Hon. A. S. Bennett will deliver the oration at Prineville's celebration.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Wilson visited Arlington the latter part of last week.

Dr. Fraser, the dentist, and his family are expected to arrive at Condon today.

Miss May Davidson of Idea finished a 3-months term of school at Clem Friday.

Dr. M. J. Denney, Physician and Surgeon, Union Block, Arlington, Oregon.

A picnic will be held next Saturday, 3, at Harrison's grove on Thirty-mile and a dance in the evening.

Albert L. Ramsay of Beecher Flat was over to town Monday making arrangements to prove up on his homestead.

From now on, you can make your own postal cards. Just stick a 1-cent stamp on any kind of card board and it will go.

The neatest fresco work we have seen for a long time is that in the office of Maddock's hotel by Geo. Gibbons. Call in and see it.

Main street, fronting the Henshaw, Blake and Fix places, has been greatly improved by being filled in with ground to the depth of a foot or more.

If you want a magnificent new organ delivered at your nearest R. Y. station for $75 that usually sells for $150 at the factory, apply at this office at once.

A sister of F. W. Royal, Miss Carrie Royal, was married last week at Meham, Marion county, where her father, T. F. Royal, is the stationed minister.

A grand ball will be given in the hall here this Friday evening, for the entertainment of those who are not going away. A large crowd is expected out.

Miss Lillie Lamberson was very sick for several days last week with a complaint similar to hysteria. Dr. Howard Fossil was called and she is now able to be around again.

The insanity dodge of Dan Magone, the grave-robbing hyena, did not work worth a cent. The jury found him guilty and he was socked into the pen for two years, the same as the other three.

J. A. McMorris and Geo. Fletcher are putting the finishing touches on E. A. Mays' fine new dwelling house in Condon, after an interval of several months. It will be a beautiful home when completed.

Mr. I. A. Henderson of Beecher Flat went to Arlington Friday to meet his father-in-law, Mr. Baird, of Summerville Union county, who will spend the summer at the pleasant home of his daughter, Mrs. Henderson.

Fossil has decided to celebrate on Friday of this week, instead of Saturday. A number of our people will be there, including John Lyons, who will deliver a short speech, entitled "Why we celebrate the 4th of July."

Several more fine showers of rain here the last week has wet the ground to a depth of 6 or seven inches, and the farmers and everybody else never felt more encouraged at the bright prospects of rattling good times this fall.

The Globe man is agent for all newspapers published in the United States. Whenever you want to subscribe for any paper or magazine be sure to call at this office. No danger of losing your money in this manner, and no risk to run.

Alaska towns are located on government land and the townsite commissioner is an officer of the federal government who sells the town lots to the people who desire to buy. T. R. Lyons will be stationed at Juneau, the largest town in Alaska.

J. H. Elgin has gone to Fossil, Gilliam county, to be at the bedside of his sister, Mrs. Helen Ruby, aged 62 years, who is seriously ill.—Salom Statesman. (Mrs. Ruby died on June 20th at the home of her daughter, Mrs. F. P. Watson, on Butte creek.)

Frank Clark left Saturday for the home of his uncle near Elgin, Union county, where he will spend the summer at work harvesting, etc. His father and family will perhaps move up there this fall. Frank's absence makes another vacancy in the band which will hard to fill.

Everybody in town and the entire section will be glad to learn that the large Armory hall is to be painted, at last. Geo. Gibbons secured the contract and will commence perhaps next week. A building that size without painted is an eye-sore to any town or community.

The Oregonian uses most excellent judgment in classing this great family paper with the New York World and London Graphic—the other two leading papers of the world. Now is an excellent time to subscribe, while there is yet a little room left for names on our books.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Sears visited at Condon several days last week. Charley went to Portland the first of this week and will remain until after the 4th festivities there. He informs us that a great deal of fall-worn wheat in the Buckhorn country froze out last winter, but what is left looks fine.

Next Sunday, both morning and evening, there will be special services at the Cong. church, to which all are invited. In the morning the sermon will be of a patriotic nature, and the evening service will consist of a musical and literary program interspersed with short addresses on patriotic subjects.

The Portland Sunday Mercury has always been noted for being a great josh. Last Sunday's issue has this job: "They do say that the Condon man has a real nice time with his Portland female beauty; and that the time he took his family to the theater he had his 'girl' sitting behind them to 'take them in.'"

Our town is certainly "running down at the heel" when it cannot afford a butcher shop, and our people have to send to smaller neighboring towns for beef. All the other towns in the country the same size have two shops running full blast, but Condon has not had a shop running 1/4 of the time for several years. Open one, somebody.

Times-Mountaineer: Last Saturday evening Mrs. Chas. Hilton and daughter Florence were driving a short distance from town, when their horse became unmanageable and cramped the buggy so that both ladies were thrown to the ground. Mrs. Hilton sustained the fracture of one rib, while Miss Hilton escaped with only a few slight bruises.

