THE OFFICIAL PAPER OF GILLIAM COUNTY, OREGON.

A SILLY PRACTICE.

A silly and demoralizing practice is that of bidding for the county printing. The county publishers themselves are often responsible for this practice. In order to keep the other fellow from getting the work they offer to do it for less than the legal rate. If rates can be thus cut once, the officers argue, they can be cut again and each time thereafter bids are asked.

If bids are asked on doing certain printing why should not bids be asked for holding office? Let the law be amended to permit the governor to advertise each year for persons to fill the various offices of the state. Let the job of office-holding to the lowest bidder. Such a plan would be as sensible as the common custom of asking bids on publishing county work.

The proper thing for newspaper publishers to do is to decline all temptations to cut the rate.—Printer's Ink.

Among the decisions handed down by the supreme court in Pendleton recently was one in the case of McKennon vs. American Fire Insurance Company, garnishee. The main point in the case is that of sustaining the validity of the homestead exemption law passed at a former session of the legislature. The appeal grew out of the Cotner Insurance case. McKennon garnishees the insurance company for a debt owed by Cotner and the company refused to pay on the grounds that the amount of the policy, about $900, was exempt from execution. The homestead exemption act provides that a free holder may claim exemption to the amount of $1,500. Nearly all the circuit courts of the state have decided that the law is inoperative, but the supreme court has now affirmed the validity of the act.

Arlington Items.

"Carati", the photographer, seems to be doing a good business these days.

Mrs L C Edwards returned from the coast last week and reports having had an enjoyable time.

Jim Morse returned from the mountains this week where he has been for the past two months.

Mrs S G Hawson returned last Monday from the coast where she has been enjoying the refreshing sea air.

Maj Redford has adorned his parlor with a large oil painting this week, which proves very attractive.

Miss Fernbarker of Blalock came to Arlington last week to receive medical treatment. We sincerely hope to see her out again soon.

S D Shurte, brother of the Shurte boys at this place, came down from Idaho last week to attend the funeral of the late Mrs Shurte and children. The funeral was the best attended and the best conducted ever witnessed in Arlington. Mr Shurte has the sympathy of all his friends throughout the entire country.

Olex Explosions.

H D Randall is contemplating a trip to the Clondike in the spring.

Chickens are dying with the pink-eye in this section, or something similar to that disease.

Watermelon thieves carried off all of Ralston & Scoggin's melons and part of the vines last Sunday night.

Threshing is in full blast in this section, and farmers say the grain is not yielding as heavily as was expected.

Geo Schott and Chas Gilmore arrived from Huntington last Sunday, and will spend several months in the vicinity of Olex.

James Helms, a brother-in-law of G S Smith, has leased a 480 acre farm for three years, of L O Ralston, and will try farming on a large scale. The farm is situated 6 miles south of Blalock.

Mr James Hughes, a relative of H D Randall, has been in Olex for the past week in the interest of a Klondiking party. Jim used to live on Rock creek, and we are glad to see him back.

We are pained to learn of the fatal accident which befell Mr Shurte's family at Arlington. This is the saddest affair that has ever happened in Gilliam county, and has cast sorrow in the hearts of all the residents of Olex and the county in general.

JAMES W. SMITH

Desires to inform the people of Gilliam county that his business is running on full time at the old stand—Union Block, Arlington, Oregon; that the flashy, misleading newspaper advertisements and circular letters that are flooding the country have not affected his trade; but on the contrary, sales have been increasing. His many old friends and customers realize that no business man will give away something for nothing. What he loses on the "baits" he will more than doubly make up on the other goods he sells his customers. Look out for snares. One of our greatest statesmen 40 years ago truthfully said: "You can fool some of the people all of the time, and all of the people some of the time, but you can't fool all of the people all of the time."

James W. Smith's immense stock of goods will speak for him. Call and examine the largest stock of goods ever shown in Gilliam county. His stores are loaded from floor to ceiling, and as regards prices he will endeavor to keep in the "procession."

Many of the lines are bought direct from the East in large quantities for cash, which enables him to give his customers great inducements to favor him with their patronage.

He sells the Oliver Chilled plows and extras, including the New Departure two and three gangs, also the John Deere plows of all kinds, the Studebaker, Bain and Racine wagons, hacks and buggies, the Standard, Acme and McCormack mowers, reapers and hay rakes, the latest improved Pitts threshing machinery, the up-to-date old reliable Hodge steel-frame headers, Holt Bros. Combined Harvesters, Etc., Etc.

Camp and sheepmen's supplies a specialty. Highest prices paid for hides, pelts, etc.

When in Arlington call and get prices before closing deals elsewhere.
