

THE CONDON GLOBE.

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 17, 1897.

NOTICE.

The yearly subscription to the GLOBE is $1.50. It is paid in advance. If not paid in advance $2 will be charged. A pencil mark around this notice indicates that your subscription has expired. Please renew promptly.

GLOBOSITIES.

Go to Al Henshaw for a fine air-tight stove.

Come out to the grand ball in the Armory hall this Friday evening.

Dr. J. H. Frazer, the dentist, left this morning for his home at Monmouth.

Circuit court for Gilliam county convenes at Condon next Monday, 20th.

Born, on Thursday, Sept. 9th, to the wife of W. A. Goodwin, on Rock creek, a son.

A newspaper stuffed with dead ads will soon find its way to the journalistic graveyard.

Don't forget about that wood that you promised to bring us on account. The wet season will soon be here.

Don't sell your county scrip next week until you call at the Globe office, where the highest cash price is paid for county warrants.

An immense crowd will attend the races at Condon on Friday and Saturday of this week. People are coming from all over the country.

Under the able instruction of Prof. J. A. McMorris and Miss Mabel Halstead, our school began last Monday with a very large attendance.

The Globe will have more room for local news after this issue. This week its news space is pretty well taken up by court news, proceedings etc.

The editor of this paper and his brother, E. M. Shutt, of the Antelope Herald, arrived home this week from a visit to their old home in Pennsylvania.

The Cunningham bucks, 700 in number, arrived at Fossil today, 17th, and are offered for sale at the Steiwer place, one mile from Fossil. Come early and get a good selection. Smythe & Cox.

G. S. Clark's blacksmith shop caught fire Monday morning, under the floor, and it required some pretty quick work by the bucket brigade to avert what might have been a disastrous conflagration. No damage of any consequence was done.

The people of this place and vicinity will be delighted to learn that the Arlington orchestra—one of the best in the state—will give a ball in the hall at Condon on Friday night of this week. All are invited to come out and hear what will undoubtedly be the grandest musical treat you have ever heard in this country.

All of the threshers in the country are kept running at a red-hot gallop now and will be kept busy yet for several weeks. Wm. Snell has just gone to Ferry Canyon with his steam thrasher. The yield is very good. So is the price, and if several hundred of our delinquent subscribers don't pay up this fall, as per promise, we'll think there's a screw loose somewhere.

The half-dozen members of the Arlington orchestra desire to get acquainted with the people of Condon, and as they want to take in the races here anyway, they have decided to give a grand ball and musical entertainment in the hall this Friday evening. Nobody can afford to miss this rare treat. Come and hear the fine music, even if you don't want to dance.

While visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. Schott, near Olex last week, Mrs. T. G. Johnson met with a painful accident. She was leading her horse to water, when the animal became frightened and ran over her, throwing her down and fracturing her right ankle. She has returned to her own home here and will soon recover from her injuries. Her sister, Miss Frankie Schott, is visiting her at present.

After months of suffering, Mrs. J. R. Clark died on Wednesday of last week, of consumption. The burial took place next day at the cemetery here, and was attended by a very large number of sorrowing friends and relatives. Much sympathy is felt for the bereaved husband and children, in their loss of a kind and affectionate wife and mother. It was Mrs. Clark's request that her funeral service be preached by W. A. Goodwin, and as he could not be here at the burial, owing to sickness in his family, he will conduct the services at Condon next Sunday at 11 o'clock a. m.

Paste This in Your Hat!

On Sept. 22nd to Oct. 1st inclusive the O. R. & N. Co. will sell tickets to Portland and return at one fare ($5.00) for the round trip, the occasion being the Manufacturers' Fair. Tickets expire Oct. 3rd.

On Oct. 6th and 7th the O. R. & N. Co. will sell tickets to the Shooting Tournament at Spokane at one and one-half fare for the round trip ($13.25), receipt must be taken for tickets in order to secure this rate. Tickets are good for return on Oct. 9th ONLY.

