

THE CONDON GLOBE.

FRIDAY, MAY 28, 1897.

NOTICE.

The yearly subscription to the GLOBE is $1.50, paid in advance. If not paid in advance $2 will be charged. A pencil mark around this notice indicates that your subscription has expired. Please renew promptly.

GLOBOSITIES.

We learn that Barr Bros. and the Duns are about to dissolve partnership.

Jasper Dodson has started in to learn the blacksmith trade with G. S. Clark.

Dr. M. J. Denney, Physician and Surgeon, Union Block, Arlington, Oregon.

A fine little daughter was born last Monday to Mr. and Mrs. Mont Ward, in South Condon.

J. H. Downing left this week for his home in California, after a month's stay in this section.

The Clem postoffice will be re-established in a few days, to the delight of the people of that vicinity.

Mrs. H. N. Frazer now exercises on a fine new bicycle that her husband got for her in Portland last week.

Mrs. Martha Hogan returned home to Lone Rock this week from an extended visit with relatives in the valley.

The proudest, also busiest boys in town just now are Arthur and Alvin Wilcox, whose father brought them a fine little bicycle from Portland last week.

P. A. Fry went up to Union county this week with his fine stallion racer "Altomont," also a number of his fine young race horses, which he will sell while visiting his relatives.

Dr. H. S. Goddard of Goldendale, formerly of Fossil, was married in Portland last Thursday to Miss Bessie Stevens of that city. The doctor's friends in this county extend congratulations.

We have just received a letter from the East, which states that times are so hard back there that the birds are laying their eggs in last year's nests. They cannot afford to build new ones.

Geo. Angell, one of the most reliable and trustworthy herders in the country, started this week with Doc Brown's sheep for the mountains in Grant county. Ralph May will assist him.

Bob Hendricks, Supt. of the state reform school at Salem, has resigned that position, to take effect June 1st. Ed M. Croisan of Salem, formerly sheriff of Marion county, has been appointed to take his place.

A man, who is evidently a vigorous aspirant for the champion liarship of the world, writes from Mexico that hail stones weighing three pounds recently fell there. He should have stated how many it took to weigh three pounds.

Miss Bula Fitzwater had several bad fainting spells Monday morning, the result of having a tooth pulled, causing nervous prostration. She was unconscious several hours and her folks were greatly alarmed at her condition for awhile.

Misses Mabel and Ethel Halstead returned home this week from Blackock, where the former just closed a term of school, which her sister attended. Miss Mabel will teach the summer term of school on upper Thirtymile, commencing Monday.

It seems that nearly everybody in this county who raise cattle sold a few to Matlock and Rhea and delivered them last week as the band was en route to the railroad. By the time the drove reached Arlington it had swelled to almost 2000. In consequence many a dollar has been put into circulation in this county.

Owing to great despondency over domestic troubles, Jos. Whyte, during a fit of temporary insanity, tried to commit suicide on Thursday evening of last week on the street in front of Maddock's hotel, in the presence of his wife, by swallowing a quantity of strychnine. He was at once given an emetic, which soon had him in running order again.

Dr. Hogan has just had rustic put on his office and residence, the inside rearranged, repapered, painted and fitted up in elegant style, with a large bay window. He will have such a rush of patients now that it is likely he will be obliged to put up a sign at his gate warning patients and callers to "keep to the right, in order to avoid collisions."

Services at the Cong. church next Sunday, as usual. In the morning, the Lord willing, the pastor will speak on the theme, "The New Dress." All are cordially invited to attend. The children, aided by the older ones, are making elaborate plans to present to the public a pleasing program on June 13th, known as Children's Day. This day is known throughout the land as a special day for the children.

Dr. J. H. Frazer and family of Month expect to spend the month of July here visiting his brother, H. N. Frazer and family. His health has not been of the best lately and he believes that a month's sojourn up here will be of great benefit to him. He is a first-class dentist, having learned the business thoroughly in Portland, and will bring his dental outfit along and combine business with pleasure by doing all that kind of work that comes in his way.

