THE OFFICIAL PAPER OF GILLIAM COUNTY, OREGON.

VALEDICTORY.

A deal that has been on for several months was brought to a close this week, whereby the Globe plant and property with this issue passes into the hands of a new proprietor—Mr. S. A. Pattison, for the last four years publisher of the Emmett (Idaho) Index. This change has been made necessary by the condition of my health, which makes it absolutely necessary to retire from indoor business for perhaps a couple of years.

All subscriptions paid in advance will be sent for the time paid for, also the several advertisements that are paid in advance have been properly credited, so that there is no danger of having to pay for them a second time. All delinquent subscriptions are payable to the new proprietor; but all local advertising accounts up to March 1st are payable to the undersigned.

It lacks but two issues of being seven years since the Globe's birth, and we are pleased to say that since its first issue the paper has been a financial success, and today has a larger subscription list and is enjoying a healthier business than ever before. The paper may have made some mistakes. All men do, and because a man publishes a paper is no reason why he should be proof against making mistakes. Judging from the healthy patronage the paper has always enjoyed we believe it has fulfilled its mission as a live, progressive local newspaper.

I desire to sincerely thank the Globe's array of patrons for their good will and liberal and continued patronage, and also its faithful correspondents, who have so ably and splendidly represented their respective localities. Hoping the new proprietor will be favored with the same liberal patronage, and with best wishes for all of its readers, patrons and all, I must say farewell.

S. P. SHUTT.

GREETING.

It has been the custom, from time immemorial, for the editor, upon assuming his duties as pencil pusher and scissors manipulator, in a new community, to give forth to an expectant public a column or two of his opinions and beliefs on questions of public import, coupled with a lengthy dissertation on the future policy of his paper. Having no reason for desiring to inflict any such punishment on the readers of the Globe, whose future friendship and support we most sincerely desire to merit, we will mercifully desist from any such proceeding, and make our first article for the Globe brief if not witty.

We cast our lot with the people of Condon and Gilliam county after due consideration. We have faith in the boundless resources of Gilliam's hills and vales, and faith in the large hearted, generous, progressive class of people who make up her citizens. We are not here to instruct our readers on the proper manner in which to manage the affairs of the state of Oregon, the county of Gilliam or the town of Condon, but to assist to the best of our ability in conserving the best interests of all.

The Globe will be conducted as a non-partisan, non-sectarian local newspaper, and as a business proposition, from the proceeds of which the publisher and his family expect to derive their support. Thanking the many kind citizens of Condon, to whom we are already indebted for numerous courtesies and favors, and trusting that we will in the future merit their continued good will and support, Most respectfully,

S. A. PATTISON.

The blowing up of the Maine in Havana harbor, while it may yet be proven to have been an accident resulting from carelessness, has served to arouse a bitter hatred for Spain in most Americans, and it is going to be a difficult matter for the government to longer quell the belligerent spirit. From all sections of the country come the news that men are willing to buckle on the armor and go to war with Spain on the slightest provocation. The administration too is pursuing a rather more vigorous policy toward Spain than at any time in the past, and is getting ready for any emergency that may arise. Fortifications all along the Atlantic coast are being repaired, and the navy is being put in readiness for action, so that if the destruction of the Maine shall prove to have been due to Spanish treachery the injury can be avenged. At present everything points to an active preparation for war with Spain, and should it come there will be few regrets.—Times-Mountain.

Administrator's Sale of Sheep.

County Court of Gilliam County, I will sell the 1499 head of stock sheep belonging to the estate of John Morman, deceased, and all the other personal property belonging to the said estate, consisting of three pack horses, two pack outfits, one tent, blankets and such other articles as might be expected and needed about a sheep camp. These sheep are in good condition, and consist of about 200 extra good ewes, and their entire increase in lambs (now yearlings) for last year. The sale will take place at A. A. Carother's ranch on Rock creek in Gilliam county, Oregon, (five miles below Olex) on Saturday, February 26, 1898, at 1 o'clock P. M. The sale will be by public auction, and the terms of the sale for cash in hand.

A GOOD APPEARANCE

It is an undeniable fact that a well-made stylish suit of clothes will invariably produce a favorable impression upon the beholder; but the outrageously high prices of the average merchant tailor have heretofore proven a barrier.

The time has, however, arrived when the people appreciating good clothes can obtain them at prices within reach of all.

The International Tailoring Co., of Chicago has proven that stylish garments do not necessarily mean expensive garments.
