

THE CONDON GLOBE.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 1, 1897.

THE OFFICIAL PAPER OF GILLIAM COUNTY, OREGON.

ONE THING AND ANOTHER.

No gentleman will swear before a lady—let her swear first.

More men have been self-undone than have been self-made.

A crank is a man who has a different hobby than your own.

If some men were to lose their reputation they would be lucky.

A man isn't always cool when he shivers in the hour of danger.

A man always puts his foot forward; a mule puts his backward.

Most men are ready and willing to die for their country—of old age.

The man who wants the earth invariably gets it—when he dies.

Some men have a gallon of words to erry spoonful of thoughts.

Some men are so exceedingly modest that they shun the naked truth.

Men are like chickens; they always want to get on the highest roost.

Some men are so dignified that they never unbend until they are broke.

The man who attends strictly to his own business has a good steady job.

It never cools a man off when the street sprinkler throws water on him.

The more a man has the more he wants—unless it happens to be twins.

Giving a man advice and throwing stones at a dog has about the same effect.

How little a man knows of his countrymen—unless he lives in a country village.

The more rapidly a man goes, the more likely he is to be overtaken by misfortune.

Arlington Items.

Agent F C Hindle is on the sick list.

Editor Maxwell's head man left recently.

Dr Irvine is up from Albany for a brief visit.

They say that Mr Hatch went down to Blalock Sunday.

Mr and Mrs S G Hawson, A J Coe and the Misses Ebi are spending a few days at the fair in Portland.

Wheat still seems to slide down hill.

Monday found the market at this place at 68 cents per bushel.

Dr Blalock is down from Walla Walla to consult with Dr Geisendorfer in regard to performing another operation upon Mrs Gager.

Mrs G W Rinehart is down from Condon visiting her daughter, Mrs Geo Taylor, who gave birth to a bouncing baby girl on Sept 24th.

Mrs S G Hawson's two sisters, the Misses Welsh, are down from Fossil visiting and will remain and go to our school this winter.

Maj Redford and T Carson went out to Willow creek Sunday. We understand that the Major has rented his place out there to Frank Marvel.

C S Wenner and family went down to the fair Saturday. They expect to return this week and bid adieu to Arlington and friends, before locating in North Yakima.

A terrible wreck occurred at Squally Hook, below Grant, Monday morning. The sand on the track caused the engine of the freight train to jump the track, killing the engineer, Chas Johnston, and perhaps fatally injuring the fireman.

In the Sunday Oregonian of Sept 19th, we noticed quite an account of "Klondike" as related by Mr Barber and wife. We might add that Mrs Barber was formerly of this place—Mrs John Morman. Before going to Portland she ran the "Vendome" hotel here.

Look your machines over and tell Shurte Bros. your troubles. They will save you money on extras of all kinds.

Good Advice.

Don't let whisky get the best of you, but if you want the best of whisky, wine, beer, liquors and cigars, the place to find them is at the Summit Saloon, in the old drug store building. A fine pool and billiard parlor in connection. Drop in and see for yourselves. The finest line of "wet goods" in the city.

To The Public.

I have taken charge of the old Dodson livery stables in Arlington and hope my friends from every where will remember me when they come to town. My rates are very moderate and the very best care is taken of stock left in my care. Give me a chance. J. F. THOMAS.

Lord & Co. have just received a carload of high-wheel, wide-tire wagons. Parties wishing that kind of a wagon would do well to see them before purchasing elsewhere.

Go to Al Henshaw for a fine air-tight stove.

We try to make Schilling's Best just right—every one.

Do we always hit the mark? You shall judge—your money back (at your grocer's) if you don't like them.

For sale by S. B. Barker

JAMES W. SMITH

Desires to inform the people of Gilliam county that his business is running on full time at the old stand—Union Block, Arlington, Oregon; that the flashy, misleading newspaper advertisements and circular letters that are flooding the country have not affected his trade; but on the contrary, sales have been increasing. His many old friends and customers realize that no business man will give away something for nothing. What he loses on the "baits" he will more than doubly make up on the other goods he sells his customers. Look out for snarers. One of our greatest statesmen 40 years ago truthfully said: "You can fool some of the people all of the time, and all of the people some of the time, but you can't fool all of the people all of the time."

James W. Smith's immense stock of goods will speak for him. Call and examine the largest stock of goods ever shown in Gilliam county. His stores are loaded from floor to ceiling, and as regards prices he will endeavor to keep in the "procession."

Many of the lines are bought direct from the East in large quantities for cash, which enables him to give his customers great inducements to favor him with their patronage.

He sells the Oliver Chilled plows and extras, including the New Departure two and three gangs, also the John Deere plows of all kinds, the Studebaker, Bain and Racine wagons, hacks and buggies, the Standard, Acme and McCormack mowers, reapers and hay rakes, the latest improved Pitts threshing machinery, the up-to-date old reliable Hodge steel-frame headers, Holt Bros. Combined Harvesters, Etc., Etc.

Camp and sheepmen's supplies a specialty. Highest prices paid for hides, pelts, etc.

When in Arlington call and get prices before closing deals elsewhere.
