

THE CONDON GLOBE.

FRIDAY, MAY 14, 1897.

NOTICE.

The yearly subscription to the Globe is $1.50, if paid in advance. If not paid in advance $2 will be charged. A post mark around this notice indicates that your subscription has expired. Please renew promptly.

GLOBOSITIES.

Read J. W. Smith's new ad this week. A fine new altar for the Catholic church arrived here this week.

The Oregon national guard will hold an encampment at Hood River the latter part of next month.

Miss Mollie Adlard orders her Globe sent to Antelope, where she expects to stop for several months.

Dr. B. F. Nott, the Fossil dentist, writes us that he will be in Condon next Monday, 17th, and will remain 3 or 4 weeks.

The people in California are "praying for rain." A drought has prevailed in the greater portion of that state for several weeks.

C. H. Reis and Jesse McKinney of Olex were up to town Saturday with garden vegetables—the first received here this season.

Good wheat crops and good prices would bring back to Gilliam county some of that $100,000 sent out to pay for forfeited railroad lands.

Dr. Tate, the dentist, is still in town and will remain a few days longer. Those needing first-class dental work should come in at once.

It was our J. N. Brown of Heppner who was in Washington applying for the appointment of governor of Alaska. He returned home last week.

With very few exceptions, the Globe is read by every taxpayer in Gilliam county, which accounts for its excellence as an advertising medium.

Ed Bell returned to Condon last week from his old home at McCoy, Polk county, and will remain here several weeks looking after his business interests.

Our public schools will close on Friday of this week, after a 9-months' term. No doubt the teachers and scholars alike will appreciate a vacation.

Rev. Father Newell, accompanied by Father Briody, returned home from Fossil and Mayville Monday and are now in Heppner conducting a mission.

The editor of one of our exchanges sadly says: "The mumps are again in our midst." That is a rocky place to have 'em; it is bad enough in the jaws.

S. B. Barker received last week a number of those fine Mitchell wagons, wide tires, and is selling them lower than ever before sold for in this country.

We learn from the Guard that Gaiety Mathews has sold his flooring mill at Eugene. We hope he will conclude to return to this county, as he is a good citizen.

John Palmer came down this week from Trailcreek, B. C., and gathered up about 50 head of cayuses, which he will take to Spokane, where he has already sold them.

Condon is without a marshal again, Gene Smith having resigned. If there is a man in town who has not yet been honored with the position, let him come forward, as his day for glory and renown is at hand.

We notice in the Pendleton papers that T. R. Lyons has three different cases in the supreme court now in session there, which speaks well for the young attorney.

Dr. Howard and wife of Fossil went to Arlington Monday. Mrs. Howard is on her way to visit relatives in Eastern Canada and expects to be absent a couple of months.

Mrs. J. R. Clark, who was at the hospital in Portland several weeks under treatment for lung troubles, arrived home today, very much improved in health. Her husband met her at Arlington.

Jesse Wilkes and party, who started to Fossil, Gilliam county, last week, found such high water at the locks of the Columbia that crossing was impossible, and they returned to Portland.—Dallas Itemizer.

Surveyor Jeddy Brown of Fossil took a load of fine spuds to Arlington the first of the week. There are potatoes yet to "throw at the birds" in this section, nearly everybody having more than they can use.

Ex-Gov. Z. F. Moody returned Friday night from the Dalles, where he spent the past two weeks looking after his business interests.—Salem Statesman. [Part of the business was that of the defunct bank, of which he is president.]

Clay Folsom, the photographer, has been kept very busy since he came here a week ago, turning out first-class work. He expects to leave next Wednesday, 10th, for Mayville; so those wanting photos must come in before that time.

Jas. A. Kiser of Condon is now road supervisor for district No. 1, including all of the county north of Thirty-mile. The county court last week appointed him to take the place of J. W. Maguire. Jim understands the business thoroughly and will give satisfaction if anyone can.

The people of Eastern Klickitat county, Washington, are building a new road through to Arlington. When completed it will bring many thousands of dollars worth of trade each year to Arlington that heretofore has been going to Bickleton and Goldendale. Bully for Arlington.

Gilliam's popular little stock inspector, Fred Hale of Pine creek, was in this section several days last week looking after his official duties. He informs us that there is a little scab in the county at present, but that the diseased sheep are being carefully treated and will soon be all right again.

Mont Ward butchered a fine beef and sold it in town Tuesday morning—the first fresh beef the town has had for several weeks. A town this size ought to have fresh beef all the time. It seems strange that every other town this size supports two butcher shops and Condon cannot support one.

There are more men hunting work coming to Heppner than ever before; and, as nearly all of them are "broke," they are sadly disappointed on learning that there is no work at any price, except herding sheep and farm work, and the people of Morrow give this as far as possible, to those who belong here.—Gazette.

Patronize home industry always, in preference to any outside institution or business. Had the people of this county, who lost their money in The Dalles bank, patronized our home bank at Arlington they would yet have their money, and certainly could eat and sleep better. Stand by our home enterprises, "if it takes the skin off."

Jack Parker was paroled out of the penitentiary last week and returned to Heppner. The Gazette lets him down easy, as follows: Jack Parker got back Sunday from below after an absence of two and one half years. Jack has had a hard road to travel and has profited thereby. He will leave for Montana soon. [Got back from "below" is good.]

Old man Bush, the millionaire banker of Salem, has always had the "knack" to know just when to pull his money out of "shaky" banks. He had a lot of money in the defunct Dalles bank and pulled it out only a few days before it broke, and has done the same thing many times before with weak banks just before they went under. Bush is onto his job alright.

