

THE CONDON GLOBE.

FRIDAY, AUGUST 20, 1897.

NOTICE.

The yearly subscription to the GLOBE is $1.50, if paid in advance. If not paid in advance $2 will be charged. A pencil mark around this notice indicates that your subscription has expired. Please renew promptly.

GLOBOSITIES.

Ship your dogs to Klondike.
The bunch-grass flea is 'nt yet nit.
If you don't read the GLOBE you don't get the news.
There are two kinds of office seekers—the appointed and the disappointed.
Att'y John Lyons spent Saturday, Sunday and Monday with friends in Fossil.
There is talk in Nebraska of running Hon. W. J. Bryan for governor, if he will consent.

It is said that eggs are worth a dollar a dozen in the Clondyke mining region. A safe place for would-be orators we presume.

Owing, no doubt, to the sinking of the steamer Mexico in Alaskan waters, no Eastern mail was received in Condon this week.

The Hotel De Wilcox is being well patronized, there being four boarders there now, two of whom were "run in" this week.

Att'y John Lyons left on Wednesday's stage for Walla Walla to bid farewell to his brother Tom, who will start in a few days for Alaska.

An exchange says that an Ohio man started for the West with a wagon load of nitro-glycerine and the last heard of the outfit was the explosion.

Everybody should come out this (Friday) evening to attend the ice cream social and entertainment in the Armory hall, and thereby help a worthy cause.

A box-car tramp has discovered that republican newspapers make the best bed, because, as he expresses it, they are like a pneumatic tire—full of wind.

Mr. H. T. Booth, special agent for the Massachusetts Mutual Life Insurance Co., was over from Fossil one day this week and made this office a pleasant call.

If that crank who started out to find the North Pole would either pronounce himself dead or alive he would remove a great deal of anxiety from scientific circles.

Mont Ward, who is running a threshing machine in Ferry Canyon, says the grain is not turning out as much per acre as was expected, but is a better quality than it was last year.

You can't reach the Klondike heaven via Chitkot this year without undergoing a purgatorial experience at Dyva. Better summer the coming winter in Condon than below-zero it in Alaska.

Fossil is expending $200 in fixing up her school house for the winter's term. It's about time Fossil was making a move in that direction. Her school building has always been a disgrace to the town.

Mr. H. C. Strickland, who had his leg broken by a horse falling on him July 24, is able to be around again with the aid of crutches, but it will be several weeks yet before he will have the use of that member.

Dunn Bros. are preparing to move their immense stock of merchandise in the building just vacated by Mrs. E. E. Smith. Barr Bros., so it is said, will open a saloon in the building now being vacated by Dunn Bros.

There is no occasion to go to the mountains to avoid the heat. Condon is an admirable summer resort this season. Those who have acquired the summer outing habit find it agreeable to get away—anywhere, the change is good for one.

Dr. Howard of Fossil has sold out his business to Dr. Shaw, the gentleman who stopped in Condon a day or two last week on his way through. Dr. Howard will start in a few weeks for Nova Scotia, his old home, to reside permanently.

Percy Chamberlain was brought over from Fossil by L. G. Morgan last Sunday and turned over to Sheriff Wilcox on a charge of adultery. His bonds has been fixed by S. C. Donaldson, justice of the peace for Butte Creek precinct, at the sum of $400.

Clerk Frazer's family, in company with Dr. J. H. Frazer and wife, went to Lone Rock last Saturday to visit friends and to enjoy themselves in the cool timber over there. They returned Monday morning, and report having had an enjoyable time.

Chas. Russell was arrested last Sunday night and locked up for having imbibed too freely of the flowing bowl and using profane language in the presence of our most estimable citizens. He was taken before the recorder next morning and fined $15.

The GLOBE has more reliable special correspondents than any other paper in Gilliam county. If you are interested in the reports from all over the county the GLOBE is the paper for you to subscribe to, and besides it furnishes all the other news, both local and general.

People all over the United States are making such a great ado about that "ton of gold" which was brought down from Clondyke, yet it will take more than two tons of gold to buy Gilliam county's 1897 wheat crop, and outsiders regard it as a matter hardly worth mentioning.

Bush, the young man who stabbed and killed Horace Cadel at a dance at the Beaver creek school house in Crook county on the night of July 24 and escaped to the mountains, has been captured and taken to the Crook county jail to await the action of the next grand jury.

