

THE CONDON GLOBE.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 20, 1897.

NOTICE.

The yearly subscription to the GLOBE is $1.50. If paid in advance, it not paid in advance $2 will be charged. A pencil mark around this notice indicates that your subscription has expired. Please renew promptly.

GLOBOSITIES.

J. W. Blake and Billy Barr made a business trip to Mitchell this week.

Hugh Strickland has already found his 3 hogs that were advertised last week as lost.

Abe Moyer, four miles east of town, became the happy father of a bouncing son last Saturday, Oct. 23d.

Charley Wilson came up last week from Astoria to attend to some unfinished business here, leaving for home today.

J. H. Bowen of Fossil sold 12 large well-broke horses to a mill man near Goldendale and delivered them last week.

FOR SALE CHEAP—of will trade for 16-inch wood, a beautiful 3-year-old horse, partly broke; weight about 1100 lbs. Inquire at the GLOBE office.

We understand that Tom Portwood has concluded to sell out his stock of harness, etc., to our new harnessmaker and saddler, John Reischer.

Charley Wenner orders his GLOBE sent to North Yakima, where he has just purchased a $3000 interest in the large mercantile firm of Coffin Bros.

Mrs. H. C. Strickland, who spent the summer visiting her parents at Arberdeen, S. Dak., is expected home today. She intended to leave Arberdeen last Monday.

Tommy Dillon has received the highest price for his wool that we have heard of thus far this season, having sold 47 sacks for San Francisco parties at 13c. per pound.

Mr. Joseph Frizzell of Lost Valley was over to the county seat Monday on business. He has just returned from a trip through Crook county, looking after his cattle interests.

All of the herders have returned from the mountains, with the fattest sheep ever brought out of the mountain pastures. All of the boys had splendid luck with their sheep this year.

Otis Patterson, editor of the Heppner Gazette, visited the towns of this county this week, getting endorsements for a federal appointment for which he is a candidate. We hope he will get it.

G. L. Neale and family have moved back onto his homestead, one mile east of town, from the Downing ranch just north of town, which is now occupied by Manley Downing and his new bride.

Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Stevens left Tuesday for a month's visit with relatives and friends at Salem, where Mrs. Stevens' sister, Mrs. M. J. Churchill, resides. Frank's mother accompanied them.

Our job press has been kept humming the last week, turning out first-class job work at city prices. We have been rushed so with job work lately that we have been obliged to refuse several small orders.

The way new subscriptions and renewals are pouring into this office, proves that the public appreciates a paper that gives all the local news of the county, in preference to personal history and "hoost."

E. M. Shutt has sold the Antelope Herald and entire outfit to Attorney Ed Miller of that place, and will get an entirely new and larger outfit for his new 8-col paper, the Heppner Times, the first issue of which will appear about Nov. 15.

Mr. G. W. Rinehart left Monday for Lane county, where he has a case in circuit court—an ejectment suit. It appears that the man who resides on Mr. Rinehart's farm, near Eugene, refuses to pay rent and will not vacate, and Mr. Rinehart has resorted to the strong arm of the law to oust him.

All the members of the Cong. church here are urgently requested to be present at a business meeting at the church Sunday evening, just after the endeavor exercises. Part of the business will consist of an effort to get a minister appointed for this place, Rev. Clapp having written to that effect. A full attendance of the members is requested.

Married, Thursday evening, Oct. 21st, at the bride's home in Ferry Canyon, Mr. Manley Downing and Miss Lettie Lamberson, Justice Tatom officiating. The happy young couple begin their new lives with the best wishes of a large circle of friends. They have already begun housekeeping at the Downing ranch, one mile north of town, where the groom had everything comfortably prepared for the event.

We received a letter this week from George and Henry DeMoss, of DeMoss Springs, stating that they arrived home safely the same day they left Condon, and that their sister Lizzie has almost recovered from her gunshot wounds. They desire in this way to thank the people of Condon for the hospitable manner in which they were treated during their stay in Condon.