One illustration of how the new road system is working is that J. W. Maguire has already used up his half of the $2000 that the county court provided by tax and thought sufficient to work the roads this year, and scarcely any of the public roads of the county have yet been worked. At the next general election the voters of this county will show by their votes how the "change" suits them.

It is generally supposed that alfalfa can not be grown without irrigation, which is a mistake. It is one of the hardiest grasses in the world, which has been proven by a number of people in this section, who have raised heavy crops of it on our high bunch-grass land. Al Henshaw has a pretty a patch of alfalfa in Condon as one could find anywhere, standing about a foot high and as "thick as dog on a hare's back."

Rev. August Bade of Weston, a young man only 21 years of age, has been appointed to preach here this summer, perhaps longer, if he desires to stay. He will deliver his first sermon here next Sunday, 16th. The young ladies no doubt will be pleased to learn that he is a single man. Put on your best bib and tucker and smiles and come out Sunday. Rev. Olds, also of Weston, will soon assist him in holding a revival here.

Joe Mattingly met with a terrible accident early this morning. He was on the way to Arlington with a load of wood, and while coming up the new road from Thirty-mile, the wagon ran over some large rocks in the road and upset down a steep embankment, crippling all of his horses and smashing his wagon into splinters. And yet it is only a couple of days since one of the county road machines was over that road. This will likely call for a heavy damage suit against the county. The new road system works "beautifully."

The failure of The Dalles National bank last Wednesday caused a ripple of excitement in this county, where the bank had a number of patrons, who had money in it. Among the number in this section who had money on deposit there are Rettle & Patterson, the sheepmen, amounting to about $1200; Wm. Smith of Hay creek, about $1000; Frank Pitter about $900; Barr & Dunn about $750; and Shad Grider. The Platte Valley Sheep Co. of Wyoming, for which J. W. Blake is buying sheep, had nearly $15,000 in the bank. A great many others in this county were caught also for various sums. As usual when a bank fails, the officers say the depositors will be paid in full. Z. F. Moody of Salem is president; Charles Hilton, vice-president, and M. A. Moody, cashier. Bank Examiner Clay is now in charge of the bank and a receiver will be appointed in a few days.

If our county court were as particular and "grannyish" in dealing with the big city firms for stationery, books, etc., as it is with our little home newspapers in the county printing matter, hundreds of dollars could be saved to the county each year. The couple of dollars a year that the county printing amounts to appears to be quite a "bugaboo" to our county court, and it would not surprise us if the court would next be soliciting bids from the newspapers of this county to see which is willing to pay the biggest bonus for the privilege of doing the county printing. The court says the reason the big city firms are not asked to bid on contracts for furnishing supplies for the county is that the firms don't want the work unless there is a big profit in it for them. But, of course, for the home papers it doesn't make any difference; they can live on wind and scenery.

STATE OF OREGON, County of Gilliam, J. H. S. Frazer, county clerk of said Gilliam county hereby certifies that the foregoing transcript has been by me carefully compared with, and is a true copy, and the whole thereof of the original docket entries of the county court proceedings of Gilliam county, Oregon, May term, 1897. In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my official seal this 10th day of May, 1897. H. S. FRAZER, County Clerk.

Arlington Items. B Hicklin is back from California. J W Blake of Condon was here last week.

Dr Giesendorfer is now located in his fine new office. L G Gates, P M of Fossil, was in our midst Monday. C M Walker sold a lot of fine cattle here last week.

C W Shurtie left last week for the East with a lot of fine horses. Mrs Stanley Coffin has been visiting relatives here for several days. County Treasurer S B Barker was doing business here last Saturday.

Chas Bressler was here a few days since visiting friends and relatives. Geo W Miller made final timber colture proof before Com. Gurley Saturday. Mr J Ralston is repairing his hotel and bar, putting on a very nobby appearance.

Louis Lapointe is here with a lame arm, which was injured by a runaway team. We have another M D here now, Dr. Denny. We understand he intends to remain. We had a lovely rain here Sunday, which shortened up the farmers' faces considerably.

Mr. Scott, Shurtie Bros machine man, keeps the road hot. He is a rustler from 'way back. Lots of wool is coming in. With a McKinley tariff on wool this season we expect lively times.

Uncle Ed Stephens of Rock creek has been here for several days under treatment for the gripple. Albert Phillips of Blalock is in town being treated by Dr Giesendorfer for a large and painful felon. Joe Ward, formerly with J W Smith, is now with Lord & Co. He is rushing the grocery department.

J H Wood has secured the aid of a first class painter, who is turning out some good work for him. Our band boys were out in all their glory Friday evening, and the report is that they didn't get home "till mornin'."

Lord & Co had a formal opening of their new store Friday evening. The band was out and the large crowd was delightfully entertained. C H Shurtie of Chicago seems to be doing a good business for his company. He has secured the shipment of about 175,000 sheep, to be shipped during the summer.

Frank Aldrich, manager of the Wasco warehouse at this place, was all smiles Saturday and Sunday, the result of his wife coming over from Goldendale to visit him.

Last Friday night the band proceeded to the residence of F C Hindle, the efficient leader of the band. Some stirring music brought Mr. Hindle to the door, when the president of the band, Atty Gurley, in a brief speech, presented him with a fine parlor lamp as a token of the esteem in which he is held by the members of the band. The boys were all invited in, refreshments were served and a pleasant evening spent.
