

THE CONDON GLOBE.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 15, 1897.

THE OFFICIAL PAPER OF GILLIAM COUNTY, OREGON.

ONE THING AND ANOTHER.

A boll in the pot is worth 2 on the neck. Kissing is unhealthy—if her father catches you at it.

Some women travel on their shape; so does the snake.

Even the quietest woman can make a bustle if she wants to.

Man proposes, woman imposes, and the divorce court exposes.

After man came woman—and she has been after him ever since.

Time and tide wait for no man—but it is different with a woman.

A bridle for a woman's tongue is a necessary part of her harness.

The most curious thing in the world is a woman who is not curious.

Flatter a woman and she will love you. Pity her and she will hate you.

Love may be blind, but the neighbors generally have their eyes open.

Women kiss each other merely to keep in practice. They don't mean it.

A woman's age doesn't matter so much as how long she has been that age.

Time cannot heal a woman's grief—if the grief happens to be a wrinkle.

Women had larger waists in ancient times—but the men had longer arms.

Some handsome women are in reality not as handsome as they are painted.

Woman's inhumanity to man makes countless thousands die old bachelors.

A girl may forgive a man for kissing her, but never for apologizing afterward.

No girl is too good to be hugged. The bible tells us to hold fast to a good thing.

An echo is the only thing that can flummox a woman out of the last word.

One can never judge the length of a woman's tongue by the size of her mouth.

Six women can talk at once and get along all right—but no two men can do it.

As a rule the men who have been driven crazy by love did not have very far to go.

Man's inhumanity to man is only exceeded by woman's inhumanity to woman.

A woman is a great deal better than her neighbor, and she always knows it too.

The hardest thing for a woman to decide is when to commence her thirtieth year.

Ever originated the serpentine dance when she waltzed out of the garden of Eden.

Love laughs at locksmiths, but it reserves its sweetest smiles for the goldsmith.

Some women can see nothing attractive in this world without the aid of a mirror.

When a girl reaches the age of twenty-five, she loses all desire for birthday parties.

Somehow the author of a love story never sees the warts on the face of his heroine.

It is easy enough for a woman to make up with a rival—if the rival is the houseiest.

The woman with a baby and the woman without a baby are always sorry for each other.

To a woman there is nothing so uninteresting as a man in love—with some other woman.

Almost every woman would like to know what some other woman has got to be proud of.

Eye is the only woman on record who never turned round to see what the other woman had on.

This is a tough world for women at best. They must either marry or become old maids.

It is a difficult matter to persuade a handsome woman to engage in the woman's rights business.

A woman's glory may be in her hair, but it is a good plan to keep it tied up when she is cooking.

A woman always wants to be sure of the last word. That's why she looks at the end of a novel first.

When a woman has a secret, nothing makes her so mad as the discovery that no one wants to know it.

The wisdom of a woman who is vain of her beauty is equal to that of a man who is vain of his brains.

You can tell the exact age of a tree by its rings; but this rule doesn't apply in the case of a society lady.

It's a wise woman that knows how to avoid lending her copper-bottomed preserve kettle to her neighbor.

If one half of the world doesn't know how the other half live, it isn't the fault of the female sewing societies.

The women who stray from the paths of rectitude are always young and beautiful—so the newspapers tell us.

A woman can pass a display window of a milliner's shop without stopping—if she is running to stop a train.

If mother Eve had known as much as some of her daughters, what a fool she would have made of that snake.

A man laughs when he is amused; a woman laughs when she thinks other people think she ought to laugh.

About all some women do when they clean house is to change the beds from one side of the room to the other.

A woman always appreciates a rising young man—in a street-car; but she is usually too modest to mention it.

A girl is never considered a good singer until she has caused a concert to be postponed because she had a cold.

You will always get a truthful answer if you ask a woman her age, and she tells you it is none of your business.

Trying to quell a woman's wrath, is like sitting down on a bunch of lighted fire-crackers to prevent their going off.

Eve was invited to an apple gathering and discovered she had nothing to wear. It has been the same with her sex ever since.

It was an all wise Providence that created woman after everything else had been finished; otherwise she would have wanted to boss the job.

A woman can go to church and afterward tell you what every other woman in the congregation had on—and sometimes she can even remember what the text was.

Do you want true or false

Schilling's Best is the true.

Your grocer pays your money back if you don't like it.

Good Advice. Don't let whisky get the best of you, but if you want the best of whisky, wines, beer, liquors and cigars, the place to find them is at the Summit Saloon, in the old drug store building.

To The Public. I have taken charge of the old Dodson livery stables in Arlington and hope my friends from everywhere will remember me when they come to town.

Lord & Co. have just received a carload of high-wheel, wide-tire wagons. Parties wishing that kind of a wagon would do well to see them before purchasing elsewhere.

FOR SALE CHEAP—a 12-foot header, in good order. Call at my home or address E. O. Tobey, Olex, Or.

The Cunningham buxks, 700 in number, arrived at Fossil recently and are offered for sale at the Steiwer place, one mile from Fossil. Come early and get a good selection. Smythe & Cox.

Go to Al Henshaw for a fine air-tight stove.

CONDON BLACKSMITH SHOP

G. S. CLARK, Proprietor.

GENERAL BLACKSMITHING AND WOOD WORK.

The Only First-class Blacksmith and Horseshoer in the County.

MAIN STREET, CONDON, OREGON.

JAMES W. SMITH

Desires to inform the people of Gilliam county that his business is running on full time at the old stand—Union Block, Arlington, Oregon; that the flashy, misleading newspaper advertisements and circular letters that are flooding the country have not affected his trade; but on the contrary, sales have been increasing. His many old friends and customers realize that no business man will give away something for nothing. What he loses on the "baits" he will more than doubly make up on the other goods he sells his customers. Look out for snares. One of our greatest statesmen 40 years ago truthfully said: "You can fool some of the people all of the time, and all of the people some of the time, but you can't fool all of the people all of the time."

James W. Smith's immense stock of goods will speak for him. Call and examine the largest stock of goods ever shown in Gilliam county. His stores are loaded from floor to ceiling, and as regards prices he will endeavor to keep in the "procession."

Many of the lines are bought direct from the East in large quantities for cash, which enables him to give his customers great inducements to favor him with their patronage.

He sells the Oliver Chilled plows and extras, including the New Departure two and three gangs, also the John Deere plows of all kinds, the Studebaker, Bain and Racine wagons, hacks and buggies, the Standard, Acme and McCormack mowers, reapers and hay rakes, the latest improved Pitts threshing machinery, the up-to-date old reliable Hodge steel-frame headers, Holt Bros. Combined Harvesters, Etc., Etc.

Camp and sheepmen's supplies a specialty. Highest prices paid for hides, pelts, etc.

When in Arlington call and get prices before closing deals elsewhere.