Notice is hereby given that there will be a meeting of the Sheepman's Protective Union at Condon on Tuesday, Sept. 21st, 1897, at 2 o'clock p. m. A full attendance is requested, as there is important business to come before the Union. R. G. ROBINSON, President.

Arlington Items.

Wheat dropped from 76 to 70¢ Saturday. We hope to see it come up again soon.

Our enterprising agent, F. C. Hindle, has bought a house and lot and is having it fixed up in grand style.

H. D. Randall has moved his family to town in order to get the benefit of our school this winter. A very good idea.

School opened Monday with a very fair attendance. We propose to have the best school in the country this fall and winter.

Mrs. Parcell and daughter, Miss Eva Wishard, have moved down from Weston and will make their present home with Mr. C. A. Shurt.

Mrs. J. M. Johns returned from her extended visit in the East Sunday. Her married daughter and family returned with her and expect to spend the winter out here.

We came near having a "Sheeney" store in our midst this winter, the only trouble being, they could not find a building in town to rent that would hold their $11,000 stock of goods.

Jonh Cunningham is erecting a large dwelling house, which will add much to the improvement of Arlington. We are glad to see this, and might add that there is not a vacant dwelling in the city, and we think it would pay if some of the rest of the people here would follow Mr. Cunningham's example.

A man riding the cow-catcher of the east-bound train had a very unpleasant experience near Willows Friday night. The train ran into a band of horses, smashing both of his feet. It is said that he had money in the bank, but was taking a cheap ride to Hepper. He was sent to Walla Walla, where his family resides.

A Grand Ball

Will be given at the

Armory Hall, Condon

FRIDAY EVENING.

Sept. 17, 1897.

GRAND MARCH AT 9 P. M.

Music will be furnished by the Arion Club of Arlington.

This will be an opportunity to hear first-class music that should not be overlooked.

TICKETS $1.00 PER COUPLE.

Lone Rock Rumbblings.

Some of our farmers are plowing, the ground being wet to a depth of 8 inches.

Frank Ralston's team ran away last Monday and smashed his wagon up pretty badly.

E. D. Wineland and family returned last Sunday from a month's visit in the Walla Walla country.

Mr. James Vickers is very sick, with very slim chances of recovery, as he is paralyzed very badly. The stroke began last Saturday.

J. R. Ralston & Son's new store building is nearing completion, and their new goods will commence arriving in a few days. Lone Rock, with three stores, will cut quite a swell.

W. C. Brown is getting ready to start to St. Louis with several car loads of mules. He will start about November 10th, and is now in the Malheur country gathering the said "kickers."

The "Oregonian" did not make its appearance at this office last Saturday, as usual, nor did it come Monday. We account for it not coming by one of our populist friends writing them to "stop the paper," and they must have done it.

We understand that the county courts of this and Morrow county will meet on Rock creek soon and decide upon putting a county bridge across Rock creek—a very much-needed improvement, as it is impossible to cross the stream during the spring months.

For Sale—I have for sale several well-improved ranches, situated in Gilliam county, Or. Parties wishing to purchase a good ranch on reasonable terms, are respectfully invited to call at the National Bank in Arlington and see me before purchasing elsewhere. F. T. Clurhant, Arlington, Or.

For Sale—Merino Bucks.
700 head of the Cunningham bucks, selected out of a band of 3000 head, by W. R. Ralston and A. G. Ogilvie, are now on the way to make a stand at Lone Rock, Fossil, Antelope and Mitchell. These bucks will arrive at Fossil about Sept. 10th, and parties in need, should not overlook them, as they are by far the best lot ever offered for sale in Gilliam county.

Everybody buys one of those "Blacksmith Outfits" at Lord & Co.'s because they are so reasonable.

When you are in Condon and feel like enjoying a fine cigar or a good cool glass of beer, drop in at the Arlington saloon, Main St., and H. I. am not at home, you will always find my latch-string hanging out. Respectfully, O. W. Barr.
