

THE CONDON GLOBE.

FRIDAY, AUGUST 27, 1897.

NOTICE.

The yearly subscription to the GLOBE is $1.50, if paid in advance. If not paid in advance $2 will be charged. A pencil mark around this notice indicates that your subscription has expired. Please renew promptly.

GLOBOSITIES.

Is it—enough for you?

Well, let's have them water works or some other water works!

Several headers were taken to the dry-dock for repairs last week.

Miss Katie Kelley of Eight-Mile is visiting friends in Condon this week.

Loon.—Between Rock Creek and Radman's, a sack of clothes. Finder leave same at Clem. B. T. Snell.

Bill Livingston is wearing the big star now, Chas. Quindt having turned that ornament over to him last week.

There is plenty of work for every man in the country just now, and a tramp who asks for bread ought to get bullets.

The best way to keep fish from smelling in hot weather is to cut off their nose. No extra charge for this information.

About the best music that the farmers have heard for many months is this delightful prestissimo movement of the crops.

Wheat is selling in The Dalles this week for 82 cents per bushel. Valley wheat is selling in Portland for 90 cents per bushel.

Rev. Bader will not return to Condon to preach any more, as he has concluded to enter school at Waila Walls sometime next month.

Mr. C. C. Wilson, the gentleman who sold out his saloon business to O. W. Barr this week, has not yet decided on his future plans.

There would be no snakes in the Fossil country if liquor was $2 a drink like it is in the Clondyke country—and they never see snakes up there, so we are told.

Mr. Jacobsen desires to say that anybody is welcome—at the Armory hall. Come in and listen to the music and inspect the fine pianos and organs on display.

If your ad is in the GLOBE it is read. Why? Because the GLOBE is taken by the masses for the news it contains, and the accurate and interesting manner of its telling.

A book agent made his appearance in Condon the other day and struck a mesmerist. She hypnotized him into the back yard and made him beat carpets for five hours.

They can boom their mines all they please, but the best "pay-dirt" we know of is right here in Gilliam county. If anyone has any doubts about it, let them try farming and be convinced.

The GLOBE gives the news while it is news—and it costs no more than one of those old-fashioned, boiler plate weeklies that print matter so stale that it would fail to pass inspection by the health committee.

The material for the new addition to the steel cage in the county jail has arrived at Arlington, and will be hauled here immediately and put into place. This improvement will no doubt prove beneficial to the health of the inmates.

O. W. Barr bought out C. C. Wilson's saloon business this week, and has already taken possession of the same. Mr. Barr is well known to the people in this section, and has had considerable experience in the saloon business, and therefore knows how to mix 'em.

If wheat continues to go up, the farmers in this section won't know what to do with their money. At ninety cents a bushel they will be buying canary birds and gold fish, and at a dollar, electric lights and water works will not be considered bad investments.

A Mayville woman who was persuaded by a neighbor to drink some "pure juice of the grape" the other day, protests that it is not intoxicating, but just the same she spent all the afternoon trying to sew chlorate of potash tablets for buttons on her husband's shirt.

The reason why people don't stop to read the ads on rocks and fences any more is because they don't know whether they are reading the ads of firms that are still in business or whether they have been out of business for years. Read the ads in the GLOBE and you will find that the firms are still doing business at the old stand.

Joe Whyte, in company with Sheriff Wilcox, left for Fossil last Sunday to visit a few days with Mr. Whyte's friend Jim. It is rumored that Mr. Whyte had some difficulty with his brother-in-law before they left Condon, and the justice of the peace of Butte Creek precinct has do doubt got wind of it and is trying to patch it up with Joe.

A man living near Antelope mortgaged his farm to buy his wife a pair of diamond earrings. The wife took in washing to pay the interest on the mortgage, but the first job she did she lost one of the sparklers in the suds and tried to hang herself in the barn, but the rope broke and she fell on a Jersey cow worth $150, breaking the cow's back. Her husband then undertook to shoot the cow to end her misery, but the gun burst and destroyed his eyesight, and his wife ran away with a lightning rod peddler. The mortgage is the only thing that is left intact.

In New York the other day several deaf-mutes "sang" several popular selections by gracefully utilizing their fingers. The attention of the young man who thinks that "Sweet Rosie O'Grady" loves him is respectfully directed to this method of expression.

The Arlington Record evidently had a green hand running the press last week or else the press needs a new gilderfluke or something else. All the papers mailed from that office to Condon last week were unreadable. If we should send the GLOBE to its subscribers in such a form we would get our walking papers in less time than it takes to tell it.

On Wednesday night, the 18th inst., A. L. Duthie's barn, with about 30 tons of hay and a lot of farming implements therein was burned to the ground. Loss about $500, no insurance. The cause of the fire is no doubt of incendiary origin, as tracks were found leading to and from the barn. Any man who will deliberately destroy a person's property in such a manner ought to be hung.

