

THE CONDON GLOBE.

FRIDAY, JANUARY 21, 1898.

NOTICE.

The yearly subscription to the Globe is $1.50, if paid in advance. If not paid in advance $2 will be charged. A pencil mark around this notice indicates that your subscription has expired. Please renew promptly.

GLOBOSITIES.

A fine little daughter was born to the wife of Prof. J. A. McMorris at Condon on Tuesday, Jan. 18th.

County warrants taken on subscription at face value at this office. We will pay you the difference in cash.

W. J. Russell was pretty badly bruised up Thursday evening by his wagon upsetting on him while driving on Thirty-mile.

We learn from the Heppner Times that Mrs. U. S. Drake of Lexington, formerly of Condon, was taken to the hospital at Portland last week for medical treatment.

Sheriff Driver of The Dalles and his deputy, Mr. Kelly, will start early in the spring for Klondike, they having been grub-staked by C. W. Haight of The Dalles.

Henry H. Hughes of Lost Valley was over to town Saturday subscribing for this great weekly paper. He recently sold several hundred head of lambs to John Leslie at $2 a head.

"Uncle Jack" Caven of Pine creek came over to town Saturday with a load of his fine apples, which for size and flavor cannot be beaten anywhere. He sold them at 3c a pound.

The Globe editor is agent for all newspapers and magazines printed in the United States. Remember this when you desire to subscribe for any paper. No danger of losing your money in this manner.

The Globe has the ablest corps of correspondents of any country paper in the state. By their untiring efforts our readers are favored each week with all of the local news from every nook and corner of the county.

Typographical errors are sure to occur in any paper, but the following from a Dalles paper takes the cake: "Friday license was issued by Clerk Kealey authorizing A. H. Cummings and Laura L. Wickam to be joined in padlock."

Henry Doores renewed his subscription this week from Martindale, Montana, where he and his wife (formerly Miss Carrie Renner) reside and are getting along well. Henry says it is colder than "all git out" up there just now.

H. L. Propet, one of our most energetic and thrifty young farmers, recently purchased 160 acres of land, adjoining his ranch on Matney Flat, from G. G. Parman for $800. Howard now has half a section of choice farm land and one of the cosiest little houses in Eastern Oregon.

Among the thousands of people who sailed from Portland for Alaska within the last week, we notice the names of J. H. Miller and his daughter, Miss Lulu Miller, of Medford, who sailed on the Elder last Friday. J. H. Strickland, his cousin, of Looking Glass, Douglas county, left for the gold fields also at the same time.

Rev. F. L. Johns of Fossil requests us to announce that the second quarterly conference of Fossil circuit will be held at Condon on Saturday evening of this week (22d inst.) at 7 p. m., which will be followed by preaching services. He will also preach here the next day, both morning and evening. All are cordially invited to attend.

The New Year's edition of the Times-Mountaineer, of 60 pages, just received, is one of the best and neatest of the kind we have ever seen. It is full of interesting description matter of Wasco and Sherman counties and is profusely illustrated with the pictures of the leading business men of both counties and their business and dwelling houses.

A woman preacher in a church at Milton last week, during the delivery of a strong sermon on purity, suddenly drew back the hymn book and said she would hit the man that was untrue to his wife, and every man in the church dodged. Was this a confession of guilt? Certainly not. Those men were perfectly aware of the reckless uncertainty with which a woman throws a rock.—Milton Eagle.

They have introduced hugging societies in Idaho to swell church treasuries, with the following scale of prices: Girls under sixteen, 12 cents for a hug of two minutes, or 10 cents for a short squeeze; from sixteen to twenty years, 50 cents; school narms, 40 cents; another man's wife, $1; widows, according to looks, from 9 cents to $3; old maids 3 cents a piece or two for 5 cents, and no limit. Preachers are not charged. Editors pay in advertising, but are not allowed to participate till everybody else is through.

The church basket social will be given in the Armory hall at Condon on Saturday evening, Jan. 29th, and promises to be a most enjoyable affair. A short but interesting program will be rendered and then the good things will have to suffer. Coffee will also be served, at 5 cts. a cup. It has not yet been decided whether the baskets will be sold at auction, to the highest bidder, or all at the same price. Everybody from all over the neighborhood who are interested in this good work, are expected to bring a basket of good things to eat, enough for two, and thus help a worthy cause.

OLEX EXPLOSIONS.

Mrs Wm Snell is quite sick, we regret to note.

Mrs Randall is home again from Arlington.

Lee Paul added his name to the Globe list this week.

L O Raleton was doing business in Portland this week.

Mr and Mrs Thos. G Johnson were guests at Olex last week.

G W Marvel contributed a quarter of beef to the preacher last week.

J O McKinney and family returned last Monday from a visit at Walla Walla.

Quite a number of Gilliam countyites will start for the Klondike in the spring.

