

THE CONDON GLOBE.

FRIDAY, JULY 9, 1897.

THE OFFICIAL PAPER OF GILLIAM COUNTY, OREGON.

Lone Rock Rumbblings.

Born, on July 2d, to the wife of J. E. Johnson, a daughter.

A number of our people celebrated at Parker's Mill on the 3d.

Our farmers are now busy making hay while the sun shines. The wet weather delayed them some with the work.

Several of our sheepmen sold their wool last week in Heppner for 8 1/2 cents—2 1/2 cents more than was paid last year.

A wheel of fortune (to the one running it) was on hand Monday to relieve the boys of the silver they had to spare, and some that they didn't. Such bunco fakes should not be allowed in any community on such occasions.

Mrs. J. R. Bennett stepped on and run a rusty nail clear through the ball of her foot Monday morning, causing her great pain, also a fear that it would result in blood poisoning. Dr. Hogan happened up from Condon Monday and took charge of the case.

The celebration here Monday was a grand success in every particular. A great many people from the neighboring towns were present and all had a glorious time. The program of exercises was delightfully rendered, each one performing their respective parts to perfection. The oration was delivered by J. B. Goff and was a brilliant and masterly effort. The Dec. of Independence was well read by Lewis A. Miller, with becoming dignity and decorum. The recitation of Frankie Ward deserves especial credit. The horse, foot, sack and potato races were all exciting and interesting features of the day. There was a brilliant display of fireworks in the evening, which kept the crowd nicely entertained until the grand ball began, which lasted until daylight. The committee of ladies, consisting of Medauna Miller, Williams, Hogan, Rolinett, Ward and Colwell deserve great credit for the very able and efficient manner in which the celebration was arranged and managed.

Olex Explosions.

Bids will be rec'd at Lone for a new mail route from Lone to Eight Mile. Bids rec'd until July 10th.

Nearly all the residents from and around Olex attended the 4th at Arlington and report a way-up time.

The wind still keeps blowing cold from the west, which is very favorable for the growing wheat, which now promises to equal any crop ever grown in Gilliam. Had the grasshoppers not destroyed so much wheat, this would have been the banner year for wheat, but as it is, we will have lots of it and of good No. 1 quality.

Well, the glorious 4th is past and business is again getting reconciled to everyday events; the big-heads are gradually wearing off and all will soon be running in the even tenor of its way once more. We went to Arlington and had a fine time. Everything passed off nicely, except the balloon which did not ascend, but will be on deck for next year, as it is now in Arlington on cold storage.

Schilling's Best baking powder is only a little better than two or three others; but Schilling's Best tea is twice as good as usual tea.

In either case, your grocer returns your money in full if you'd rather have some other.

For sale by S. B. Barker

Here's a Snap for Somebody.

W. H. Colwell offers his fine farm at Lone Rock for sale. It is one of the best farms in Eastern Oregon. There are 10 acres in timothy, 12 acres in alfalfa and 40 acres in wheat, oats and barley, all of which is fine alfalfa land. There is a fine orchard 15 years old on the place, also a good house, two large frame barns, one blacksmith shop, one reaper, mower, rake, sulkey-plow, and everything imaginable that is needed on a well-regulated farm. One prong of Back creek runs through the place; only 3 miles to the finest timber in the country.

Will take part payment in sheep at market price, balance on easy terms. This place is in the best stock and sheep country in Eastern Oregon. Will sell with or without present crop. For particulars, address W. H. Colwell, Lone Rock, Oregon.

Edwards at Arlington will pay stage charges on all orders from his drug store except patent medicines. As he charges only the price printed on the wrappers, you can save money by sending to him for patent medicines also. Only the best and purest of drugs kept in stock, and handled by a competent druggist.

Good Advice.

Don't let whisky get the best of you, but if you want the best of whisky, wine, beer, liquors and cigars, the place to find them is at the Summit Saloon, in the old drug store building. A fine pool and billiard parlor in connection. Drop in and see for yourselves. The finest line of "wet goods" in the city.

MAIN STREET, CONDON, OREGON.

JAMES W. SMITH

Desires to inform the people of Gilliam county that his business is running on full time at the old stand—Union Block, Arlington, Oregon; that the flashy, misleading newspaper advertisements and circular letters that are flooding the country have not affected his trade; but on the contrary, sales have been increasing. His many old friends and customers realize that no business man will give away something for nothing. What he loses on the "baits" he will more than doubly make up on the other goods he sells his customers. Look out for snares. One of our greatest statesmen 40 years ago truthfully said: "You can fool some of the people all of the time, and all of the people some of the time, but you can't fool all of the people all of the time."

James W. Smith's immense stock of goods will speak for him. Call and examine the largest stock of goods ever shown in Gilliam county. His stores are loaded from floor to ceiling, and as regards prices he will endeavor to keep in the "procession."

Many of the lines are bought direct from the East in large quantities for cash, which enables him to give his customers great inducements to favor him with their patronage.

He sells the Oliver Chilled plows and extras, including the New Departure two and three gangs, also the John Deere plows of all kinds, the Studebaker, Bain and Racine wagons, hacks and buggies, the Standard, Acme and McCormack mowers, reapers and hay rakes, the latest improved Pitts threshing machinery, the up-to-date old reliable Hodge steel-frame headers, Holt Bros. Combined Harvesters, Etc., Etc.

Camp and sheepmen's supplies a specialty. Highest prices paid for hides, pelts, etc.

When in Arlington call and get prices before closing deals elsewhere.