Rev. Father Conrardy, who is well known in this and Umatilla counties and who left for Hawaii about ten years ago to help the lepers in the leper colony, returned to Condon last week and is at the Condon hotel. He was taken suddenly ill last Sunday morning with summer complaint, but Dr. Hogan, who is waiting on him, informs us that he is recovering slowly and thinks he will be out again in a few days.

The Jacobson Book & Music Co., of The Dalles, pay no commission on sales. If you buy an instrument of them you get the benefit of would-be agents commission. Pianos and organs sold by them are at Condon, on display at the Armory hall, and they speak for themselves. It is therefore not necessary for them to pay 10 per cent or more commission—like Col. L. V. Moore of Portland is offering to parties in Gilliam county.

A woman living at Cross Keys, Wasco county, recently gave birth to triplets and the evidence of prosperity was received in such high glee by the community that the commissioners met and awarded her $25. It is queer that no fuss was made over the husband. He is the one who ought to have received the reward. Any one who is so unfortunate as to get them three at a time needs all the substantial sympathy he can gather in.

Syl Palmer returned from the mountains Tuesday evening. He says they are having a fine time up there in the shades of the Blue mountains and that he would have stayed longer but he did not think it was hardly fair for the single men to be compelled to pitch tents every night while the married men pitched horsehoes. Syl is doing duty in the barber shop again and at last accounts him and his razor was pulling together as of old.

Dr. J. H. Frazer, dentist, will leave Condon for the Valley about Sept. 1st., and all those desiring his services will do him, as well as themselves a favor by calling at his office at once and make arrangements in regard to their work. Cash preferred, but owing to the scarcity of money at the present time among the farmers, he is willing to take a few good horses at a reasonable figure. Bear in mind that all work is warranted to be first-class. Office situated in H. B. Hendrick's law office.

The ice-cream social and dance at the Armory hall last Friday night was a success both financially and socially. There were a great deal more people in attendance than was expected, and if the ice had held out the ladies would have realized quite a large sum from ice-cream. The proceeds of the social and dance together amounted to $39, of which sum $8 was deducted for expenses, leaving $31 clear for the Catholic church. The ladies wish to thank their many friends through the GLOBE for their kind assistance in helping a worthy cause.

We are elated with pride since we received these compliments from our exchanges: Antelope Herald: "After a careful review of Sam's first issue of the GLOBE our opinion of him is higher than ever before. His paper is bright, spicy and very newsy. Editor Shutt did well in leaving his paper in such hands." Fossil Journal: "Sam Baxter, better known as 'Dummy,' although he can talk as good as anyone, is editor pro tem of the Condon GLOBE, and is doing exceedingly good work for a man who is totally deaf." We fully realize our misfortune in being deaf, and we venture to say that there is not a deaf-mute in the country that could edit a newspaper any better than we can, and we think the complimentary articles above quoted are just and proper.

Notice to Debtors. Notice is hereby given that I have sold out my saloon business to O. W. Barr, who will continue the business until the expiration of my city license, and all those knowing themselves indebted to me will please call at the Arlington saloon in Condon and settle as soon as possible. Respectfully, C. C. WILSON, Condon, Or.

Teachers' Examination. But one of the two applicants at the late teachers' examination was successful, Miss Lonella Maddock, who obtained a third grade certificate with an average of 70.2 per cent. Miss Maddock is a Condon lady, and the GLOBE joins her many friends in congratulations.

Arlington Items.

Mr C A Shurte left Saturday to spend a few days in Portland.

Mrs T W Campton and Miss Ora Vining are spending the hot summer days visiting Mrs Campton's mother at Hardman, Or.

Coods are arriving daily for Mr L C Edwards' new drug store to be located at Condon. We wish him every success in the world.

Wheat is still going up, and the farmers are more jubilant than ever. We can justly claim a Clondyke in our midst without being froze up.

Mr Sharrard's trip to the mountains did not prove very beneficial to him, for since his return he and his entire family as well have been sick.

Mrs Gager's health has improved since she went to the hospital in Portland, and she expects to return to Arlington in a few days, which fact we are pleased to announce.

Mrs F A Snow of Portland is visiting her sister, Mrs C S Weimer, at this place. Her husband was formerly in business here, but is now with the wholesale house of Lang & Co., of Portland.

Ed Williams of Croy, had his left arm broken this week while working around Geo Earhart's threshing machine near Olex. He got his hand caught in the belts in some way with the result above stated.

Mr W A Rodkey, formerly a business man of this place, died in Portland the 20th inst. Mr Rodkey leaves a wife well provided for, as he was a prominent member of the A O U W Lodge of this place, also a member of the Woodmen of the World. He was well known in this section and leaves a host of friends.

Rock Creek Items.