Harry Stricklin will enter our school next Monday, having finished his term of school near Condon.

While Mr Reis was at the dance last week one of his best cows slid down the hill and broke her neck.

We are glad to see that the county printing has been awarded to the Globe, which is read by everybody in the county. It is throwing away money to advertise in a paper having little or no circulation.

The dance at Olex on 14th inst. was a grand success. Olex has regained her lost prestige of giving good dances and there will be another given here on Feb. 14th for the benefit of our school district. All the residents should help this time, for the money is for a worthy cause.

Jeff Hayes says he would like to see the coyote bounty continued and that he would contribute liberally. This is only an expression of many sheepmen in this vicinity. It looks like the Sheepmen's Union would pay up arrears and continue the bounty, for unless the coyotes are exterminated they will soon be as thick as ever and the money all lost. One sheepman in Lake county says he lost $3000 worth of sheep by coyotes last year.

The mail contract from Arlington to Fossil has been bid in for $1717, and that includes Sunday delivery—one more day than in the past. Mr Reed, the contractor, informs us that he put in a bid for $3000 and says it cannot be carried any cheaper. It looks like Mr Gardner of Arkansas would have to fill his own contract, as it will be hard to sublet it. People at the different stations ought not to cut down on expense of feed and care of stage stock to starvation prices, as they have had to do in the past in order for the contractor to live.

Stock Inspector Johnson went down to the Condon country Monday to dip some scabby sheep.

Jim Bennett is crippled with the rheumatism, which causes him to travel sideways like a raccoon.

Mrs Goff has been seriously ill the past week but we are pleased to note that she is better at this writing.

The weather this past week has taken quite a caper. First it blew and "snow," and then it froze and then it "thaw."

Everybody seems delighted because the winter months are fast drifting away without any serious storms up to this time.

Although this warm, open winter is excellent for cattle and horses, it is not very good for sheep, as they are inclined to want to travel all the time and consequently the weak ones have to be culled out and put in separate bands.

Notices are posted for a special school meeting in this district to vote a small school tax. This will of course start the calamity howlers, who are always ready to use their small influence to defeat everything that is intended to educate and better the rising generation of our land. Most every community has more of this class than they desire.

Wildcats seem to have immigrated from some other locality to this in considerable numbers lately, and they seem to have been using some tonic to increase their appetite for chicken, as they crave for them like a nigger. One killed something over 25 chickens in one night for John M Brown, but he managed to get the scalp of the brute, after a hard "hand to paw" tussel in the dark. One of these same animals killed one of Colwell's tame wild geese that Billy caught on the Columbia when young and were quite a curiosity.

R. L. Sabin, secretary of the Merchants' Protective Union, has sued Edward W. Copner and D. A. Vance, doing business as the Sumpster Mercantile Company, to recover $2460.40. The papers in the action were filed in Baker county, where the defendants have been engaged in business. Their stock valued at $10,000, is now in the hands of the Baker county sheriff. In response to instructions received, Sheriff Frazier attached lot 6, block 8, Gates addition, a suburb of Portland. Neustadter Bros. have also filed a suit against the Sumpster Mercantile company to recover $1835.—Oregonian.

Subscribe for the Examiner at the Globe office and try your luck on winning one of the many big prizes this year. The capital prize is a $10,000 house and lot in San Francisco; 2d prize, $5,500 worth of government bonds; 3d prize, a $1500 gold nugget, and hundreds of other big prizes. Now is the time to subscribe. Subscription price, $1.50 a year. Every subscriber is presented with a fine large picture worth at least 50c.

ARLINGTON GEMS.

Dr Moorhouse of Olex, the dentist, is talking of locating at Arlington.

Richard T Cox, receiver of the defunct bank here, made a business trip out to Gilliam's capital Friday.

J W Smith has had a large canvas sign painted and stretched across the street in front of his store, some 25 feet above the street.

The fellow, Conrad, who shot himself accidentally last week, is able to be out on the street again, and from all appearances will be well in a short time.

D B Thomas has a crew of men at work grading his lots around his house, which he intends to sow in grass. It will make his lawn one of the finest in town.

Joseph Frizzell brought in two carloads of fine beef cattle from the John Day country last week, for the Union Meat Co. Cows brought 2½c and steers 3c, delivered here at Arlington.

Miss Etta Lord of Chillicothe, Ohio, is visiting the family of her uncle, Mr. W. Lord, of The Dalles, she having met Mr. and Mrs. Lord in California and accompanied them home. She is a sister of Charley Lord, our merchant.

Our fire bell was sounded Friday for the first time from the new city hall, where it was placed not long ago. M J Canty's residence caught fire from a defective flue. The boys were ready for business in a jiffy but their presence was not needed, as the fire was put out before they arrived.

