

E. M. Shutt's new paper, the Heppner Times, made its first appearance last Thursday, and is "chuckfull" of live, local news and advertising.

"Rocky Mountain" Smith, the veteran newspaper man, a former employe of the Fossil Journal, died several days ago at the home of his sister in Portland.

The city council of Heppner, at its last meeting, ordered the marshal to clear the city of "tin-horns" and stop all gambling, and to otherwise enforce the law against the sporting fraternity.

London had a $20,000,000 fire last Friday—the most disastrous fire for over 200 years for that city.

About 1,000,000 or more fine healthy turkeys yesterday were suddenly afflicted with a sort of "throat trouble" that proved fatal in every instance.

Dr. J. C. Lannerberg, the Eye Specialist of The Dalles, will be in Condon about two weeks, to remain several days.

The comptroller of the currency orders the defunct Dalles National bank to pay another dividend of 25 per cent.

Editor M. E. Miller of the Herald and Miss Stella Ashby of Antelope were married at that place last Thursday.

A Communication. Jurisdiction of judicial officers in the state of Oregon is defined and described in sections 906-913-919, Hill's Annotated Laws of Oregon.

The splendid Family Tourist Sleepers of the Great Northern are now running daily between Portland and Spokane, on the Spokane Flyer via O. R. & N.

Strayed or Stolen. From my ranch on Rock creek, three head of cattle, described as follows: One roan cow 2 years old, one roan calf, one black and spotted 2-year-old heifer.

New Butcher Shop. We have opened a meat market in Condon, in the corner building just south of the furniture store, and respectfully ask for a share of the public patronage.

The Place to Get it Fixed. If your clock, watch or jewelry needs cleaning or repairing, the best and cheapest place in Eastern Oregon to have the work done is at Bob Watkins' shop at Arlington, one door above the postoffice.

NON-ALCOHOLIC. No man who lives on meat was ever known to lick his wife, or ask for a divorce. A vegetable diet woman is as cold and clammy as a turnip.

To The Public. I have taken charge of the old Dodson livery stables in Arlington and hope my friends from everywhere will remember me when they come to town.

There is no danger of anybody being troubled with dyspepsia, sour stomach, nightmares or ill temper who uses Fossil flour. Nothing ruins the health so quickly and surely as bad bread, and nothing creates so much harmony and cheerfulness in a family as good, light bread and biscuits, "the kind your mother baked."

If you want a piano or organ, be sure to write to the Jacobsen Book and Music Co., The Dalles, Or. Catalogue free.

Good Advice. Don't let whisky get the best of you, but if you want the best of whisky, wines, beer, liquors and cigars, the place to find them is at the Summit Saloon, in the old drug store building.

The Wasco Warehouse Co. has wool sacks, fleece twine and sack twine for sale at Arlington.

JAMES W. SMITH

Why

Desires to inform the people of Gilliam county that his business is running on full time at the old stand—Union Block, Arlington, Oregon; that the flashy, misleading newspaper advertisements and circular letters that are flooding the country have not affected his trade; but on the contrary, sales have been increasing.

James W. Smith's immense stock of goods will speak for him. Call and examine the largest stock of goods ever shown in Gilliam county. His stores are loaded from floor to ceiling, and as regards prices he will endeavor to keep in the "procession."

Many of the lines are bought direct from the East in large quantities for cash, which enables him to give his customers great inducements to favor him with their patronage.

He sells the Oliver Chilled plows and extras, including the New Departure two and three gangs, also the John Deere plows of all kinds, the Studebaker, Bain and Racine wagons, hacks and buggies, the Standard, Acme and McCormack mowers, reapers and hay rakes, the latest improved Pitts thrashing machinery, the up-to-date old reliable Hodge steel-frame headers, Holt Bros. Combined Harvesters, Etc., Etc.

Camp and sheepmen's supplies a specialty. Highest prices paid for hides, pelts, etc.
