

THE GILIAM GLOBE.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 29, 1897.

THE OFFICIAL PAPER OF GILIAM COUNTY, OREGON.

Professor Jacobsen, or as he is better known at home in The Dalles, "Jakey," the well-known piano and organ man, arrived here about the same time as Judge Bradshaw. But they didn't come together, and they don't board at the same hotel, for the judge has given Jakey the cold shoulder, and we give the judge's reason in his own words: "While attending court lately at Condon 'Jakey' invited me on Sunday to have dinner with him at a friend's house, where I found a charming nineteen-year-old attraction of the feminine gender. The dinner was all right but just as soon as the table was cleared the 'attraction' left the room. Jakey followed, then the young folks left, and lastly the old man and old woman cleared out and left me alone. I sat in no evanescent frame of mind for about half an hour, and finally made a run for the kitchen, where I found Jakey comfortably seated in an old arm chair, and the whole family chucking him under the chin, to the music of such endearing epithets as 'Nice little Jakey,' 'Dear little Jakey,' 'Funny little Jakey.' Is it any wonder I got mad and vowed I never would have anything to do with him any more?"—Prineville Journal.

Portland Welcome: The 20 members of the Press association who went to Baker City arrived there Friday noon, met a few minutes in the afternoon, had a lunch in the evening, visited Sumpter Saturday, and came home—if sober enough—Sunday. The press of the state would have been in a terrible predicament if this important business had not been attended to. The real newspaper men who had to stay at home and work should be under great obligations to the brethren who performed this onerous and very necessary duty. Out of 1000 or so newspaper men in the state, only 20 attended the association, and of course all of them got an office or two.

A recently returned Klondiker says that the length of the polar night is one hundred and forty-two days. What a heavenly place that would be in which to tell a man with a bill to call around day after tomorrow and get his money.

The joke about the hubs of the Studebaker wagons being made of soft wood (maple) is too good to keep. The fact of the matter is, they are made of hickory, put through a patent process, which is a positive guarantee against their cracking or checking.

What everybody says must be true—that they are selling everything so cheap at Lord & Co.'s store.

The Studebaker wagon is the best wagon on the market today and they are to be found in all sizes at Lord & Co.'s.

Everybody buys one of those "Blacksmith Outfits" at Lord & Co.'s because they are so reasonable.

Many people object to the steel skein on account of its cutting the box. The Studebaker people do away with that objection by putting in a chilled boxing. For sale by Lord & Co.

"Klondike"—A 500-page book, with map 18x24 in.—just out. It tells you all about Alaska and its mining laws. Subscribe at once. August Anderson, Agent, Condon, Or.

The present managers of the Butte Creek saw mill (Messrs. Hendricks & Steiwer, with T. L. Stewart foreman at the mill) are endeavoring to get out 500,000 feet of lumber this fall for the coming spring trade. They now have most all kinds of seasoned lumber for the fall trade. Their prices and quality of lumber, and good roads, are bringing them an immense trade. The mill is running at its full capacity, averaging about 15,000 feet daily.

Just arrived at Lord & Co.'s, a carload of Stoves and Heaters and "Garland Steel Ranges." Would be pleased to show them to you when in town.

There is no danger of anybody being troubled with dyspepsia, sour stomach, nightmares or ill temper who uses Fossil flour. Nothing ruins the health so quickly and surely as bad bread, and nothing creates so much harmony and cheerfulness in a family as good, light bread and biscuits, "the kind your mother baked." The only way to accomplish this is to use Fossil flour—the best and cheapest in the world.

The "Wilson Heaters" are the finest thing in the world to "spark" by; they require so little wood. Sold by Lord & Co.

FOR SALE.—I have for sale several well-improved ranches, situated in Gilliam county, Or. Parties wishing to purchase a good ranch on reasonable terms, are respectfully invited to call at the National Bank in Arlington and see me before purchasing elsewhere. F. T. Hurlburt, Arlington, Or.

Look your machines over and tell Shurtle Bros. your troubles. They will save you money on extras of all kinds.

It is so satisfactory trading at Lord & Co.'s, you can get anything you want there.

The Place Where You Get the Most Change Back.

Of course when you are buying harness and saddles you want the best. I keep in stock only the very best material, and while maintaining my reputation in this respect, I go to the other extreme in keeping prices down to the lowest point. I know that nothing builds up business like the selling of first-class goods. I sell them, and don't sell anything else. When you need anything in my line, give me a call, and like the fable of the cat, "you'll come back again." T. L. PORTWOOD, Condon.

Good Advice.

Don't let whisky get the best of you, but if you want the best of whisky, wines, beer, liquors and cigars, the place to find them is at the Summit Saloon, in the old drug store building. A fine pool and billiard parlor in connection. Drop in and see for yourselves. The finest line of "wet goods" in the city.

To The Public.

I have taken charge of the old Dodson livery stables in Arlington and hope my friends from everywhere will remember me when they come to town. My rates are very moderate and the very best care is taken of stock left in my care. Give me a chance. J. F. THOMAS.

Lord & Co. have just received a carload of high-wheel, wide-tire wagons. Parties wishing that kind of a wagon would do well to see them before purchasing elsewhere.

JAMES W. SMITH

Desires to inform the people of Gilliam county that his business is running on full time at the old stand—Union Block, Arlington, Oregon; that the flashy, misleading newspaper advertisements and circular letters that are flooding the country have not affected his trade; but on the contrary, sales have been increasing. His many old friends and customers realize that no business man will give away something for nothing. What he loses on the "baits" he will more than doubly make up on the other goods he sells his customers. Look out for snares. One of our greatest statesmen 40 years ago truthfully said: "You can fool some of the people all of the time, and all of the people some of the time, but you can't fool all of the people all of the time."

James W. Smith's immense stock of goods will speak for him. Call and examine the largest stock of goods ever shown in Gilliam county. His stores are loaded from floor to ceiling, and as regards prices he will endeavor to keep in the "procession."

Many of the lines are bought direct from the East in large quantities for cash, which enables him to give his customers great inducements to favor him with their patronage.

He sells the Oliver Chilled plows and extras, including the New Departure two and three gangs, also the John Deere plows of all kinds, the Studebaker, Bain and Racine wagons, hacks and buggies, the Standard, Acme and McCormack mowers, reapers and hay rakes, the latest improved Pitts threshing machinery, the up-to-date old reliable Hodge steel-frame headers, Holt Bros. Combined Harvesters, Etc., Etc.

Camp and sheepmen's supplies a specialty. Highest prices paid for hides, pelts, etc.

When in Arlington call and get prices before closing deals elsewhere.
