

THE GLOBE.

FRIDAY, AUGUST 13, 1897.

NOTICE.

The yearly subscription to the GLOBE is $1.50. If paid in advance, it not paid in advance $2 will be charged. A pencil mark around this notice indicates that your subscription has expired. Please renew promptly.

GLOBOSITIES.

The latest malady is Clondictis. J. W. Blake returned Wednesday from a business trip to Portland.

A child was born to Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Ward, near town, one day last week.

Hundreds of Oregon farmers will wipe out the last dollar of their indebtedness this fall.

Charley Fix is having another stable built, on the corner just below his old barn, by J. R. Clark.

Oliver Barr has been under the weather the past week with a complaint similar to cholera morbus.

In the Clondyke region notices are posted to the effect that any person caught stealing will be hanged and tried afterwards.

A dispatch from Washington says: Star mail service from Olex to Eight-Mile, in Oregon, will be discontinued from August 31.

"Money makes the mare go" and C. Robertson can make your watch go. See him at the Condon hotel and get your "turnip" regulated.

A dispatch from Walla Walla states that 75 cents per bushel for wheat was freely offered last week, but farmers are holding for a still higher price.

We intended to publish a bit of personal history in this issue of the GLOBE but was crowded out by other matters of considerable more importance.

An original pension has been granted to Samuel Downs, of Tillamook county, Or., and a renewal pension to John Sing, of Condon, Or.—Washington dispatch.

People should be very careful about fire, as everything is as dry as tinder and a lighted cigar or cigarette thrown down might be the cause of a conflagration.

Mrs. E. E. Smith has closed her boarding house and is preparing to start soon with her children for Greeley, Colorado, to join her husband who is in business there.

Our correspondents must not feel put out if they don't see their items in the GLOBE. It is necessary some weeks to leave them out or it would put us far behind.

The largest single crop raised in Oregon this year will be the crop of mortgages. And, after the present crop is raised, it may be hoped another will not be planted.

Thos. L. Portwood is visiting relatives and friends at McCoy, Polk county, where he recently went on business connected with some valuable property he owns at that place.

Florence and Nora Ward of Lone Rock, the bright young daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Morgan Ward, visited their friend, Miss Birdie Henshaw, at Condon several days last week and this.

Sheriff Wilcox and family who have been on a pleasure trip to the mountains in Grant county for the past few weeks, returned home Monday evening. They report having an enjoyable time.

Condon should have a system of water works; she needs it badly. Over $800 are lying idle in the treasury that could not be put to a better use than establishing a complete system of water works.

Rev. A. S. Mulligan, of Mount Tabor, and Rev. Gabriel Skyes, of Trinity Methodist church, have just returned from a trip to Mount Hood on their wheels. They had an enjoyable time.—Oregonian.

James J. Corbett, has concluded that he is a better ball tosser than he is a fighter, and will forthwith join an eastern club and play ball this season. Jim will take his favorite position as first baseman.

Any one hearing of any news, will do us a great kindness by writing the particulars about it and handing it to us. Don't be afraid you'll make a poor item of it, we'll fix it all right, that's what we are here for.

One can see from five to ten headers running at one time in many localities in the northern part of this county. This is, without doubt, the most prosperous year than has ever been experienced in Gilliam county.

W. A. Darling and family have moved into the house on the hill, formerly occupied by W. A. Goodwin. We learn that Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Wilson will soon move into the building just vacated by Mr. Darling and family.

Condon town cows wax fat and sleek on a diet of coal-oil cans, cast-off clothing, gunny-sacks, old leather and horse-shoes. It is strange, indeed, how in the world they ever learned to keep off the grass, living on such poor brain food.

A newspaper man from Astoria has gone to the Clondyke to establish a paper. How he expects to keep his printer's ink from freezing still remains an unsolved mystery.—Antelope Herald. [What's the matter with sitting on it?]

Mr. G. W. Rinehart left Wednesday for Creswell, Lane county, where he expects to be gone about a month, visiting relatives and friends. He ordered his GLOBE sent to him, which will save him the trouble of writing letters home to learn all the important news.