The body of W. S. Ladd, the dead millionaire, which was stolen from the grave at Portland last week, has been found, and the four grave robbers—Dan Magee, Chas. Montgomery, Ed Long and Wm. Rector, all young men of Oregon City, near which place they hid the body, are all in jail, with long terms in the penitentiary staring them in the face. They had hoped to get a large reward for the return of the body, but the officers were too smooth for them.

Walt Wyland, the horse thief, was acquitted by a jury at Canyon City last week. This seems like a queer verdict, when Wyland admitted at his preliminary examination that he stole the horse and asked that the other boys suspected be turned loose, because he didn't want anyone else to suffer for his misdeeds. Wyland also broke jail some time ago and tried to commit suicide, because he said he preferred death to going to the pen again, where he had served a term.

The Indian war dance in the ball here Friday night was a very snide affair, hardly worth going to see, let alone pay 25c admission. The redskins must have "bled" the crowd to the tune of perhaps $35, which will keep them in horse race and brewer money for quite awhile. As usual, some of them got roaring full again before they left town. The city council ought to offer a reward for the apprehension of the party who sells them whisky, and make an example of him—by hanging, if no other way.

Our neighbor across the hills feels greatly elated because that wood notice by the county does not appear in this paper. The notice was offered us, but was refused, because we have no advertising space to donate to the county or anybody else free of charge. The GLOBE can easily keep its columns full of live advertisements at regular rates, and is not reduced to such straits as a certain "fossilized" paper not far from here, that is obliged to fill up on dead ads and anything it can get, or suspend publication. That manner of running a paper only prostitutes the profession and is a disgrace to journalism. No wonder such publishers are always hopelessly in debt.

Hon. Benton Killin, the well-known Portland lawyer, and a brother-in-law of Mrs. T. B. Hoover of Fossil, has been appointed by Secretary Wilson as a special commissioner of the department of agriculture to visit Alaska and examine into the agricultural resources of that territory and report to congress the advisability of establishing an experimental station there, such as are in operation in other states and territories. Mr. Killin is a gold democrat and feels greatly flattered over the appointment, as the honorable position was tendered him without his asking for it. He says he is much pleased, as it will bring him into a field of work which he will greatly enjoy and take pleasure in performing.

Mayville Mutterings.

Clay Folsom, the photographer, is in town.

Fannie McDowell is very low with lung troubles.

Mrs. Ed Portwood visited relatives on Rock creek last week.

Little Velma Edwards is quite sick and under the care of Dr. Howard.

E I French has just given E P Weir's new house a coat of paint, which adds greatly to its appearance.

Miss Cummings of Halsey, Linn county, is visiting her cousin, Miss Maud Golden, and will remain all summer.

Our new church is going up rapidly. It is the desire of the Ladies Aid to have it near enough completed by June 10th to hold the meeting of the Baptist Association in it, that being the date it commences.

A social dance was given Wednesday night here, in honor of Misses Teith Phillips and Pearl Shelton and L. Thomas and wife, who expect to leave the latter part of the week for Jordan, Linn county. Miss Phillips is a niece of A J Shelton and has made many warm friends here who regret her departure, but all hope she will return again.

I D CLARE.

'Spoiling' for Another Caning.
Thirtymile, May 26th
EDITOR GLOBE:—I dislike newspaper notoriety and controversies, but feel that it is my duty to myself and friends to have a word to say in refutation of the cowardly manner in which that disreputable publication, the Fossil Journal, has been maliciously vilifying and slandering me for several years. I am an old man and have had more than my share of trouble and grief, as God knows. Even my worst enemies will agree with me that it is a shame to be thus vilified by the Journal "gorilla," whom I have treated better than did his own people. When he first came to this country, friendless and broke, I kept the fellow from starving by giving him a job of sheepherding (which, by the way, he ought to be at yet) and time and again I befriended him—and this is the thanks I get. He could entertain his handful of readers a great deal more by filling his worthless space with the story of his own troubles just before coming over here, and the conditions under which he left there. It would be a great deal more sensational and interesting. His paper is too obscene and vulgar to be allowed to circulate through the U. S. mails or to go into decent homes. But it is a good reflection of his "Maori" character and beastly nature. He's spoiling for another pick-handling.

