GLOBOSITIES.

Miss Minnie Clark returned home last week from her visit in Union county.

The GLOBE is a few hours late this week, owing to the editor being out of town nearly all week.

The warm weather the past week has ripened the grain rapidly and harvesting has begun in full blast.

Miss Birdie Henshaw visited several days this week at the pleasant home of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Danneman at Clem.

Mrs. W. W. Hoover and little daughter arrived home Tuesday from a pleasant visit with relatives in Wallowa county.

Fine fresh pork will be for sale at Stephenson's store tomorrow (Saturday). Call early and avoid the rush, as it will go like hot cakes.

Mrs. H. B. Hendricks has been on the sick list for several days. Her brother, J. M. Gilkerson and family are over from Fossil visiting them.

Miss Ardis Bartness of Warren, Columbia county, near Portland, arrived here Tuesday to make her home with the GLOBE family for some time.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Palmer, who had been visiting relatives and friends in Benton county the last six months, returned home to Ajax this week.

O. B. Miles of Marion county has been engaged as principal of the Fossil school and Mrs. E. L. Taylor of Condon as primary teacher, to commence about Sept. 6.

Dr. J. H. Frazer, the dentist and family arrived here Saturday. His office is in the small building next door to Maddock's hotel. See his ad in another column.

E. M. Shutt, editor of this paper, has just been reappointed as one of the 36 United States Commissioners for the district of Oregon for a term of four years—Antelope Herald.

Frank Labons sold out everything he had in Ferry Canyon and with all of his wealth—about $1200, left recently for his old home in France, where he expects to spend the balance of his days.

Sheriff Wilcox, Doc Brown and their families, Mrs. Mary Brown and son Frank, and Mr. J. R. Phillips all left Saturday for a couple of weeks' outing in the mountains near Prairie City.

Two wagonloads of emigrants passed through town Sunday. They were from Lane county, and bound for "some place where times were not too dead to skin," as one old gray-haired lady expressed it.

Mrs. G. W. Kemp of Michigan, a sister of Mrs. G. Schilling of this place, arrived last Saturday to pay the latter a visit, also for the benefit of her health, which has been quite poor of late. Her husband will come out here this fall.

B. F. Tennis came up this week from his home at Larabee, Cal., to look after his ranch interests on Eightmile. His farm is rented by Fred Douglass, who has just commenced to harvest over 1600 acres of excellent wheat, which is so heavy that it bags the fields down in the middle.

J. B. Mattingly of Beecher Flat, delivered to Mrs. H. B. Hendricks last Thursday, one of those fine washing machines—which the old gentleman has invented and manufactures himself. He is past 80 years old, and makes one machine a week, but used to make two a week in his younger days.

Regular services next Sunday at the Congregational church, morning and evening. On Saturday afternoon at 4 P. M. of July 24th will occur the regular quarterly business meeting of the church, and on Sunday afternoon, the 25th, the communion service will be held. All members of the church are requested to be present at both meetings.

A delightful birthday party was tendered Miss Carrie Danneman at her home at Clem Friday evening. A number of her friends were present and with dancing and other amusements, pleasantly commemorated Miss Carrie's arrival at the age of "sweet eighteen." Among the presents she received is a fine gold watch from her father, which she prizes very highly.

A large number of Gilliam countyites, mostly from the north end of the county, heard Bryan speak at Pendleton Tuesday. Among those from Condon who attended were: G. W. Rinehart, P. H. Stephenson, Frank Palmer, Dave Russell, W. B. Wallace and Mrs. Louise Burke. They say there were over 10,000 people out to hear him and that it was the most enthusiastic crowd they ever saw.

Hugh Strickland's buggy team broke loose Sunday in town and after spinning around town a few times the buggy upset, smashing it up badly—and putting Hugh in first-class fighting trim. He doubtless would have made a very pretty fight just after the thing happened, judging from remarks he made while frantically chasing after the team.

Sisters Severin and Ulrich, teachers in St. Joseph's Academy at Pendleton, have been visiting the members of the Catholic faith in this section this week. They intend to remain here and at Mayville a couple of weeks and give the children catechetical instruction. They are also soliciting subscriptions, with which to pay off the indebtedness on the new academy at Pendleton.

