

Portland is making a great show at trying to get transportation of provisions to the foolhardy Yukon miners, and her wholesale merchants have generously contributed thousands of dollars. At the same time a poor woman was permitted to starve to death within easy walking distance of the busiest part of the city. The city board of charities had been appealed to in vain. Some kind Christian ladies did, however, furnish the little children some picture books and toys, while their cries for food were unheeded. Shame on you, Portland; feed your own starving poor and then send the surplus to Klondike.—Grant County News.

State School Supt. Irwin was severely criticised by the teachers in attendance at the State Teachers' Association in Portland last Thursday. They severely denounced the reckless and wholesale issuance of state diplomas during his incumbency of office, and referred to his office as a "diploma grinding machine." Supt. Daggett and wife, of Arlington, were present, and Mr. Daggett, the Oregonian says, "made a strong plea for teachers strong in mind, morals and health. Applicants for certificates should be required to sign a certificate that they are free from certain immoralities."

A Pendleton editor has no faith in the apple cure. He says: "Somebody is writing for the papers that apples eaten just before retiring is a great help to digestion. We tried it and about 2 o'clock we dreamed that a red-fire dragon with a pea-green tail, and eyes as big as a soup plate was carving us up with a meat saw and a sword. We finally awoke to find our good wife fanning us with a bed slat and trying to get the baby out of the coal scuttle where we had put it to keep the dragon from getting it. Darn the apples; give us prunes!"

A constant reader of this paper, who formerly resided at Arlington but is now in business at North Yakima, in a private letter to us this week concludes by saying that the Globe's numerous readers in that city all agree that it is the best little country paper they ever saw for live, interesting local news. He also highly compliments the paper's able corps of correspondents, and to show his appreciation of our Arlington Cor. he says he will present him with a fine new hat if he learns his name and number.

A few days ago Mark Catching, an 18-year-old boy, carelessly shot an eye out of a railroad man named Leavitt, at Pendleton. In consequence the Pendleton city council has passed an ordinance prohibiting the use or sale of air guns in that town. Mr. Leavitt will sue the boy's father for heavy damages. Air guns are too dangerous for any boy to play with.

There is some evidence that President McKinley will be more vigorous in his dealings with Spain. The state department has made a demand for $8,000,000 from Spain as indemnity for damages to American interests in Cuba. Since the United States has not recognized the belligerency of Cuba such claims are collectible from Spain.

Within the same territory in square miles that London claims to cover, New York, in both New Jersey and New York, has about 30,000 more population than London now has, so that New York in reality is now the greatest city in the world in point of population, and is the only great city that ships can float up to.

The "warmest" place in the United States just now is at Columbus, Ohio. The legislature of that state convened there Monday, and Mark Hanna finds that the opposition forces are strong enough to just defeat him for U. S. senator by two or three votes. "And that's what's the matter with Hanna."

A goat ate up the entire funds of Ottawa county, Mich., the other day. The treasurer kept the county money in greenbacks in a little under his house and a goat got onto the combination and was only detected when he was endeavoring to masticate the kettle.

A deacon will pass around the plate and get more buttons than dimes, but a highwayman can hold out a gun and collect everything a man has. This goes to show that a man will give more to save his body than to save his soul.

John W. Backus, of Portland, recently set a good example for worthless husbands. With his life insured for $5000 he jumped from a sixth story window in order to give his family what he did not have the ability to earn for them.

Recently we have noticed that a majority of the farmers who come to town bring something to sell or exchange for merchandise. Such is always a sign of thrift, and men who do it are seldom much in debt.—Dallas Itemizer.

If you want an elephant you'll have to send in your order at once, as there are only 5000 of them left in the world, and they are going like hot cakes.

The Oregonian charges for a one-inch display advertisement for one year $202, which is a better rate than most country papers are able to get.

Deputy Stock Inspectors.

I have appointed as my deputies the following persons: W. H. Colwell, Arlington. J. B. Townsend, Condon. Fred A. Hale, Fossil.

R. M. Johnson, Lone Rock. Stock Inspector for Gilliam County, Oregon.

To The Public.

I have taken charge of the old Dodson livery stables in Arlington and hope my friends from every where will remember me when they come to town. My rates are very moderate and the very best care is taken of stock left in my care. Give me a chance. J. F. THOMAS.

Good Advice.

Don't let whisky get the best of you, but if you want the best of whisky, wines, beer, liquors and cigars, the place to find them is at the Summit Saloon, in the old drug store building. A fine pool and billiard parlor in connection. Drop in and see for yourselves. The finest line of "wet goods" in the city.

The Wasco Warehouse Co. has wool sacks, fleece twine and sack twine for sale at Arlington.

Seed Potatoes for Sale.

I have at my ranch near Clem two varieties of fine potatoes—one purple, with white around the eyes that I imported, and is called the "Centennial"; the other I originated here and have named it "The Gold Standard," because I don't think it will depreciate in value as a wholesome food. Both kinds are snow-white inside and of a most delicious flavor. They are easily grown without cultivation, and the yield is very large. They grow to enormous size, many of them 5 and 6 pounds apiece. I can spare a few of these potatoes for seed at 2c per 100-lb. lot, or 2c for smaller lots, at my ranch. Those wanting any of them must order soon as the supply is limited. Z. T. DOBSON.