R R Hankins picked up a band of 18 bucks last week belonging to Robert Barfoot and turned them over to stock inspector Colwell, who pronounced them scabby. Colwell went at once and inspected all of Barfoot's sheep, thinking they surely were scabby also, but he found them sound. Bob had taken the bucks out of his band of sheep nearly two months ago.

The annual election of officers by the stockholders of the Arlington National bank was held Tuesday. D. M. French, W. Lord, W. W. Steiwer, L. C. Edwards and A. C. Hawson were elected directors. D. M. French was appointed president, W. W. Steiwer vice-president and F. T. Hurlburt cashier. The only change made was W. Lord taking the place of E. B. McFarland as director.

Henry Heppner, the founder of the prosperous county seat of Morrow county, went to The Dalles Friday night and took the boat for Portland next morning. Mr. Heppner is contemplating making a trip to Klondike in the spring, and concluded to take a voyage on the Columbia in order to get used to traveling on the water and thus ward off dangers from seasickness on his journey north. The other former Arlingtonites who have already gone to Alaska are Joe Thomas, Harve Condon, Chas Bressler, Dr Easton, Al Vaughn, W E Sproat, M V Harrison and Joe Keeney.

Hon A H Weatherford, who last summer bought the old Douglas ranch at Douglas, was in town a few days ago. Mr. Weatherford is a very agreeable gentleman and has many friends where he is known. He has been honored in both the state of Oregon and Washington. Just before the division of Wasco county, in 1885, Mr. Weatherford was chosen as one of the commissioners of the old county, and upon the creation of Gilliam county was tendered the judgeship of this county, but refused this as he desired to serve out his term of commissioner, and thereupon was appointed by Gov. Moody as the short term man. Upon completing his term he moved to Columbia county, Wash. When Hon. John B. Allen was elected senator Mr. Weatherford was one of the few democratic representatives in the legislature, having been elected from Columbia county. He afterwards served his county two terms as sheriff. He has in 1,200 acres of wheat, up near the home ranch, and hopes for a splendid crop next season.

FOSSIL FLASHES.

The health of the community is good. Weather mild, with warm rain showers.

Drummer Garrett of Wadhams & Co., Portland, is in town.

The Fossil mill will shut down soon for the season, with about 1000 barrels of flour on hand.

Sam Grant is up agrin, since his severe sickness; also Mrs Clark Herndon, who was very low with pneumonia.

Jos Frizzell is just back from Arlington, where he had been delivering a band of beef cattle for the Gilman-French Co.

The Arlington stage is making pretty good time now, considering the bad condition of the roads between Mayville and Fossil.

Fred A Hale was over from Pine creek Saturday after supplies and was compelled to bring a pack horse, as the roads are almost impassable for vehicles.

Geo Rose and several others from this section talk of leaving for Alaska soon. We hope all of them will find enough gold to make them bow-legged packing it around.

N B Hastain, the popular liveryman, has just returned from Mitchell, where he went Sunday with a couple of drummers, and says he enjoyed the trip immensely.

Jay Saltzman, the prosperous young cattleman of Burnt Ranch, Crook county, is spending the week in town. Jay says he means business this time sure. The girl hopes so.

MAYVILLE MUTTERINGS.

There will be a mask ball here on St. Valentine night, Feb. 14th.

Judge Mattingly expects to build a residence and carpenter shop here in the spring.

Miss Belle Floyd, accompanied by Miss Alice Keys, returned to The Dalles Wednesday.

Miss Anna Goodman, niece of Mrs A J Shelton, will leave for Walla Walla Friday to visit her brother.

E P Weir will put up a large merchandise store here early in the spring. Watch Mayville grow!

Walter Weir returned from Scio last Saturday, where he had gone to spend the holidays with old friends.

J P Barnett returned Monday from Jordan, accompanied by his brother, where he had been visiting relatives.

A Sunday school was organized here last Sunday with Faank Simmons as superintendent and Edward Morgan as assistant.

Rev Grant closed his meetings here Sunday. On account of throat trouble he was not able to continue the meeting this week as was his intention.

The Grangers will celebrate the anniversary of the organization of their grange here on the 29th of this month by a basket dinner and literary entertainment.

The I O O F installed their officers here the other night. A number of brethren from Condon and Fossil were present, and after installation the brothers, wives and best girls retired to the Shelton hotel and partook of a fine turkey supper, after which the Orientals met and conferred the degree on several candidates.

There is no danger of anybody being troubled with dyspepsia, sour stomach, nightmares or ill temper who uses Fossil flour. Nothing ruins the health so quickly and surely as bad bread, and nothing creates so much harmony and cheerfulness in a family as good, light bread and biscuits, "the kind your mother baked." The only way to accomplish this is to use Fossil flour—the best and cheapest in the world.

New Butcher Shop. I have opened a meat market in Condon, in the corner building just south of the furniture store, and respectfully ask for a share of the public patronage.