Peaches and plums on the creek are ripe.

Miss Fannie Flett returned home Sunday from a brief visit in Morrow county.

Mattie Jennings will start soon for Monmouth to attend the State Normal School.

Mrs Wm Thompson who has been under treatment for her eyes, is somewhat better.

Alex Baird of Fossil passed through Wolf hollow last week with a bunch of cattle which he will ship to Chicago.

O S Farnsworth of Heppner, bought W G Flett's hay and range this week. There was 89 tons of hay, which brought $7 per ton.

Lone Rock Rumlblings.

Jack Andrews has bought Mrs Balding's house in Lone Rock and will open a restaurant in the near future.

Morgan Ward killed 16 grouse one day last week, and Bob Johnson and Wm Colwell came in with 28 to their credit.

Hon J R Ralston will soon build a store at this place and stock it with goods. His son Tom will be a partner in the business.

The races last Thursday and Friday passed off quietly. Geo Earhart's horse won the saddle horse race, and Frank Crawford's horse won in the free for all race. Several hundred dollars changed hands during the races.

Mayville Mutterings.

Moore & Livingston will start their threshing machine in a few days at F B Golden's place.

J A Bindell of Mitchell is here building a furnace for the mill. He will also put up some fire-proof chimneys in this neighborhood.

Mrs Ella Rinehart gave a party at her new residence Saturday evening. About 30 of her friends were present and enjoyed themselves immensely.

Miss Jennie Miller, who has just returned from a visit to Clem, will visit friends in this vicinity for a few weeks before leaving for her home in Portland.

That Delicious Ice-Cream!

Ice-cream and cake will be on sale at the Condon hotel Sunday afternoon and evening at 25 cents a round, and those people who were kicking about the ice melting away before they could get a taste of the ice-cream at the Armory hall last Friday night, can have a chance to get even Sunday. Mrs. Maddock will see to it that there will be plenty of ice to reach 'round this time.

Notice to Pupils of Dist. No. 9.

Owing to the fact that quite a number of scholars will not be ready for school by Aug. 30th, and for various other reasons, the directors of Condon school district No. 9, hereby give notice that school will not commence until Sept. 13th,—two weeks later than was at first decided on. P. H. STEPHENSON, Dist. Clerk. By order of directors.

When you feel like enjoying a good drink of hop-cold beer or a first-class cigar, drop in at the Arlington saloon, Main St., Condon, and if I am not in you'll always find my latch-string hanging out. Respectfully, O. W. BARR, Successor to C. C. Wilson.

Do you know that you can buy pianos and organs on the installment plan—$10 per month, of the Jacobson Book & Music Co., of The Dalles, Oregon? They have a full line on display at the Armory hall in Condon at present and will only remain a few days longer.

Grain sacks and twine for sale at Moody's warehouse, Arlington, Oregon.

About seven weeks ago five head of stray hogs came to the ranch of J. A. Crum at Olex. They all have a "cropp" and slit in the ear. The owner will be expected to pay for their keeping, also $1 for this notice.

Dr. Tate, dentist, of Portland, expects to stop in the principal towns in Gilliam county including Condon, on his way home sometime in September, and will be pleased to wait upon all those who may need his services.

See those good Header Drivers at Shurte Bros.

If you want a piano or organ, be sure to write to the Jacobson Book and Music Co., The Dalles, Or. Catalogue free.

Look your machines over and tell Shurte Bros. your troubles. They will save you money on extras of all kinds.

The Wasco Warehouse Co. has wool sacks, fleece twine and sack twine for sale at Arlington.

FOR SALE CHEAP—A 12-foot header, in good order. Call at my home or address E. O. Tobey, Olex, Or.

For Sale Cheap.

I have for sale cheap one 28-inch Buffalo Pitts threshing machine, with Jackson self-feeder, and everything complete. Call at my ranch, near Fletts, or address me at Olex, Or., for particulars. F. H. DOUGLASS.

The Place Where You Get the Most Change Back.

Of course when you are buying harness and saddles you want the best. I keep in stock only the very best material, and while maintaining my reputation in this respect, I go to the other extreme in keeping prices down to the lowest point. I know that nothing builds up business like the selling of first-class goods. I sell them, and don't sell anything else. When you need anything in my line, give me a call, and like the fable of the cat, "you'll come back again." T. L. PORTWOOD, Condon.

The Wasco Warehouse Co. has wool sacks, fleece twine and sack twine for sale at Arlington.

For Sale—Merino Bucks.

A carefully selected shipment of the celebrated Cunningham bucks will be offered for sale in the vicinity of Fossil, during the breeding season of 1897. Try a new infusion of blood and note the result. For particulars correspond with the undersigned, SMYTHE & Co., Arlington, Oregon.

Grain sacks and twine for sale at Moody's warehouse, Arlington, Oregon.
