

The Heppner papers—Gazette and Times, have just ended a lively contest before the Morrow county court for official honors, which has finally been decided in favor of the Gazette, whose sworn list of subscribers in the county was a little the largest.

The populists of the state are having a "hot time" over their leaders, Young and U'Ren. These men are accused by numerous republican papers of having sold out to Simon, Bourne, et al, down at Salem last winter, and now correspondence pertaining to that subject and giving the whole thing away, has been brought to light and proves that what these papers had to say was correct.

The Globe cannot afford to descend from its high standard of journalism to jangle with scrub soreheads—whether jealous contemporaries or individuals. Our readers prefer the live, local county news in preference to such slum rot, and that is why our list contains the names of all the best element of people in the county.

There is nothing sure but death and taxes, and even death may be a little uncertain, as is illustrated by the case of an Idaho stockraiser, who lived about 100 miles from Stoshone, the nearest place where he could get a coffin.

Pendleton Herald: About every so often an escaped lunatic gets together enough cash to start a republican paper in opposition to the Portland Oregonian, and for three months imagines he has the Oregonian groggy.

Five Serial Stories.

Five strong serial stories are announced for publication in THE YOUTH'S COMPANION during 1898. They are: "The Freshman," a romance of college life, by Jesse L. Williams; "The Gold-Fields of the Yukon," a story of placer-mining in Alaska, by Irving Andrews; "Frieda Fairfax, Writer," the story of a girl who wanted to do newspaper work, by Marguerite Tracy; "The Story of a Bee Farm," by Edith A. Fairfield; and "The Making of Zimri Bonker," a rousing tale of heroic deeds in Nantucket during the War of 1812, by William J. Long.

New Butcher Shop.

I have opened a meat market in Condon, in the corner building just south of the furniture store, and respectfully ask for a share of the public patronage. I am an old experienced butcher and know how to treat you right.

NON-ALCOHOLIC.

If you want your girl to have rosy cheeks and vitality in her motion, feed her on beef steak with occasional doses of Dr. Hawson's Tonic Bitters. Sold everywhere.

Good Advice.

Don't let whisky get the best of you, but if you want the best of whisky, wine, beer, liquors and cigars, the place to find them is at the Summit Saloon, in the old drug store building.

Seed Potatoes for Sale.

I have at my ranch near Clem two varieties of fine potatoes—one purple, with white around the eyes that I imported, and is called the "Centennial"; the other I originated here and have named it "The Gold Standard," because I don't think it will depreciate in value as a wholesome food.