JOSEPH WHITE.

To Whom It May Concern.
The public is hereby cautioned to not purchase a certain note held by the defunct 1st national bank of Arlington for $75, dated Jan. 20, 1892, and signed by me, and which is advertised to be sold on June 5th by the receiver. The said note has been paid in full.

JOSEPH FRIZZELL.

Lost Valley, May 20, 1897.

Arlington Items.

Miss Ricks, our popular day operator, is enjoying a vacation with relatives and friends in Utah.

E W Scott is now "off the pay roll" and Mr. Turpin will take his place with Shurte Bros.

Rev G W Barobart will shine forth in a nobby new buggy in a few days, the result of having his rig repainted.

J W Smith is building an extension to his already enormous warehouse, to meet the demands of his rapidly-increasing business.

The Maccabees gave an "I scream" and strawberry social Saturday evening, which was greatly enjoyed by the large crowd present.

Newcomers are coming in almost daily. Among the latest to locate here are Dr M J Denney and his wife, who are both physicians of high standing.

Peter Baerentzen of Douglas paid the town a visit the first of the week, likewise J W Blake of Condon. E P Weir and A S Shelton of Mayville were here also delivering cattle.

C H Shurte of Chicago was compelled to return home last week, owing to sickness in his family. Messrs. Monett & Bogue were sent out to attend the business that he had started.

If you wish to sleep in Arlington must wire for a bed, as our hotels are doing a land office business. There is plenty of business here for another good hotel. Open one, somebody.

It is reported that the people of The Dalles are as fidgety as a maggot on a beef head, on account of the high water, which threatens to get dangerously high again. The river fell four inches at Arlington Monday.

Our streets are constantly thronged by wool teams, cattle and sheep, for shipment. This is doubtless the greatest shipping point in the United States for its size, and it is getting better right along. Arlington is all right.

Russell Stillwell and wife left this week for the Okanogan country in Washington, where they will embark in the cattle raising business. Russell is a rustler and we regret to see them go, but wish them well in their new home.

The reporter had a bird's eye view of the great president of the Southern Pacific, C P Huntington, as he passed through town Monday, going east. He is just an ordinary looking man, even if he does count his millions by the hundreds.

Nate Cecil says he feels satisfied that his brother Frank is yet alive, and that he was not frozen to death, as was reported some time ago. Nate says the report was originated by parties who hoped to be benefitted in a financial way and took this plan with that end in view. The world appears to be full of people who will resort to anything for money.

Another son was born on April 28th to Major and Mrs. S. Collins at Portland. Major Collins is being recognized by those high in authority as being among the most efficient military officers of the nation. Stranger things have happened than that Sidney may yet reach the exalted position of general of the United States army—and he would make a good one, too.

The receiver of the defunct Baker City national bank has declared another dividend of 10 per cent, making a total payment to claimants of 70 per cent. This is the bank that was looted or "fricked" just after this one was at Arlington. This one, however, has never paid but 15 per cent. And, by the way, it has about as much use for a receiver as a wagon has five wheels.

Olex Explosions.
Mr. Ed Stephens has been on the shelf the last month, with a bad case of asthma. We hope to see Uncle Ed on deck again soon.

J W McKinney will start in a few days for Baker City with a band of work horses to sell to the wood contractors for the mines tributary to that city.

Don't forget the pink ice cream social at the M E church this Friday evening, for the benefit of the preacher. It will be worth coming miles to see.

It rained again Sunday, but only sufficient to keep up the Easter record for rain seven Sundays. Joe Budd had better holler a little louder for rain next time.