Large numbers of men are deserting from the U. S. navy. An investigation shows that they are nearly all of foreign birth. This serves to emphasize the fact that the United States soldiers and sailors should be chosen exclusively from American applicants. In time of war we can not depend on an army and navy of foreign sympathizers.—Oregonian.

The rickety old covering has been torn off the large spring in Main street, the hole dug larger and it will be walled up with lumber and fixed up better than it ever was before. We hope a move will soon be made to prepare some protection from fire for the entire town, by building a windmill and cistern in the north end of town. There is plenty of city money on hands to do the work, and it could not be expended to better advantage.

Rev. August Bade returned from Weston last week. He says it is a magnificent sight just now to see the vast fields of golden wheat waving all over Umatilla county, as far as the eye can see. He says they began harvesting over there last week and that the yield will be something like 50 bushels to the acre this season. Just why that section is a month earlier than this and the yield several times as large is difficult to understand, but it seems to be so.

All of the papers have said many unpleasant things about the Hon. Abdul Hamid of Turkey and one Weyler, now in Cuba—two as bloodthirsty butchers as ever cut a throat. With the Globe's usual disposition to be fair to all parties, we offer them both the use of our columns to answer the accusations if they want to. If they refuse to do this the American people will continue to think these famous throat-cutters have not acted just right or done the wiser thing.

Dallas Itemizer: C. W. Weister of Clem, Gilliam county, dropped in the other day to pay for the Itemizer and Oregonian for another year. He weighs 250 pounds and is the picture of health and strength. He brought down 41 horses and has sold 35 of them at from $30 to $50. He says that on account of a slight stroke of paralysis Dr. Dodson has quit practicing medicine and gone to farming. H. O. Dodson came down to Portland this week for treatment of a cancer on his chin.

H. B. Hendricks yesterday circulated a petition and got the signatures of our business men, asking the county court to have removed the high, horrible-looking stockade around the county jail, which has been a nuisance and eye-sore to the town ever since it was built. It has been of no earthly benefit, as any small boy could scale it with the ease of going up a ladder. Its only benefit was in keeping the boys from becoming too familiar with prisoners, but ordinary shutters will answer the purpose as well.

Last week's Astoria Herald says: D. H. Smith of Fossil paid Astoria a visit last week, for the first time in 28 years. Mr. Smith came to Oregon on the Sylvia de Grace from San Francisco. The fare at that time was $125 to what is now St. Helen. On arrival there the Sylvia stuck on a sand bar and Mr. Smith was obliged to find other means of reaching his destination. The Sylvia on her return went on the rocks and sank just above Astoria. She was loaded with lumber for California, which then commanded fabulous prices. The accident caused her master to lose his mind. The wreck has been permitted to remain in the channel until this day and is now a menace to commerce.

Judge Bradshaw has rendered his decision in the case of the city of Condon vs. Joe Trevett, which loses the case for Trevett. Joe feels that this is a little tough on him, since the recorder at the time of the arrest, Ed Dunn, offered to knock off the $25 fine if he paid the couple of dollars costs—thus showing plainly that that is what the suit was started for. As he can be jailed for the fine only, he informs us that as he is not overly busy just now anyway, and can not make $25 easier, he will settle the bill by boarding it out at the city's expense, at the rate of $2 per day. This is proving rather a costly experiment for the town and the taxpayers are at a loss to see where it is gaining thereby.

Arlington Items.

Shurtle Bros sent out a full load of machinery to Fossil last week.

J F Thomas returned Sunday, after a 2-weeks drive into the interior.

A Smythe is preparing to ship another trainload of cattle to Sioux City.

Deputy Sheriff Tom Johnson was doing business here the first of the week.

Miss Estella Junkins of Rock creek is visiting friends here and will remain until after the 3d festivities.

Frank Shurtle, accompanied by his cousin C H, made a drive over into Morrow county the first of the week on business.

Our deputy postmaster, J M Johns, seems a few notches taller, having just received the appointment of P M at Arlington.

Dr Griffin has been confined to his room for several days with inflammation of the eyes, which has caused him much suffering.

Andrew Corhan is preparing to move his family to Arlington, having recently purchased property of O N Denney, now occupied by A W Sharrard and family.

A fine new pump house that will be an ornament to the city is being built. Our city water works, for a small town, is second to none in the state.

Dr Bodkin came up from Portland Saturday to assist Dr Geisendorfer in operating on Charley Ward's foot, which has caused him to walk on crutches for the last year.

Some of our farmers are counting their chickens before they are hatched—when they say their wheat will average 20 bushels to the acre. But we all hope they will get it, and much more.

