THE OFFICIAL PAPER OF GILLIAM COUNTY, OREGON.

Devil Appears In Church.

They are afraid of the devil in Indiana. A special from Borbon, Indiana, says: Rev. Akin, pastor of the flock of Bethleham church, on Sunday night took for his theme "His Satanic Majesty." He painted the arch fiend in vivid colors. At the climax of the description a being, dressed to present a devil, with large head and switching tail ambled up the aisle, blowing smoke from its nostrils and bellowing: "I am the devil and want all of you."

The audience became panic stricken. Men, women and children were hurled to the floor and trampled upon in the mad rush for the door. In the confusion the stove was upset and the building caught fire. Before the horrified members had regained their senses the fire had made such headway that all attempts to save the church were in vain. Next morning Geo. Akin, son of the pastor, confessed that he, in company with other boys, rigged up a devil suit and, knowing the subject of his father's sermon, concealed himself behind a chair and awaited the arrival of the audience.

W. B. Ewing was given a preliminary hearing before Judge Richardson at Heppner Wednesday. G. W. Rea and Judge A. S. Bennett appeared for the State and S. A. D. Gurley of Arlington and Geo. C. Brownell of Oregon City for the defense. After the examination of several witnesses, which took up the most of the day, Judge Richardson bound Ewing over to the grand jury in the sum of $2500. As yet Ewing has been unable to secure bondsmen and will have to accept quarters in the county jail until his case is disposed of before the circuit court.

C. D. Sennett of Rock creek, the well-known auctioneer, was in town Saturday on business. Mr. Sennett is preparing to go to Alaska in April to prospect for gold at the headwaters of Copper river. He is an old-time miner, having spent nearly 20 years of his life mining in Idaho and Montana, and is "onto the ropes" thoroughly. He is chuck-full of energy and will make a strike up there where many a younger man would starve to death.

Within the last few years a great many persons have gone away from Gilliam county in search of a more desirable home, but at least nine-tenths of them have come back without finding what they considered an improvement on this region. The fact is that Gilliam county ranks among the best portions of the earth and is not excelled by any other. If one cannot make a living here, there is a poor show for him anywhere else.

We used to think Uncle Sam was a strapping big fellow but a recent estimate places the population of this territory away down at the tail of the list with only 4 per cent of the total population of the world. But then we are growing. An Alabama woman gave birth to four boys the other day and they are stout, healthy fellows to.

Dr. T. W. Harris returned from Portland last night. He reports that Mrs. D. H. Gager rallied from the effects of the surgical operation and is out of immediate danger, but owing to the nature of her disease can live only a few months at longest. It is thought that she will recover sufficiently to be able to return to Eugene in a few days.—Register.

La Grande Chronicle: Hugh Medlock, indicted on the charge of larceny by bailee, has entered a plea of guilty, in the circuit court in session at Union. Medlock it the man who stole a team from J. E. Carroll at North Powder and a horse from Liveryman Bowker.

A Kellogg (Douglas county) Cor. to the Roseburg Review says: Farmers who live in the Kellogg voting precinct are saving all their stale eggs, and some of our present officers will get more of them than they will votes about election time.

A Valley exchange makes mention of a silver medal contest in which the second prize was awarded to Miss Catt. There are nightly contests held in this town where participants of the same name take the cake, except the name is spelled with one t.

In Wasco county I. D. Driver has announced himself as a condidate for the nomination of sheriff on the free silver ticket. His brother T. J. Driver is a candidate on the republican ticket.

Otis Patterson of the Heppner Gazette departed last week for Indiana, where he will visit his parents for a few weeks. He will probably visit Washington City, also before returning.

"I saw a big, two-fisted fellow this morning who was looking for trouble." "How was that?" "He had a girl on his arm and was asking the way to the marriage-license office."

The president has appointed Chas. H. Wilkins, of Pendleton, agent at the Umatilla reservation. Mr. Wilkins was an aspirant for the Pendleton postoffice, but failed to get it.

Grass Valley Journal: It is rumored that "graybacks" have become a medium of exchange in our town and that they've got 'em in the public school.

The Milton Eagle grows funny and says: "Say! Juneau Yokon dig gold in Alaska even if it is cold enough to Chillacat? Dyea see?"

Farmers' Institutes.

Professor H. T. French, of the Oregon Agricultural College, and Industrial Agent Judson, of the O. R. & N. Co., have arranged for a series of Farmers' Institutes to be held in Eastern Oregon, the first of which will open at La Grande Feb. 21st. The third institute is to be held in Arlington, commencing Feb. 28 and ending March 1. The general program contains addresses by the following well-known speakers on the following subjects:

Hon. John L. Gibbs—Cooperative creameries and their benefits. Feeding and care of dairy cattle.

General James H. Baker—Diversified farming.

Professor H. T. French—Grapes and forage plants.

George Hobbs—Horticulture.

George W. Shaw—Sugar beets.

B. S. Payne—Climatic influences in farming.

Miss Hobbs—Recitation.

F. F. Pernot—Illustrated lecture on stock.

Dr. James Withycombe—Diseases of stock.

George Goodhue—Chickens from a money-making point of view.

D. R. McGinnis—What am I here for.

All of the Gilliam county farmers who can possibly go should attend, as this institute will be highly instructive and beneficial to not only farmers, but to everybody.

Josh Billings once said in his quaint way: "We shall never have an honest horse race until we have an honest human race." And it is equally true that we shall never have honest politics until honest men become the politicians and control political affairs.—Headlight.

Seed Potatoes for Sale.

I have at my ranch near Clem two varieties of fine potatoes—one purple, with white around the eyes that I imported, and is called the "Centennial;" the other I originated here and have named it "The Gold Standard," because I don't think it will depreciate in value as a wholesome food. Both kinds are snow-white inside and of a most delicious flavor. They are easily grown without cultivation, and the yield is very large. They grow to enormous size, many of them 5 and 6 pounds apiece. I can spare a few of these potatoes for seed at 2c per 100-lb lots, or 2½c for smaller lots, at my ranch. Those wanting any of them must order soon, as the supply is limited.
