

THE CONDON GLOBE.

FRIDAY, JUNE 4, 1897.

THE OFFICIAL PAPER OF GILLIAM COUNTY, OREGON.

Lone Rock Rumbings.

Stock Inspector Fred Hale was in this section a few days ago.

The county road machine did some good work in this section last week.

Nat Webb of Walla Walla is in this section looking after his vast sheep interests.

Mrs Crawford returned home last week from Arlington, where she spent the winter.

R G Robinson is building a 60-foot addition to his enormous barn, to hold his large crop of hay.

Mrs Martha Hogan has given up the notion of going to Arlington to start a restaurant, as was her intention.

Last week Mrs Wick was thrown from her buggy between here and Fossil and narrowly escaped getting badly hurt.

Harden Neel has been knocked out for some time with a sore eye and has gone to Portland to have it treated by an oculist.

Nearly a dozen wool teams left here this week for Heppner, which is the first wool that has been started to market from here.

The Lone Rock shearing crew is still in the John Day country at work. The Corey crew is shearing the last band in this neighborhood just now, the Harry Greenfield sheep.

We have had the finest kind of growing weather along the foothills lately. The weather was hotter than blazes Saturday, the mercury having buzzed around the 92-mark nearly all day.

Thousands of sheep are going through to the mountains now. If they were not allowed to stop and eat up everything along the foothills, our people would think better of their owners than they do now.

The report that poison had been put into the provisions of Doc Brown's herders last week turns out to be a fake. However, poison was put out on the range, and Doc's dogs and some other dogs ate some of it and died.

J E Johnson narrowly escaped losing his house by fire several days ago. Before it was discovered a large hole had burned around the stovepipe, but a bucket brigade composed of Mrs Johnson soon extinguished the flames.

We have not been troubled any here yet with grasshoppers, for the reason, perhaps, that this section is particularly favored in every respect. Geo Crawford's silver arguments may also have something to do in keeping them away.

W H Colwell hasn't gone on a "wild goose chase," but has gone into the business of raising wild geese, on a small scale. His brace of old honkers are raising a pair of fine little goslings this summer. There may not be much money in it, but there's lots of fun.

Olex Explosions.

The re-established postoffice at Clem will soon be doing business again.

There will be one more week of school in the Woodland district by Miss Retta Schomp.

Mr. and Mrs. T G Johnson visited their relatives on the creek a couple of days last week.

The cool temperature has a beneficial effect upon the growing crops, which still give promise of a heavy harvest.

The new time schedule of the Olex and Smile mail route has gone into effect, to the great satisfaction of all the upper country people.

Wm Phillips is putting on lots of style lately. He started out of Olex Friday with a fine 3½ inch wagon, all painted red, with a pretty green bed and wagon seat.

All ye residents adjacent to Olex, take notice that on Friday evening of next week, June 11th, there will be a strawberry social held at Olex church, to be managed entirely by the ladies. The ladies are all requested to honor the occasion by their presence as guests. Of course, if they have some loose change in their jeans and want to spend it they are at liberty to invite the gentlemen to dine with them. The proceeds of the social is for the school fund and all should patronize such a worthy cause.

When will the sheepmen's union pay for the scalps, is a question that many would like to have answered. It is very nice for the sheepmen to have the coyotes exterminated and then not pay a cent for a couple of years. The county court lending their name and influence to the scheme, caused people to place more confidence in the organization, and now it looks like the court would take more interest in having the matter fixed up in a satisfactory and honorable manner. "Pay up and quit honorably," should be their motto.

Coroner Arthur Marvel empaneled a jury and sat on his first case here last Saturday night. An old German tramp, who had been wandering around in this section for a week or so, was found dead in Harry Clay's orchard Saturday. No marks of violence were found on his body, and the supposition is that he died of heart disease. There were no papers on him or nothing to show who he was or where he came from. The body was buried at Olex Sunday at the county's expense. August Sommerfeld of Condon was talking German to him last week. Possibly he learned something about the man's past history.

JAMES W. SMITH

Desires to inform the people of Gilliam county that his business is running on full time at the old stand—Union Block, Arlington, Oregon; that the flashy, misleading newspaper advertisements and circular letters that are flooding the country have not affected his trade; but on the contrary, sales have been increasing. His many old friends and customers realize that no business man will give away something for nothing. What he loses on the "baits" he will more than doubly make up on the other goods he sells his customers. Look out for snares. One of our greatest statesmen 40 years ago truthfully said: "You can fool some of the people all of the time, and all of the people some of the time, but you can't fool all of the people all of the time."

James W. Smith's immense stock of goods will speak for him. Call and examine the largest stock of goods ever shown in Gilliam county. His stores are loaded from floor to ceiling, and as regards prices he will endeavor to keep in the "procession."

Many of the lines are bought direct from the East in large quantities for cash, which enables him to give his customers great inducements to favor him with their patronage.

He sells the Oliver Chilled plows and extras, including the New Departure two and three gangs, also the John Deere plows of all kinds, the Studebaker, Bain and Racine wagons, hacks and buggies, the Standard, Acme and McCormack mowers, reapers and hay rakes, the latest improved Pitts threshing machinery, the up-to-date old reliable Hodge steel-frame headers, Holt Bros. Combined Harvesters, Etc., Etc.

Camp and sheepmen's supplies a specialty. Highest prices paid for hides, pelts, etc.

When in Arlington call and get prices before closing deals elsewhere.
