

THE GONDON GLOBE.

FRIDAY, JULY 30, 1897.

THE OFFICIAL PAPER OF GILLIAM COUNTY, OREGON.

The Law Debauched.

There are laws in this country. These laws can be enforced. It is an insult to the officers of the law to presume otherwise. It leads the outside to think that a republic is a sham. That the sheepmen break the laws is no excuse for others to also break the laws by committing arson and outrages that none but savages would stoop to do. No doubt there have been impositions upon the residents of Grant county. These can be righted without an appeal to mob law. In reality the Gazette believes that it is a contest in Grant county that has behind it the object of driving Morrow county sheepmen off government range.

The Eagle takes the peculiar ground, inferentially, that mob law is right, or at least justifiable, in some cases, but mentions the recent troubles in Grant county as being deplorable, yet as "a scrap for bread and butter on the part of the resident ranchers and cattlemen, and they have, as a last resort, applied the most desperate remedies in order to preserve their homes." If the laws of Oregon are not sufficiently strong and the officers not patriotic or efficient enough to see that the laws are enforced, why we had better try some other plan of government. The outrages committed in Grant county will not correct these wrongs, nor will they prevent sheepmen from using government grass. Every sheepman who fails to respect the laws should be made to pay the penalty, but in a country where good government prevails, no recourse to mob law should be necessary.

COMING.

The Jacobsen Book & Music Co. of The Dalles, Oregon, will open a branch at Condon for a short time only, and give the music-loving people a chance to inspect their pianos and organs right at home. Note what The Dalles papers say about this firm:

Few people outside The Dalles realize the fact that the Jacobsen Book & Music Co. has the best equipped book and music store in the Inland Empire or that there are only a few establishments in the state carrying a larger stock or more varied assortment of musical instruments than does this firm. At present there are 25 pianos and organs in the store, affording a wide variety for the purchaser to select from, besides the company has a number of instruments in the hands of agents in different parts of Eastern Oregon. The store in this city is conveniently apportioned, the main floor being connected with the basement by an elevator, making it possible to handle heavy instruments with the least possible danger of injury. In connection with their mammoth stock of instruments they will soon add a repair shop to their establishment, having employed Lester P. Bayles, a piano and organ tuner and repairer, who is thoroughly competent to manufacture any part of an instrument.

If you have a piano that needs tuning or repairing, drop a line to the Jacobsen Book & Music Company, who will be in Condon for about 2 weeks, at the Armory hall building with a large stock of pianos and organs. They are prepared to do all kinds of work.

Call at the Armory hall in Condon and see the finest display of pianos and organs ever brought to the county. Mr. Jacobsen, of the Jacobsen Book & Music Co., The Dalles, will be there in person and if you ever intend buying an organ or piano, there is no time like the present. Our prices are the lowest and we defy competition. We take old organs or pianos in exchange for new ones, and sell for cash or on the installment plan.

E. JACOBSEN.

The statement of ex-Secretary Foster that by the acquirement of Hawaii "this country will get two of the grandest volcanoes in the world" is true, but nevertheless without the force of argument, since with the United States senate most of the time in a state of eruption, the country does not need any more volcanoes.

It is estimated that at the present there is more steel used in the manufacture of pens than in all the sword and gun factories in the world.

JAMES W. SMITH

Desires to inform the people of Gilliam county that his business is running on full time at the old stand—Union Block, Arlington, Oregon; that the flashy, misleading newspaper advertisements and circular letters that are flooding the country have not affected his trade; but on the contrary, sales have been increasing. His many old friends and customers realize that no business man will give away something for nothing. What he loses on the "baits" he will more than doubly make up on the other goods he sells his customers. Look out for anara. One of our greatest statesmen 40 years ago truthfully said: "You can fool some of the people all of the time, and all of the people some of the time, but you can't fool all of the people all of the time."

James W. Smith's immense stock of goods will speak for him. Call and examine the largest stock of goods ever shown in Gilliam county. His stores are loaded from floor to ceiling, and as regards prices he will endeavor to keep in the "procession."

Many of the lines are bought direct from the East in large quantities for cash, which enables him to give his customers great inducements to favor him with their patronage.

He sells the Oliver Chilled plows and extras, including the New Departure two and three gangs, also the John Deere plows of all kinds, the Studebaker, Bain and Racine wagons, hacks and buggies, the Standard, Acme and McCormack mowers, reapers and hay rakes, the latest improved Pitts threshing machinery, the up-to-date old reliable Hodge steel-frame headers, Holt Bros. Combined Harvesters, Etc., Etc.

Camp and sheepmen's supplies a specialty. Highest prices paid for hides, pelts, etc.

When in Arlington call and get prices before closing deals elsewhere.
