

THE GLOBE.

FRIDAY, JULY 2, 1897.

THE OFFICIAL PAPER OF GILLIAM COUNTY, OREGON.

Prairie City Thunderings.

In the mountains, June 27.

There isn't much danger of having to feed the hens cracked ice to keep them from laying boiled eggs up here this season. Better reverse the lever this year, I guess.

Pat Connelly has "arrows" at Austin, likewise Tommy Dillon's and Jim Cameron's outfits, all safe and sound. The flocks are looking fine and in excellent shape. So are the herders.

Mrs Mary and Doc Brown's sheep are reported to be in snow up to their ears near "Old Bally" mountain. Charley thinks—all to himself, of course—that it isn't 1/2 so pleasant plowing snow as hunting Pearls.

George Blake and Josh Portwood passed through Austin a week ago, headed for the Elkhorn mountains. They will not want for something soft to sit down on when they get there, as there's dooles of snow up there yet.

There is plenty of scab among the sheep and laziness among the herders around Austin. But the herders will get well of that if it ever gets warm and they happen to sit down on a "jackets" nest. Otherwise there's little hopes for them.

It is colder here yet than "all git out" with fog, rain and snow for the last two weeks. This letter is written on top of old Ball mountain, at an altitude of 8500 feet, and as the rattle of our teeth sounds like the clicking of a telegraph outfit, it seems more like sending a telegram than a letter.

Ad Renner passed through the other day on the trail on his way to Wyoming. Ad looks kind of "down in the mouth," on account of losing about 100 head of sheep at Big Creek by some thugs shooting into the band. Any one vicious enough to do such a trick ought to be "severely talked to"—just before stretch-hemp.

Lone Rock Rumblings.

Matlock, Stevens, Robinson and others delivered about 300 head of cattle here the first of the week.

Haying was brought to a halt by the heavy rains, but little damage was done, as scarcely any was cut yet.

Everybody come to the celebration at Lone Rock next Monday. If you don't, you'll miss the chance of a lifetime.

Geo Earhart and Henry Neel ran their horses in Lone Rock last Sunday for $75 a side, Neel's horse winning. About $200 changed hands on the result.

The finest rain of the season fell here the latter part of last week, amounting to .95 of an inch. With the showers before and after the main rain there was 1.75 of an inch fell, wetting the ground in fine shape and giving crops the finishing touches.

Here's a Snap for Somebody.

W. H. Colwell offers his fine farm at Lone Rock for sale. It is one of the best farms in Eastern Oregon. There are 10 acres in timothy, 12 acres in alfalfa and 40 acres in wheat, oats and barley, all of which is fine alfalfa land. There is a fine orchard 15 years old on the place, also a good house, two large frame barns, one blacksmith shop, one reaper, mower, rake, sulky-plow, and everything imaginable that is needed on a well-regulated farm. One prong of Rock creek runs through the place; only 3 miles to the finest timber in the country.

Will take part payment in sheep at market price, balance on easy terms. This place is in the best stock and sheep country in Eastern Oregon. Will sell with or without present crop. For particulars, address W. H. Colwell, Lone Rock, Oregon.

If you want a piano or organ, be sure to write to the Jacobson Book and Music Co., The Dalles, Or. Catalogue free.

Dr. J. H. Frazer, dentist, will be in Condon during the month of July, prepared to do all kinds of first-class dental work. Dr. Frazer makes a specialty of diseases of the teeth and gums, and warrants all his work.

Edwards at Arlington will pay stage charges on all orders from his drug store except patent medicines. As he charges only the price printed on the wrappers, you can save money by sending to him for patent medicines also. Only the best and purest of drugs kept in stock, and handled by a competent druggist.

The Wasco Warehouse Co. has wool sacks, floor twine and sack twine for sale at Arlington.

Notice to Sheepmen.

I am prepared to receive and care for bucks during the summer of 1897 on my excellent range at the forks of Buckhorn and Beaverdam creeks. My separating corral will be at my own ranch. I will make one delivery of bucks at Condon on the 18th of October and the remainder at Lone Rock on the 25th of October, 1897. I will charge one dollar per head for all bucks placed in my care. Ed Compton, Lone Rock.

Good Advice.

Don't let whisky get the best of you, but if you want the best of whisky, wines, beer, liquors and cigars, the place to find them is at the Summit Saloon, in the old drug store building. A fine pool and billiard parlor in connection. Drop in and see for yourselves. The finest line of "wet goods" in the city.

JAMES W. SMITH

Desires to inform the people of Gilliam county that his business is running on full time at the old stand—Union Block, Arlington, Oregon; that the flashy, misleading newspaper advertisements and circular letters that are flooding the country have not affected his trade; but on the contrary, sales have been increasing. His many old friends and customers realize that no business man will give away something for nothing. What he loses on the "baits" he will more than doubly make up on the other goods he sells his customers. Look out for snares. One of our greatest statesmen 40 years ago truthfully said: "You can fool some of the people all of the time, and all of the people some of the time, but you can't fool all of the people all of the time."

James W. Smith's immense stock of goods will speak for him. Call and examine the largest stock of goods ever shown in Gilliam county. His stores are loaded from floor to ceiling, and as regards prices he will endeavor to keep in the "procession."

Many of the lines are bought direct from the East in large quantities for cash, which enables him to give his customers great inducements to favor him with their patronage.

He sells the Oliver Chilled plows and extras, including the New Departure two and three gangs, also the John Deere plows of all kinds, the Studebaker, Bain and Racine wagons, hacks and buggies, the Standard, Acme and McCormack mowers, reapers and hay rakes, the latest improved Pitts threshing machinery, the up-to-date old reliable Hodge steel-frame headers, Holt Bros. Combined Harvesters, Etc., Etc.

Camp and sheepmen's supplies a specialty. Highest prices paid for hides, pelts, etc.

When in Arlington call and get prices before closing deals elsewhere.
