

The Globe is too busy attending to its constantly-increasing business to waste any time or space keeping up a jangle with the cut-rate Chinaman of the Journal, who frets and bothers himself more about our business, public and private, than we do ourselves.

Some Kliekitt people have gone to Oregon and gotten married within six months after getting a divorce. Like-wise have Oregon people come into this county and gotten married within six months of their decree of divorce.

"I sympathize," says Bob Ingersoll, "with the wanderer; with the vagrants out of employment; even with the sad and weary men who are seeking bread but not work. When I see one of these poor and friendless—no matter how bad he is—I think that somebody loved one; that he was once held in the arms of a mother; that he slept beneath her loving eyes and awakened in the light of her smile. I see him in the cradle listening to the lullaby song soft and low, and his little face dimpled as though touched by the rosy fingers of joy.

One of our exchanges says: "After you get angry and stop your advt, just poke your finger into a bucket of water, pull it out and look at the hole. Then you will know how sadly you are missed. A man who thinks a newspaper cannot thrive without his support ought to go away and stay for a short time. When he comes back, half his friends will not know he has gone and the other half will not care, while the world at large kept no account of his movements. You will find things you cannot endorse in every paper."

Some of the big Eastern papers are beginning to boom Hon. Binger Hermann for the presidency in 1900. The Philadelphia Times says: "Few men in the United States are better fitted for the presidency than Mr. Hermann, and he stands a good show of getting the nomination."

A Havana paper makes the cheerful suggestion that if war with America comes it should be ushered in by "a good lynching of Americans in the capital." Should the Spanish desire to encourage war let them lynch one American as a starter and after that Uncle Sam will quickly do the rest.

We have discovered an instance where the editorial "We" does not apply to newspaper men. Statistics showing that "We drank about 30,000,000 gallons less whiskey last year than usual," means the people of the United States.

Apples, if eaten in large quantities according to a German doctor, are a sure cure for the alcoholic habit. The theory is that they remove the craving, which is the main physical difficulty to contend with.

While it is slangy, it is also true, that the Nebraska youth who was jabbed nearly to death with a hapkin in the hands of his sweetheart, and who yet refuses to prosecute her, is pretty badly stuck.

We learn from a St. Louis paper that a Chicago alderman made a motion recently to prohibit the playing of "football." He was not far from right. The game is played with both feet.

A noted clergy has made the discovery that dress comes higher in France than in America. Which does the clergy mean, at the ankle or the neck?

More than 4000 devices for coupling have been patented, yet there are thousands of bachelors and maids going it alone.

When you are in Condon and feel like enjoying a fine cigar or a good cool glass of beer, drop in at the Arlington saloon, Main St., and if I am not at home, you will always find my latch-string hanging out. Respectfully, O. W. Barr.

There is no danger of anybody being troubled with dyspepsia, sour stomach, nightmares or ill temper who uses Fossil flour. Nothing ruins the health so quickly and surely as bad bread, and nothing creates so much harmony and cheerfulness in a family as good, light bread and biscuits, "the kind your mother baked." The only way to accomplish this is to use Fossil flour—the best and cheapest in the world.

Good Advice. Don't let whisky get the best of you, but if you want the best of whisky, wines, beer, liquors and cigars, the place to find them is at the Summit Saloon, in the old drug store building. A fine pool and billiard parlor in connection. Drop in and see for yourselves. The finest line of "wet goods" in the city.

JAMES W. SMITH

Desires to inform the people of Gilliam county that his business is running on full time at the old stand—Union Block, Arlington, Oregon; that the flashy, misleading newspaper advertisements and circular letters that are flooding the country have not affected his trade; but on the contrary, sales have been increasing. His many old friends and customers realize that no business man will give away something for nothing. What he loses on the "baits" he will more than doubly make up on the other goods he sells his customers. Look out for snares. One of our greatest statesmen 40 years ago truthfully said: "You can fool some of the people all of the time, and all of the people some of the time, but you can't fool all of the people all of the time."

James W. Smith's immense stock of goods will speak for him. Call and examine the largest stock of goods ever shown in Gilliam county. His stores are loaded from floor to ceiling, and as regards prices he will endeavor to keep in the "procession."

Many of the lines are bought direct from the East in large quantities for cash, which enables him to give his customers great inducements to favor him with their patronage.

He sells the Oliver Chilled plows and extras, including the New Departure two and three gangs, also the John Deere plows of all kinds, the Studebaker, Bain and Racine wagons, hacks and buggies, the Standard, Acme and McCormack mowers, reapers and hay rakes, the latest improved Pitts thrashing machinery, the up-to-date old reliable Hodge steel-frame headers, Holt Bros. Combined Harvesters, Etc., Etc.

Camp and sheepmen's supplies a specialty. Highest prices paid for hides, pelts, etc.