Maggie Maddock met with a frightful accident last Monday evening, and the greatest wonder is that she is alive today to tell the tale. A few feet from the hotel kitchen door is a 25-foot well, with about 8 feet of water. The trap-door or covering was not securely fastened and when Maggie stepped on it, quick as a flash she was precipitated to the bottom of the well. As she went down she gave a scream, which soon brought the horror-stricken family to the scene, also Ed Nelson, who promptly went down after her. He was not a second too soon, as the fall had stunned her and she was almost drowned when he reached her. Being almost a grown woman, it required more strength than Ed possessed to get her out, and Mr. Hyde also went down in the well, and by the aid of ropes and those above, the half-dead girl was rescued. Outside of several pretty bad bruises, Maggie was not injured to any great extent, except, of course, being scared out of a year's growth or so. But it was a thrilling (also chilling) adventure, and one that she has no desire to repeat.

We had the pleasure of hearing the illustrious and world-renowned William Jennings Bryan speak last Monday, both at Gladstone Park and Portland. At the former place, about 15,000 people heard him and in the evening at Portland, fully 50,000 people hollered themselves hoarse and frantically cheered what the people generally term "the greatest man the world has ever known." Whether he has the right ideas on the money and other great questions or not, certainly there is not another man in the wide world who could better or more forcibly present the matter before the people as he sees it. As an orator he is certainly a wonder, all of the greatest orators agreeing that he is the greatest, most polished and powerful orator the world has ever seen, even Webster and Choate being very "tame" in comparison. The magnetism he possesses is almost miraculous. Even those opposed to him politically appear to have as much desire and curiosity to see and hear him as his warmest supporters. In Portland it required a score of policemen to clear the track for his carriage every time he appeared on the street. We can never forget the mighty shout that went up from 50,000 throats when Bryan appeared in the 10-acre field to speak. The crowd simply went wild for five or ten minutes, the ladies along with the rest. In introducing him, Mayor Penney said there is not the least doubt that Bryan was elected last November by nearly a million majority, but was counted out; and that if another election were to be held now, Bryan would easily get 3/4 of the 13,000,000 votes of this country.

Propst-Davidson Marriage.

One of the prettiest weddings that ever took place in this county, and the first one in the Congregational church here, was that last Sunday, July 11th, at 4:30 P. M., of Mr. Howard L. Propst of this place and Miss Jessie May Davidson of Davidson. The church was almost full of invited guests, besides a large number of relatives of the contracting parties. Mrs. S. B. Barker presided at the organ while Rev. A. F. Bade performed a very beautiful and impressive ceremony. The groom's brother and the bride's sister, Otis W. Propst and Miss Florence Davidson, acted as groomsmen and bridesmaid. The bride was beautifully dressed in white silk and looked very charming. The happy young couple were the recipients of many useful and beautiful presents.

They both belong to the best and most highly-respected people of the country and begin their new lives with very bright prospects for a long and useful career. They have already begun house-keeping at the groom's fine home 4 miles east of town, which he had nicely furnished and all ready for the occasion. The GLOBE joins their many friends in hearty congratulations.

Lone Rock Rumbblings.

John E. Johnson's family have been sick with fever for the past week.

Andrew Neal sold his wool Saturday in Heppner for 9 1/2 cents, the best price yet received by any of our sheepmen.

Mrs. Alex Hardie has been visiting with her son, W. H. Colwell, for a few days, having spent the Fourth here also.

We are pleased to learn of the appointment of R. M. Johnson as stock inspector. We believe he is both willing and competent to fill the office.

Last Sunday was the hottest day so far this summer, being 96 deg. as registered by the weather service instruments at this place, or about 104 by an ordinary thermometer.

Whenever you hear anyone kicking at a public celebration about things not being as good as they might have been, and there is not enough of this and that, if you will consult the subscription list you will find that their names are not down for a nickel for anything.

Charley Stevens met with a very painful accident Sunday. While reloading some brass shot shells, one of them exploded in his left hand, tearing the hand in a frightful manner, and nearly tearing the thumb off. After the accident he ran about one mile to Bob Johnson's place. Bob started at once to Fossil for a doctor, making the trip of 20 miles and back in less than six hours. Dr. Howard being out of town he had to return without one. W. H. Colwell and J. B. Goff dressed the wound as best they could, and in the evening Frank Stevens started with his brother and family to The Dalles, where Charley will remain with his family physician, Dr. Logan, until he recovers. There is great danger of losing his hand and of blood poisoning.

Arlington Items.

One lot of wool was sold here last week for 10 1/2c. That isn't so rocky.

J. W. McGuire left Sunday for the Sound country with a band of horses.

C. A. Shurts, who has been seriously ill with a fever, is somewhat better at this writing.

"Hon" Dal Reed drove the stage out Saturday and spent Sunday with his folks in Fossil.

Wm. Fairfield arrived here last week with a brand-new wife, whom he married in California recently.

Mrs. Corban will soon open up her new restaurant, which she is getting fixed up in fine shape.