The Fossil country seems to be headquarters for appendicitis and rattlesnakes this season. Over there they consider it a mighty poor day for snakes when one or two of them are not slaughtered.—Antelope Herald. [Wonder what brand they are using over there this season?]

D. C. Henry, who in company with John Palmer left last spring for Roseland, B. C., with a band of horses for sale, returned last week, bringing back three head of horses with him. Mr. Henry says he could have sold his horses at home for a better price than was realized at Roseland.

What's the use of going to Clondyke and freezing up with the country when you can make a fortune by staying at home and raising potatoes for a dollar a bushel and sell your butter for $1.50 per roll, and everything else that can be raised on the farm bringing a higher price than was ever before realized?

We don't propose to fight any other editor with paper, but if any other editor wants a fight out of us all he's got to do is to say so, and we'll sign an agreement to box a limited number of rounds either with type-sticks or stuffed horseshoes, and the gate money to go toward furnishing Condon with a system of water-works.

Messrs. H. N. and J. H. Frazer left today (Friday) for Pendleton to spend Saturday and Sunday visiting relatives and friends. The doctor's wife will accompany them as far as Arlington, where she will take the train for Portland. Mrs. Frazer and assessor M. O. Clarke are attending to the duties of the clerk's office during his absence.

The greatest beet liar in the state lives near Eugene, Lane county. In describing the virtues of the soil down there lately he assured a Tenderfoot that they pulled beets with a derrick and it required several days work to get them out of the ground, and after the beets were pulled out of the ground the holes were used for artesian wells.

It seems too bad that the county prisoners are compelled to stay inside all the time this fine weather. We think they could be given a little work in the yard—watering the trees and improving the grounds around the court house etc. Most any man had rather have a little work outside than be kept in solitary confinement for two or three months.

Mr. E. Jacobsen, president and manager of the Jacobsen Book & Music Co., of The Dalles, Or., is at Condon, looking after his business interests here. The concern is shipping pianos and organs into Gilliam county by the carload, and from what we know of Mr. Jacobsen, we believe his goods are first-class. The instruments on display at the Armory hall are certainly dandies.

Some fellow has dug up some copy which he claims was written by Horace Greeley while holding down the editorial chair and has placed it on exhibition at a county fair in Pennsylvania because of its illegibility. We'll bet a gallon of printer's ink to a postage stamp that that fellow has got hold of some of that Southern Wasco county editor's copy and is trying to pan it off as Horace Greeley's.

Don't cry hard times! E. Jacobsen, of the Jacobsen Book & Music Co., of The Dalles, who has a branch store at the Armory hall in Condon, is having about the hardest time of any of us—trying to get his immense stock of pianos and organs from Arlington. Although he is offering 50 cts. per 100 lbs. freight, he cannot get them here fast enough to supply the wants of his many patrons in this section.

The GLOBE was unable to get an accurate account of the fire in Arlington on the 10th inst., and we published an account that we got from a passenger who arrived in Condon on the stage the next day after the fire, and this week we received a full account of the fire from the GLOBE's special correspondent at Arlington, but the letter did not reach us in time for publication this week, but it will appear in these columns next issue.

There is a man in the county jail here who used to work in a printing office in Boston, Mass., our native state, and he sent us a note this week which reads as follows: "Mr. Editor: Don't you want a 'devil' to help you out? I used to work in an office many years ago and I believe I could set as much type as anybody now, if it wasn't for the blamed proof-reader." We already have more "devils" around the office than we can put up with.

The Antelope Herald referred to us in the last issue as "our friend dummy." We forgive Bro. Pilkington a thousand times for that mistake, because we are sure he would not say anything that was intended to touch a tender spot in our anatomy, as the (Fossil) poet would say. The word "dummy" is applied to a man who is both deaf and dumb. Although we are almost totally deaf, we still have as good use of our vocal organs as the doctor himself has, and he is well aware of that fact, because we were formerly residents of the same town, and he knows we can give a whoop that would make thunder sound like dropping cotton on a still morning.

CONDON ARMORY HALL.

A grand assortment of pianos and organs are on display there, and this is your last chance. The Jacobsen Book & Music Co., of The Dalles, have a car-load of them at Condon and will deliver any piano or organ right at your house without extra charge. They handle nothing but first-class goods, and, considering the trouble to transport pianos and organs over these mountain roads, you will readily see that you will not have another chance very soon to purchase a first-class instrument at Portland prices, and, if you intend buying an instrument within the next year or two, you cannot afford to let this opportunity pass without taking advantage of it. We will be pleased to show anyone our goods, and guarantee to meet all competition. Respectfully,

E. JACOBSEN,
Armory Hall, Condon, Or.

Free Concert at the Armory Hall.

