not be deceived." It is an indisputable fact that aside from being everyone's interest to patronize our home stores, it is immensely more satisfactory to the buyer when he sees what he buys before paying his money; and it is much easier to correct mistakes at home, or make exchanges, than to send to some distant city and pay postage or excessive freight charges.

A Modest Office-seeker.

Washington Post. In the district which Congressman Ellis of Oregon represents are two Presidential postoffices, Astoria and Portland. Only two, remember, for that is the point of this story. The other day, while Mr. Ellis was seated at his desk in the House, a card was handed to him. He went into the lobby and found a young man. Forthwith the said young man proceeded to address Mr. Ellis in this wise: "Mr Ellis, I have come to the conclusion that I want to go West. I think that the climate will agree with me and that there is a chance out there for me to make a living. I have saved a little money, but I do not want to take any risk of not finding employment. I have come to you, therefore, with a suggestion. Mr. McKinley knows my father very well, and I think that he also remembers me. Now, if I could go out to Oregon as Postmaster of Astoria I would settle there, and I am sure Mr. McKinley would appoint me if you will only recommend me."

The young man got no farther in his speech. Mr. Ellis, who is very tall, looked down upon his visitor with a paralyzed stare, and then, turning on his heel, walked back into the House without saying a word.

Dr. J. T. Tate, one of the leading dentists of Portland and the Pacific coast, expects to make a tour of Eastern Oregon this spring and will be in Condon some time in April to remain a few days. This will be pleasing news to those needing first-class dental work. Dr. Tate is a graduate of the New York College of Dentistry and has held high positions in the Portland Dental Society and the Oregon State Dental Association. The Globe will notify you when he comes.