Mr. Daniel S. Wright and Miss Birdie Downing were married in the parlors of the Washburn hotel at Baker City on Wednesday evening of last week, Oct. 20th. The groom is a young mining man of Bourne, who recently came out from Kentucky. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. R. N. Bell in the presence of a number of friends, including the bride's mother, who left next day for her home in California. The newly-married couple will reside at Bourne for the present.

Arlington Items.

The Arlington P. O. has been moved to opposite the Grande Hotel, making it more central than before.

Nelson's gasoline wood saw has been sawing wood several days—knocking John Chinaman out of a job.

About 40 wild geese were killed by our sports last Saturday and Sunday. They report the geese very wild this fall.

J. W. Maguire has secured the contract to distribute the poles between here and Heppner for the new telephone line, to be built next month.

Mrs. Beardsley and family returned to the city the first of the week from their Alder creek ranch, where they spent most of the summer.

Rev. Barnhart's little girl has recovered from her late sickness and no other children have contracted the disease, which was a mild form of diphtheria.

Russ Stillwell sold his property here last week to G. M. Thomas, the butcher, who will make it his future home. Stillwell and his wife have gone to Mitchell.

John Cunningham has his beautiful new residence near enough completed to move in the first of the month. It is a great improvement to the south end of town.

The band boys held their annual election Friday and elected S. A. D. Gurley president; E. W. Daggott, secretary; R. H. Robinson, Joe Pound and O. S. Ebi, board of control; F. C. Hindle, leader.

Clay & Smythe are holding 10,000 head of sheep here, waiting for cars to ship them East. They are herding them on the range back of town. Stock cars are hard to get, from some cause, just now.

J. W. Smith received a carload of Kansas corn the first of the week. When wheat is 75c, corn can be shipped here and sold at a profit. Gilliam county should raise her own corn, instead of letting the money go to Kansas farmers.

The water Co. has a force of men laying new iron mains from the pump house up Main street, to take the place of the old wooden mains. Arlington has the best water service of any town in Eastern Oregon.

Our merchants are rushed with business these days. They all give their customers good value for their money and intend to make Arlington the best town in Eastern Oregon as a trading point. They do not hesitate to advertise their goods, as the public is aware of.

Marshal Carlisle hung his coat up the other evening in his bed room and a short time afterward had cause to put out quite a fire, caused by his loaded pipe setting fire to his coat. No damage was done, except burning up some of his clothes and damaging his watch, which was in his vest pocket.

Bill Baker of Blalock shipped his steam thrasher to Spokane last Monday, where he intends to run it this fall and next spring. There is grain up there that is not cut yet and the wet season will soon set in and stop threshing until spring. He says that most any of the farmers up there will pay a bonus of $100 to any one that will set their machine to work on their crop. The Ry Cos' carry machines there and back for one freight charge, to induce people to get threshers in, as they want to get the wheat to haul out.

Olex Explosions.

Don't forget the Olex ball Thanksgiving. An immense crowd is expected.

The first Eastern dry goods drummer Olex has seen for some time was here last week.

The bottom flew out of W. H. Scoggins' chopper the other day and it is now laid up until he gets his roller fixed.

Harry and Ed Clay arrived last week with a band of sheep that they purchased of Doc Brown. A few more such purchases and they will not need to go to Klondike.

Frank Brown and W. G. Flett stayed one night in Olex last week. Frank was taking back his winter supplies and W. G. thinks of selling his large herd of cattle, as he has a good offer, and the grass is not promising for winter.

The Olex mails were delayed for several days last week but the blockade was finally raised and the cause was found to exist in Mr. Wm. Hunt having a pair of boots come through from Buckingham & Hecht, San Francisco. It took a box for each boot, No. 10 1/2 E. E. E.

All ye lads and lassies in and around Olex take notice that there will be a grand ball given at Olex on Thanksgiving night. Good music has been arranged for and the boys all say they will keep sober and join in having a good old-time enjoyable dance. All come and see what you can do towards helping. In unity there is strength.