Miss Estella Jenkins left Sunday for California, which place she expects to make her future home.

Virgil Homer Kirby gave a dance at Blalock last week which was well attended. Mose is getting "next to himself."

Our young folks, and old folks, and folks that can't swim at all, go bathing these hot summer evenings.

Kess Stilwell, in company with others, intend to spend this year's harvest season in the Pendleton country. They will start this week.

We are at a loss to know why our correspondence failed to reach you last week in time for publication; we mailed it in plenty of time—on Monday.

Miss Ricks has returned from Utah, accompanied by her sister, who will make this her future home. Miss R. reports having had a very enjoyable time.

Mrs. J. A. Geisendorfer is spending a few days with friends and relatives in San Francisco. She also attended the great Christian Endeavor meeting.

Sunday was a very hot day with us, the thermometer registering 100 in the shade. Couldn't the sun be arrested for "scorching"—alle same bicyclists?

Mrs. D. H. Gager and daughter left last week for a two months' outing in the mountains. Miss Edwards, a relative of theirs, will accompany them from Mayville.

A multitude of our citizens took advantage of the low excursion rates and went to see and hear Bryan on the 13th inst. at Pendleton. All feel that they are well paid for the time and money spent.

Our school opens Sept. 13th with Supt. Daggett as principal and Miss Mollie Hurlburt for the primary department. A 3d teacher will also be employed. Miss Hurlburt will act as Asst. P. M. until school opens.

Atty. Gurley contemplates a vacation in the mountains for a month or more, for health and recreation. He will leave in his office during his absence a Mr. Dubbin, a prominent lawyer of Clackamas county. Mr. Gurley and family left this week for Mt. Adams, Wash.

Our balloon man seems to be improving some, but very slowly. He has concluded to not act in the role of "barn-jumper" any more. It is too unhealthy. It seems to be customary for such fellows and 1-horse actors to act as "barn-stormers," but seldom as barnjumpers.

Our lawyers have been quite busy the past week, grinding out legal work, the principal case being Johnson vs. Ewing, for carrying concealed weapons. The case was tried before a jury, which rendered a verdict of guilty as charged. Judge Ebi fined defendant $50 and costs.

We were amazed to see the clouds of grasshoppers that passed over our city Friday last, the air being literally full of them. We learn that they landed to feed near Blalock on C. C. Clark's place. Mr. Clark says he is at a loss to know what he has done to be thus plagued, for they almost eat him out of house and home.

Ott Summers, a Willow creek rancher, was arrested last week on a charge of attempting the life of a neighboring rancher, W. H. Ewing. Mr. Ewing alleges that Summers attempted to catch him with a lasso rope, intending to drag him to death with his horse. Summers gave $300 bonds for his appearance before the grand jury at Condon at the Sept. term of court.

Olex Explosions.

A carload of new hacks and buggies will arrive in Olex this week.

Mrs. Georgie Peck and family have returned to Gilliam and are the guests of C. H. Reis.

W. Testerman has returned from Umatilla county and reports Gilliam as good as anything he has seen.

A couple of Portland drummers took a bath in the Olex Sulphur Springs this week, to their great delight and benefit.

T. C. Mobley and wife are among those here who took advantage of the $2.70 rate to Pendleton to hear the celebrated Bryan Tuesday.

All those in the Olex country knowing of any local news worthy of mention are kindly requested to mention same to the Olex correspondent and it will be given proper attention in the Olex column.

Harvest is now upon us and the hum of the header is again heard in the land in all directions. Nearly everybody have either commenced or are getting ready for it. L. O. Ralston has contracted about 2000 acres of heading and will put three headers at work.

The grasshoppers have made themselves scarce in this section. They almost obscured the sun the past week. They emigrated west and south, and we hope they have gone to stay, for they have destroyed thousands of acres of grain around Olex.

Dr. J. H. Frazer, Dentist.

Is now in Condon and at the service of all those desiring any kind of work in connection with the dental profession. Dr. Frazer wishes to apologize to the public for not being ready for business at the time advertised, and hopes it has not caused any one any serious inconvenience. But owing to an unexpected rush of work at the 11th hour, and the condition of the roads in the mountains, his appearance here was unavoidably delayed.

Dr. Frazer is considered by his patrons in the Valley as being a first-class workman and has the reputation of using nothing but the best materials the market affords, and he desires to call the attention of the public to the fact that there is as much difference in the quality of materials used in the practice of dentistry as there is in any other business—and the public has been deceived long enough.

Dr. Frazer expects to make this place a permanent location during the summer months of each year, and any work of his proving unsatisfactory this year will be made right next year. Those desiring his services will do well to call early. All work warranted.