The people of Condon and vicinity will be glad to learn that L. C. Edwards will, in a few days, open a branch drug store at Condon, with a complete stock of pure, fresh drugs, and will have in charge a competent druggist. The stock of goods for the new store have already arrived at Arlington.

During the thunder shower of Tuesday the 3d inst. Fred Allen's house on Matney Flat was struck by lightning; wrecked the stove and breaking glass and in fact, turning things upside-down generally—also another bolt struck the ground near Piter's header, causing a scare among the horses but no damage was done.

Japan has an income tax. If a taxpayer protests that he is rated too high by the officials he is thrust into a dark room and told to "think it over carefully." Sometimes a man stays there 24 hours, buried in darkness and thought, and finally he is apt to agree with the officials that he is richer than he had at first supposed.

The latest official estimate of the population of the United States is 77,000,000. This is made by the actuary of the treasury, an officer whose duty it is at fixed intervals to report on the per capita circulation of money in the United States. He estimates that the present holdings of money are $22.53 for every man, woman and child in the United States.

The report that the sub-editor of this paper was contemplating a trip to the Clondyke mining region, is false. We have no notion of trying out luck in a country where a man's chances of becoming a millionaire is half disappointment and the other half dog meat. No thank you, we don't care for any. We had rather stay at home and wield the editorial pen and let the other fellow try it.

For once, the Journal is benefited by being a week behind. After the GLOBE was printed last week one of our attorneys discovered that he had a summons to publish, and could only do so legally by having it commenced with the issue of Aug. 6th—and the Journal being a week behind, of course, got the job—which will prove a God-send to it, since about all the other ads in that paper are dead, and run in only to fill up space.

Talk about your cyclones, Kansas ain't it with Oregon this summer. Last Friday afternoon about 4:30 o'clock the wind blew a living gale in Condon; and everything that was movable was seen flying through the air at a rapid rate of speed. It is said that the wind lifted the mortgage of a farm north of town and had not been found up to the time of going to press, neither has the GLOBE's bulletin board, which the wind also lifted from its moorings—and it wasn't much of a day for wind, either.

A CLOSE CALL.—E. Jacobsen and P. L. Sayers, of the Jacobsen Book & Music Co., of The Dalles, arrived in Condon as we were almost through with the job of pressing and about to haul in the gang-plank. Mr. Jacobsen requested us to let the people of Condon know that he has some of the finest pianos and organs ever seen in this section. They can be seen at the Armory hall where Mr. Jacobsen is located, and invites everybody to call and see their fine instruments. They are now unpacking a car-load of their instruments which arrived from Arlington a few days ago and will be on display at the Armory hall for a few days only.

Hons. E. M. and S. P. Shutt, the enterprising editors of the Antelope Herald and this great weekly, will be at their home in Pennsylvania ere this issue reaches its thousands of readers. The Herald has for its editor, during E. M. Shutt's absence, Dr. Pilkington, who was formerly on the Oregonian staff, and is a man of wide experience in the newspaper business, and a more brilliant writer would be hard to find in Eastern Oregon. We are personally acquainted with Bro. Pilkington, in fact, we have set copy from his pen, and are, therefore, in a position to know whereof we speak. We congratulate the Herald on its success in securing such an able, assistant editor.

The readers of this paper must not expect too much from an editor who is handicapped by deafness and dyspepsia and one who has never before held down the editorial chair. Although we have served our time at the cases, we have never before made an attempt to edit a paper. We are justly proud however, to know that the boss editor has placed confidence in our ability to manage his business for the while he is absent, and we will try to do the best we can. The citizens of Condon, God bless them, they will all do what they can to help us out, and, with the help of our correspondents from the neighboring towns, we think we can manage to fill our columns without any difficulty. This issue is a sample of our work and we leave it to the many readers of the GLOBE to judge for themselves whether we are capable of running a newspaper or not.

Ice Cream Social and Entertainment.