Next Saturday, 3d, the great American eagle's tail will be twisted here in the most approved style, and until the famous bird can be heard for miles. No one can afford to miss the rare treat.

Mr and Mrs D A Vance, formerly of Arlington, are now residing at Bourne, Baker county, where D A devotes his time to prospecting for gold. Peter Peterson and family, formerly of Fossil, are also located there.

Our balloon man is on hand, "like a sore thumb," making preparations for an ascension and parachute jump on July 3d. In consequence the boys are warbling the song, "up in a balloon, boys, up in a balloon, riding around the stars"

Since the refreshing rains of the last two weeks the farmers' faces have shortened up so much that the barbers hardly have the heart to charge them more than 10c for a shave. All the farmers say they never saw crops look so promising as they are at present.

Russ Stillwell and wife tired of the the Okanogan country pretty quickly and returned to this county again last week. Russ is now actively engaged in "raiding a bicycle. Some one asked him the other day how he was "getting on with it," and he truthfully said: "Oh, every minute or so."

The Goldendale Agriculturist says E D Parrott sold 8 of his gasoline lights at Arlington last week. Mr Parrott has a good saleable article, but did not make any sales here that we heard of. Some years ago while Mr Parrott was studying aerial navigation he discovered the art of manufacturing a cheap and safe gas from gasoline, which appears as bright as the light made by electricity.

D C Thompson, a "brake-beam tourist," whom Mr Nelson, of the ferry boat, had taken in and fed for some time, returned the kindness last week by breaking into the boat and stealing a number of different articles. He then lit out, but Marshal Carlisle caught him at the Dalles and brought him back. When arraigned, Thompson pleaded not guilty, but Judge Ebi couldn't see it that way and bound him over to the grand jury in the sum of $500, in default of which he will be the county's guest until circuit court meets. Constable Sweetin took him out to the jail at Condon Saturday.

Olex Explosions.

Will Lucas was bitten by a rattlesnake last week.

F A Bauer is preparing to start for Idaho in a few days.

There will be a picnic at Olex on the 4th, and perhaps a dance at night.

Mr and Mrs T G Johnson were visiting on the creek last week several days.

Mrs S A D Ollis is lying dangerously ill. We hope for her speedy recovery.

Guy Boyd will soon start a butcher's wagon, for the convenience of the harvesters around Olex.

Mrs J R Phillips returned to Olex last week from an extended visit with her son George at Wilbur, Idaho.

The heavy rains of last week have assured a bountiful wheat crop all around Olex, and all over Gilliam county.

J W Maguire was visiting in Olex the first of the week. He thinks of taking a bunch of horses to Washington soon for sale.

The grasshoppers are immigrating from the hills to the Rock creek bottoms where they are moving down garden truck and alfalfa at an awful rate.

C H Reis has just bought quite a bill of erinoline, etc., at Olex to present to the fair sex. This is looking more like sunshine to his fair home than anything we have noticed for some time.

There is a mineral spring at Olex that is getting to attract some attention. It has splendid medicinal qualities and the wonder is that some one does not put up a bath house and utilize it. There is no telling how famous it will get to be.

Trouble in Grant County.

A dispatch from Heppner to the Portland Telegram, dated June 20th, says:

Last Wednesday as the band of Asa Thompson, a resident of Morrow county, was coming into camp on Indian creek, in Grant county, 12 men armed with repeating rifles knelt in front of the band of sheep and, as they ranged up to within about 25 steps, proceeded to empty their rifles into the band. The herder started around the band to see what the trouble was and when he got within 50 steps of the men they ordered him to stop. Not doing so soon enough to suit them they fired several shots over his head, and he obeyed their orders.

The sheep in the meantime had run down into a small meadow about 150 yards distant and bunched. The gang reloaded and went down near the sheep and again emptied their guns into the band, killing altogether on the ground 125 head, and about 50 or 75 head were so badly wounded that they have since died, making a loss of over 200 head.

The miscreants before going out to meet the sheep, burned the camp and camp outfit, consisting of blankets, grub the herder's rifle, pack saddles and the clothes of the herder and tender, a loss to them and Mr. Thompson of over $200, the total loss being about $750. These sheep were ranging on government land and were seven miles from the nearest settlement. About two weeks previous to this affair, some one, presumably the same persons, killed 100 head in a similar manner, near the same place, while they were en route to Wyoming. No notice had ever been given that the herding of the sheep was not allowed in that section.

The settlers of that part of Grant county have said publicly that they would not be molested by the populist officials of Grant county, no matter how many sheep they killed, just so they did not kill any herders or camp-tenders.

The sheepmen are considerably excited over the matter in this part of the country, as many of them have sheep ranging in that part of Grant county. It seems to be the general opinion that human life will be taken before the trouble is ended.

Look your machines over and tell Shurtle Bros. your troubles. They will save you money on extras of all kinds.