Messrs Frank Ralston, Neel and Hamilton of Lone Rock were among the number who delivered cattle here to Matlock and Rhea. Olex is getting to be quite a center for stock buyers and sellers to meet, receive and pay up.

Over 1600 head of cattle passed through Olex Sunday on the way to Arlington. Messrs Edwards, Weir and Keys all received here. More cattle have gone from Gilliam county this spring than for the last ten years, and still there are lots of them left.

We are grieved to have to chronicle a death by suicide at Olex this week. It appears to have been deliberate and well planned, for death was instantaneous. It was a gruesome sight to those who saw the awful work of self-destruction. Old Nate has gone to join the silent majority across the dark river. It was Old Nate, the white stage horse, branded I D high on the hip—everybody knew him. Sunday evening he stubbed his toe and fell over the bluff just above H D Randall's house, and broke his neck, thus depriving the stage company of a good and faithful work horse.

The Battle Creek Land, Live Stock & Lumber Company has 250,000 feet of seasoned lumber at its mill six miles above Fossil. The roads are good clear to the mill. The company will give larger discounts for cash trade than formerly. The lumber, the roads and the prices will suit you. Chas. McKenzie, manager.

Look your machines over and tell Shurte Bros. your troubles. They will save you money on extras of all kinds.

Stockmen, Notice!
I will lease to responsible party, having range, all my stallions and mares, or will exchange same for cattle.

Address, CHAS. B. SEANS, Mayville, Or.

The Wasco Warehouse Co. has wool sacks, fleecy twine and sack twine for sale at Arlington.

Patronize home industry and build up the resources of our state. Buy the Salem Woolen Mills clothing. See P. H. Stephenson for samples and prices.

The Wasco Warehouse Co. has wool sacks, fleecy twine and sack twine for sale at Arlington.

Edwards at Arlington will pay stage charges on all orders from his drug store except patent medicines. As he charges only the price printed on the wrappers, you can save money by sending to him for patent medicines also.

A Man Hung
Some of that fine wall-paper Al Henshaw keeps in stock and pronounced it the best paper for the price ever brought to the country. Buy some.

County Warrants at Facc.
I will take county warrants at their face value in trade at my store in Condon.

LANDS.
All persons desiring to acquire title to any lands under the laws of the United States, or under the laws of the State of Oregon, will do well to take their business to United States Commissioner S. A. D. Gurley, at Arlington, Oregon.

Good Advice.
Don't let whisky get the best of you, but if you want the best of whisky, wines, beer, liquors and cigars, the place to find them is at the Summit Saloon, in the old drug store building. A fine pool and billiard parlor in connection. Drop in and see for yourselves. The finest line of "wet goods" in the city.

Notice to Sheepmen.
I am prepared to receive and care for bucks during the summer of 1897 on my excellent range at the forks of Buckhorn and Beaverdam creeks. My separating corral will be at my own ranch. I will make one delivery of bucks at Condon on the 18th of October and the remainder at Lone Rock on the 25th of October, 1897. I will charge one dollar per head for all bucks placed in my care.

Ed Comros, Lone Rock.

E. Swentzel, plaintiff and against Byron March, Lydia Ann March, Henry C. Fowler, Abram S. Hyatt and Osborn W. Bright, defendants, which said execution and order of sale is to me directed and commanding me to sell the property hereinafter described for the purpose of satisfying the judgment of the plaintiff in said cause for the sum of five hundred and fifty dollars ($550.00) with interest thereon at 8 per cent per annum, from the 1st day of December, 1894, and the further sum of $34.00 with interest at 8 per cent per annum from Dec. 1, 1894, and the further sum of $84.40 with interest at 8 per cent per annum from Dec. 1, 1895, and the costs and disbursements of said suit taxed at $20, and for the sum of $50 attorneys' fees. To the Public.
I have taken charge of the old Dodson livery stables in Arlington and hope my friends from everywhere will remember me when they come to town. My rates are very moderate and the very best care is taken of stock left in my care. Give me a chance.