Everybody should attend the free concert at the Armory Hall this (Friday) evening. Messrs. Jacobsen and Sayles, of the Jacobsen Book & Music Co., of The Dalles, and who, by the way, have a car-load of some of the finest pianos and organs ever seen in this country on display at the hall, have agreed to assist in the musical programme, and the music-loving people of Condon and vicinity will be treated to some of the finest music they ever had the pleasure of hearing in Condon. Ice cream and cake will be served by the ladies, which will only cost 15 cents, and 50 cents a number for the dance which will be given after the concert. As was stated in these columns last week, the proceeds will be used for the benefit of the Catholic church, and it is hoped the citizens of Condon will all come out and help a worthy cause.

Mayville Mutterings.

Miss Emma Edwards returned home from Harney last Friday.

M Patz expects to have his mill ready to commence work by Sept 1st.

Charley Huntley of Pine Creek makes weekly trips to Mayville with nice fresh fruit.

Grand-pa Perrin of Pine Creek came over last week to visit relatives at this place.

Mrs J B Wallace and Miss Blanche Campbell of Fossil visited friends in this section last week.

Miss Edith Simmons has about entirely recovered from her illness, caused by being thrown from a buggy.

Miss Pearl Shelton, who has been visiting relatives in Linn county, returned home on last Tuesday's stage.

Farmers in this locality are wearing the broadest of smiles over the bright prospects of a heavy yield of grain this year. Barley is now being threshed and is averaging 45 bushels to the acre.

Rock Creek Items.

The fruit is ripening fast in this section.

Hay is selling in this section for $4.50 and $6 a ton.

The horses are dying off fast around here for the want of grass.

Wheat is being threshed east of here, and is averaging 25 bushels to the acre.

John Flett is recovering from a brief spell of sickness, and will soon be out again.

Sheepmen in this section will fair hard this fall and winter unless it rains pretty soon.

Wm Flett was thrown from a wild bronco last Monday, skinning him up pretty badly but no bones broken.

Some of our cattlemen are herding their cattle in the vicinity of Long Creek in order to keep them from starving to death.

Dr. J. H. Frazer, dentist, will leave Condon for the Valley about Sept. 1st, and all those desiring his services will do him, as well as themselves a favor by calling at his office at once and make arrangements in regard to their work. Cash preferred, but owing to the scarcity of money at the present time among the farmers, he is willing to take a few good horses at a reasonable figure. Bear in mind that all work is warranted to be first-class. Office situated in H. B. Hendricks's law office.

A young lady of Condon, while out walking with a gentleman, asked him what he thought she would weigh. After thinking a while he replied that he could not tell unless he could "lift" her. The young lady made no objections. He placed his arm around her slender waist and raised her from the ground, after which he guessed she would weigh about 125 pounds. She looked at him a moment and then in a voice sweet and low said: "I think you had better guess again."

E. E. Martin, deputy county clerk of Clackamas county, has been arrested for embezzlement of funds belonging to a Denver loan association, and has acknowledged to having sold "raised" county warrants. Martin is a prominent member of the Y. M. C. A., but had a "mania" for money. His wife was running a millinery store that was not a paying investment and he "blowed in" all the money entrusted to him to keep the store going. It's plain to be seen that there was "a woman at the bottom of it."

Grain sacks and twine for sale at Moody's warehouse, Arlington, Oregon.

About seven weeks ago five head of stray hogs came to the ranch of J. A. Crum at Olex. They all have a "cropp" and slit in the ear. The owner will be expected to pay for their keeping, also $1 for this notice.

Dr. Tate, dentist, of Portland, expects to stop in the principal towns in Gilliam county including Condon, on his way home sometime in September, and will be pleased to wait upon all those who may need his services.

F. H. DOUGLASS.

The Place Where You Get the Most Change Back.

Of course when you are buying harness and saddles you want the best. I keep in stock only the very best material, and while maintaining my reputation in this respect, I go to the other extreme in keeping prices down to the lowest point. I know that nothing builds up business like the selling of first-class goods. I sell them, and don't sell anything else. When you need anything in my line, give me a call, and like the fable of the cat, "you'll come back again."

T. L. PORTWOOD, Condon.