There will be an ice cream social and entertainment in the Armory hall in Condon on Friday evening August 20th, the proceeds of which will be used for the benefit of the Catholic church. All are cordially invited to attend and a good time guaranteed. Ice recently imported from the Clondyke. A dance will be given after the social—at 50 cents a number.

CLONDYKE AT CONDON

Jacobsen Book & Music Co. have arrived, and have opened a branch store at the Armory hall in Condon. A whole car-load of pianos and organs on display, and it will pay you to call and see them at once, as they will only remain a short time. All kinds of instruments repaired by us while in condon. Address E. Jacobsen, Condon, or Jacobsen Book & Music Co., The Dalles, Oregon.

Olex Explosions.

Quite a number of men are wanted for harvesting at Olex.

E. D. Howell from Oregon City began working for Chamberlain's thresher this week.

Mr. H. H. Weatherford was seriously hurt by falling off his separator last week.

Frank Ralston will soon embark in the general merchandise business at Lone Rock.

Ralston's header outfit will finish up on H. T. Propst's & Chas. Daekes' farm this week, after which the thresher will start up.

Boy Drowned.

Fred Heidtman, the only son of Henry Heidtman was drowned in the John Day river Sunday last while in bathing with Henry Steers' son and Bruce Enyart of Fossil. Fred started to swim out to the island in the middle of the river which was only a short distance from the main land, and called to the boys to come on, and he was seen to suddenly turn on his back and acted as if in great pain. Enyart swam out to him but was unable to rescue him alone and swam back to the shore and got a pole but was too late, for the boy went down and did not come up again. The body was found late that same evening, and the burial took place at Fossil cemetery Tuesday.

Fred Heidtman was about 18 years of age and well liked by all who knew him, and the bereaved parents deeply feel the loss of their only son.

Vocal and Instrumental Concert.

They had a delightful concert at the Condon hotel Tuesday evening, consisting of vocal and instrumental music in which all the young people present participated. Strictly speaking, it was a surprise party, given in honor of some friends of Mrs. Maddock, the proprietress, who were traveling through the country for recreation. Among those present were: Dr. J. H. Frazer and wife, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Sears, Chas. Ross, Mr. and Mrs. Al Henshaw and their daughter Birdie; H. N. Frazer and wife, C. O. Portwood and Atty John Lyons. About 11:30 o'clock the doors of the dining room were thrown open and the guests were invited to partake of a most bountiful lunch which was prepared by Mrs. Maddock, whose culinary skill cannot be surpassed, after which the party retired to the parlor and enjoyed themselves until a late hour, after which the guests departed for their homes, and all expressed themselves as having had the most enjoyable time of the season.

Letter From Chas. B. Stevens.

Chas. B. Stevens writes from Alexander Valley, Sonoma county, Cal: We left The Dalles July 29th on the Regulator, and had a fine ride down the Columbia. At the locks a party of excursionists joined us, giving us a large quota of passengers; we stayed in the Metropolis till the 31st; at 8 p. m. we took passage on the steamer State California, there being four or five hundred passengers on board, and we had fine weather all the way to San Francisco. Monday, August 2nd, we took the train for Sonoma county to visit friends and relatives, our party consisting of Mrs. O. C. Stevens and my mother of The Dalles; myself and wife and little son George of Condon. We are enjoying ourselves fine and will take in all the sights of California before returning. My hand, which was hurt by a cartridge explosion, is doing nicely, but it will be six weeks or two months before I can do anything, however. The fine grapes and luscious peaches and water melons for which this country is noted would make your mouth water to see them. Will write you again after seeing more of the country. Please send the GLOBE to us regular, we miss it very much. I am Respectfully,
CHAS. B. STEVENS.

Teachers' Examination.

Teachers' examination is in progress with two applicants for certificates—Misses Luella Maddock and Ethel Halstead. Supt. Daggett having been called away, and Mrs. Stevens being absent, Miss Grace Fitzwater is assisting Chas. Royce in conducting the examination.

It is hard to tell the facts about Schilling's Best because each has its own goodness. All money-back, though.
