GLOBOSITIES.

Thousands of men will find the upper Yukon the biggest game of "freeze out" they ever got into.

Frank Lucas, a brother of Jay, has just been appointed postmaster at Monmouth, Polk county.

Mrs. Ella Rinehart, the popular post-mistress of Mayville, visited her relatives in Condon Saturday and Sunday.

A man out in Colorado died recently while playing a game of cards. He held five aces and the other fellow the gun.

A couple of Portland Jews are doing the county this week selling eyeglasses and spectacles, at prices that beat going to Clondyke.

Mrs. V. E. Houston left last week for a brief visit at the home of her son in Pendleton, after which she will return to Condon again.

General H. B. Cyprien is being boomed for and will likely be the democratic nominee for governor at the June election next summer.

A Haystack Cor. to the Prineville Review says: Miss Lizzie Welsh, of Fosell, is in town being treated for her eyes by Grandma Maupin.

Mr. Geo. W. Rinehart expects to start the first of next week for his annual visit of a month with relatives and friends in Lane county.

The Dalles people, after letting the Wasco trade leave them, are talking of "blowing" themselves by building a line to the Deschutes bridge.

Syl Palmer and his sister, Mrs. Dan Cameron and her children left Saturday for a few weeks' outing at Thompson Springs in Grant county.

B. Giede has been in the hospital at Portland for several weeks, being treated for a complication of disorders, among them being heart trouble.

J. F. Smith sold his ranch on the John Day river recently and left this week for Idaho, taking along all of his horses, numbering about 125 head.

They are actually talking about demoralizing gold, because the recent rich finds will make it too common to be classed with the precious metals.

Circuit court for Gilliam county convenes at Condon on Sept. 20th. The way the matter stands now, the docket will not be overly heavy this time.

Tom Johnson is having a neat woodshed built on his residence property. He has also just received another fine new top buggy from his livery stable.

Mr. Wm. M. McKinney of Rock creek brought to town Monday the first water-melons of the season—and they were good, too. We swallowed one of 'em.

Walter Coffin, a young professional pugilist of Portland, who has been visiting his uncle, Geo. Coffin, and his family since spring, left for his home yesterday.

Among the army of gold-seekers who have gone to Clondyke from this state are Atty. J. C. Leasure and E. Y. Judd, president of the Pendleton scouring mills.

It has leaked out that W. J. Bryan wears a highly illuminated silk night shirt. It is reasonably certain that the party who gave it away is no gentleman.

An Alabama murderer addressed the following note to the governor: "I wish you would grant me a 30-day respite. I am short on religion. Intended to get it last week, but was too busy."

For the first time in many years the farmers will have a chance this fall to "square up" and get out of debt. Once out they should stay out, and this of course should apply to all other classes.

H. B. Hendricks, as real estate agent, recently sold to Hugh Neal of Lone Rock the Dickey farm near that town, for $350. He also sold for J. W. Smith to D. S. Brown the Burton place on Matney Flat.

E. A. Crawford of Mayville secured the contract of furnishing 25 cords of 16-inch wood for county use, at $4.75 per cord, the lowest bid, and he and his son Harley are now delivering it at the county seat.

D. C. Williamson's family, below Olem, packed up their "wares and penates" and silently left for parts unknown last week "between two days." It is thought they went over into Washington somewhere.

Parties going to the Yukon a week or ten days from now can buy a first-class outfit at Dyea cheaper than anywhere else in the world. There will be plenty of them for sale this side of the Chilcat summit soon.

Some of the boys enlivened things up a little Wednesday by having several vigorous fights, which enriched the city's weasel skin to the tune of about $30. Such amusement comes high, but they must have it.

About seven weeks ago five head of stray hogs came to the ranch of J. A. Crum at Olex. They all have a "cropp" and sit in the ear. The owner will be expected to pay for their keeping, also $1 for this notice.

A man in Kansas City asks for a divorce from his wife because she went in bathing "clad in a little dinky bathing suit about as big as a pocket handkerchief." Wonder if he wanted her to see a wool sack for a bathing suit?

Billy Phillips and Miss Bertha Cochran of Rock creek were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Portwood in Condon the first of the week, and left for home Wednesday evening. Miss Cochran is a sister of Mrs. Portwood.

Fred Mires and Henry Gardner returned Saturday evening from Benton Mires' ranch in Gilliam county, bringing 8 or 10 of Bent's fine horses with them. Benton himself stopped in Lane county to sell some horses.—Roseburg Review.

A New York man hugged a widow so hard that he broke one of her ribs and now she has sued for $10,000 damages. If that woman is successful in her suit and can spare a few more ribs she will not need to go to Clondyke to make a stake.

Read Harry Halstead's new sawmill ad. This mill has been moved to a new location, in one of the finest belts of timber in Oregon, and is turning out as fine quality of lumber as any on the coast, at prices that are sure to give satisfaction.