More pupils arrived Monday morning for the Olex school—the Misses Woodland, Nora Miller, Charles Stricklin and Harvey and Lester Thomas. Olex will keep hammering away until all the residents will get in union and earnestly pull for a good school. Then the mill will begin to grind and scholars that will yet rule the universe will get their "larkin" at Olex. Prof. Nott is the right man in the right place and pupils and parents are getting to know it.

YOU CAN SAVE MANY A DOLLAR BY TRADING WITH US
Don't buy until you get our prices. It will pay you.

Southern lynchings have lately added insult to injury by compelling their victims to dig their own graves.

D. C. Harmon was unable to find a house at Condon, so he sold the Riggs ranch, 200 acres, which he recently traded for, to A. Hartman, whose farm it adjoins, and he left with his family this week for the Palouse country.

A petition was circulated this week and signed by all of our taxpayers, asking the city council to bond the city in the sum of $2000, that amount to be added to the $1200 now in the city treasury, for the purpose of providing some kind of fire protection. It is thought that the most feasible plan is to blast out a cistern on the hill above town, put up a windmill and pipe the water. Something should be done, as the town ought to have some protection from fire.

The people of Condon and the entire county will be pleased to learn that John Reischer, one of the best saddlers and harnessmakers on the coast, has established a harness shop at Condon. His large stock of new goods will be here the latter part of this week, and he has secured a splendid location—the large Barr building, opposite Barker's store. Until he furnishes rooms in the rear of the building for housekeeping, he and his wife will reside with the family of Sheriff Wilcox. They will be a welcome acquisition to our town, Mrs. Reischer being one of the most accomplished ladies and musicians in the country.

Mayville Mutterings.

Shelton's new hotel is almost completed.

Max Putz started his singing school last Sunday.

They are talking of getting up a big ball here at Mayville for Thanksgiving.

Our school has started again, with Miss Maggie Wilson as teacher and 43 pupils.

A large number of fine hogs belonging to E. P. Weir were delivered at Arlington the first of the week.

Mr. Hunter had the misfortune to break his arm in two places last Sunday, by his horse falling with him.

Mrs. Townsend has moved in town to send her little boy to our school, Miss Maud Nortridge is also attending school here.

Gailey Mathews left for Gilliam county last Thursday to look after his ranch there. He will be absent about three weeks.—Engene Guard.

Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Weir of Mayville left Tuesday for Phoenix, Ariz., where they will spend the winter, in the hope of restoring Mr. Weir's health, which has not been good for some time, the result of lung troubles.

R. Pettyjohn of this county measures six feet five and three quarter inches in his stockings. He is straight as an arrow and finely proportioned and weighs 256 pounds. He has a cousin, also an Oregon boy, now living in Walla Walla, who measures seven feet and one inch and weighs 310 pounds. The cousins' family consists of six persons whose average weight is 250 pounds.—Prineville Journal.

Hon. J. E. David's Reply.

CHRY, OR., Oct. 25, '97.

EDITOR GLOBE:—I notice in your very new little paper a reference to me by a Salem paper, and you have my sincere thanks for your kind words in reply thereto.

This state might have saved the disgrace of a "legislative hold-up" if (granting his words are true, but they are not) there had been a few more members asleep in their seats, where they could have been counted to make a quorum. We might cipher from his remarks that the Sec. of State was so great that a member of the House should be denied the privilege of stating in respectful language why he believed his claim legal. Be it said to his credit that I hardly believe the secretary would consider it an offense for anyone having a claim against the state to give his reasons why he believes the claim should be admitted and allowed.

I would send you a copy of the correspondence but I never expected it to appear in print, therefore I kept no copy of any of the letters. As your paper is so full of live local news I will not ask for any more of your space at this time.

Respectfully yours,
J. E. DAVID.

My! But what a stock of goods they are getting at Lord & Co's.