A. G. Mathews made final proof Thursday on a timber culture claim. The claim is located at Mayville, Gilliam county. Gainey has just arrived home from Belknap springs, where he took his family for their summer vacation.—Eugene Guard.

Rev. Bade writes that he and a chum of his have gone for a few days' rustication at the Wallowa lake to fish and hunt, and that he will not preach at Condon next Sunday. It is likely, however, that he will be here in time to preach a week from next Sunday.

Sheriff Houser has lost his case against Umatilla county for fees, traveling expenses, etc., which he sued for. The supreme court has just decided that no sheriff in this state is entitled to any compensation outside of his lawful salary as provided by the legislature in 1896.

Charley Burroughs and family moved into Billy Barr's neat little residence opposite the court house this week. Billy expects to have the house enclosed with a neat wire fence this fall. Mr. and Mrs. Burroughs, who came out here last fall from Illinois, are, so far, much pleased with their new western home.

Whenever an administrator of an estate sends his notice for publication clear out of the neighborhood to a paper having no circulation where the parties interested reside, the public usually feels suspicious that there is some crooked work going on, and can not be blamed for wanting such "work" investigated.

We learn that Ross Mathews has been tendered the school at Lakeview this fall. A good selection. We think they prefer a man of a family, so Ross took his best girl down to Goshen last Sunday to look at some cooking utensils. If they were both impressed with the outfit, he may take an assistant with him to Silver Lake.—Eugene Guard.

After our school closed last spring, all of the doors and windows of the school-house were securely fastened, some with nails. Recently some one broke out a pane of glass, entered and opened all the doors and left them open. It is not yet known whether anything has been stolen or not. They have been closed again, and the school board offers a reward of $5 for the detection of any one breaking into the building again without permission.

H. C. Strickland met with a serious accident Saturday evening, just after dark. While riding rapidly over the range about two miles from his house, a coyote attracted the attention of both rider and horse, and quick as a flash the horse stepped into a badger hole and fell, catching Hugh's left leg under the sharp edge of the saddle and breaking the leg just above the ankle. The noble old horse, with almost human intelligence, gathered himself up and seeing that his master was unable to walk, came back and looked pitifully on while Hugh set the broken bone as best he could. With great difficulty he managed to climb onto the horse and reach his home. His hired man, Billy Foster, at once brought him to town, where he is under medical care, at Rinehart's restaurant. It was a most unfortunate accident for him, as it will incapacitate him for work all summer, and just now at the busiest season. His wife is still at her old home in Aberdeen, S. D., and also under medical treatment.

The editor of this paper and his brother, E. M. Shutt, of the Antelope Herald, expect to start tomorrow for a month's visit at their old home in Pennsylvania. There are 15 members of the Shutt family—the parents and 13 children—7 boys and 6 girls, all of whom are yet alive, and all reside within a few miles of the old homestead, except the two brothers mentioned above. A reunion of the family will take place at the old home next month, also the golden wedding of our parents, who will have been married 50 years this fall. We expect to return to Condon about Sept. 17th or 18th. During our absence the paper will be published by Mr. Samuel B. Baxter, who can write a receipt so nicely that it will be a pleasure for those who owe the paper to come in and pay up. As he is deaf and cannot get onto the news as well as one who can hear, we would consider it a great favor if our business men here, or anyone else who desires to, will write up any news they know of that is worthy of note and hand to him—and he'll do the rest.

Dr. M. J. Denney, Physician and Surgeon, Union Block, Arlington, Oregon.

Mr. Strickland Wins the Sheep Trespass Case.

A dispatch from Pendleton says that the supreme court has decided the trespass case as shown below:

H. C. Strickland, respondent, vs. B. Gelde et al., appellants; appeal from Gilliam county; opinion by Wolverson, Judge; affirmed.

This is an action of trespass, wherein it is alleged that defendants unlawfully and willfully permitted their band of sheep to be herded upon the premises and lands of plaintiff. The action was commenced in the justice court, and, upon appeal, to the circuit court. Judgment was rendered in favor of plaintiff, from which the defendants appeal to this court. After determining the effect of the statutes relating to stock and fencing with respect to Gilliam county, and accepting the decisions of Bileu vs. Paisley (18 Oregon 47), and French vs. Cresswell (13 Oregon 418), as stare decisis, the court affirms the decision of the lower court.

Some of the enterprising boys should get up a horse race, foot race or have a fight or two—most anything would do, just to make some kind of news to report. This place is getting too civilized for a reporter to make a good showing.

The coyote bounty seems to be a dead issue. The "Honorable" Co court ought to get up something else to bunco the people out of several thousand dollars. The people of Gilliam county are greatly benefited by such officialism.
