NOTICE.

The yearly subscription to the Gloucester is $1.50, if paid in advance. If not paid in advance $2 will be charged. A pencil mark around this notice indicates that your subscription has expired. Please renew promptly.

GLOBOSITIES.

County court is in session this week. Republican central committee met Wednesday.

S. P. Shutt will pay you face value for County warrants.

Mrs. El McKinnon is a guest of Mrs. Maddock this week.

Chas. Fix expects to have his bowling alley completed by April 1st.

S. P. Shutt visited Arlington and Heppner the first of the week.

Gene Labors will herd sheep for C. M. White until about June 1st.

O. W. Barr has a new display ad in this issue. Call and ask him about it.

Mrs. J. M. Brown has been on the sick list for the past few days with a severe cold.

J. K. Fitzwater was in from his ranch last week spending a few days with his family.

J. A. McMorris went out to his ranch Saturday evening to commence his spring farming.

March came in like a lamb, this year. Let us hope that it will go out like a turtle dove.

John Anderson, the well-known foot racer of Mayville, was in town Sunday.

Joe Wilson informs us that his sheep will commence lambing about the 20th of this month.

Chas. Johnson came near drowning a few nights ago. For particulars ask any of the boys about it.

Barr Bros., Barronage and E. Bane commenced fencing in their homestead in Ferry Canyon this week.

Jon. Portwood has returned to town for a few days' lay-off, after which he will again chase the "woolies."

J. P. and A. Griner, of Mayville, called Wednesday and had their names added to the Gloucester's roll of honor.

Many of the young ladies about town are rustling around gathering up old horsehooves for ornamental purposes.

Earhart & Moore have taken advertising space in the Gloucester, and if you will call and investigate you will find it is every word true.

Dave Russell was in town the first of the week and loaded down a pack horse with provisions and other necessary articles of sustenance.

Mark Conroy has quit driving stage on the Fossil-Arlington route, and Mr. Reed, one of the proprietors, is handling the ribbons for the present.

Mrs. J. H. Hudson left Saturday morning for an extended visit at her old home in Toronto, Canada. The doctor accompanied her as far as Arlington.

Preaching next Sunday, morning and evening, by the pastor, W. H. Barr. Every body will receive a cordial welcome and kind treatment. All are invited.

Billy Farrar and Maley Bros. have sold to J. W. Blake 60 head of one, two and three-year-old cattle, the price paid being $20, $25 and $30.

Charley Habesohn went to Arlington Thursday to meet his brother-in-law, Frank Kargl, and family, of Valentine, Nebraska, who are coming to locate in Condon.

W. B. Neidermeyer, representing The Dallas Nurseries, of which R. H. Weber is the proprietor, was in town a few days lately, looking after the interests of his firm.

Bicycles have been much in evidence on our streets this week. Everyone who has a wheel has been giving it exercise since the streets have got in good condition.

Wm. Myers has been rustling around the past few days getting ready to move one of R. F. Monroe's bands of ewes to D. S. Brown's sheep range, where they will remain until after lambing.

If you wish to see a modern engine of war in operation just step inside of this office on Tuesday (Thursday forenoon) and watch the Gloucester force run the press. Admission free to cash subscribers.

John Shroh's house caught fire Saturday from a defective flue, but, as there was no wind blowing at the time, he had no trouble in quenching the flames before much damage was done.

Our old reliable blacksmith, Joseph Parrago, returned to town Sunday from Ferry Canyon, where he has been employed by C. N. Wilson for the past few weeks, breaking horses and working on the farm.

The annual school meeting of Condon Dist. was held at the school house on Monday. Only five electors were present. Dr. J. H. Hudson was elected director and P. H. Stephenson was re-elected clerk.

A Sunday school was organized at Matney Flat school house last Sunday morning, and it will be conducted every Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, under the direction of the Congregational church of Condon.

J. K. Thomas, who has been herding sheep for Mrs. Mary Brown for the past few months, came to town Sunday for a few days' rest. He will return to Mrs. Brown's ranch and assist the herders during the lambing season.

The Journal editor has been misinformed in regard to Charley Fix's bowling alley. The alley will not be 20 feet short as Bro. Stewart would have it, but it will be 76 feet long, which is 16 feet longer than the regulation alley.

Mrs. S. A. Maddock received a box of wedding cake this week from Mr. Wayne Grider, who was married last Sunday. Wayne is a particular friend of Mrs. Maddock, and she would feel slighted if he didn't come up with the cake.

The residence property, in Brown & Trimble's addition, formerly owned by E. J. McMorris, of Dayton, Wash., was sold last Saturday to Mrs. Elizabeth Elster, of this place, the consideration being $300. J. A. McMorris made the sale.

The mail, and H. N. Barr came in from the north on the back Tuesday afternoon. Consequence of a broken axle on the stage. The breakdown occurred near Downer's place about two miles from town. Mr. Frazer was just returning from a visit to Portland.

Mr. W. A. Campbell, representing the Pennsylvania Mutual Life Insurance Company, arrived in Condon the first of the week and will remain in the city a few days. Walter is well known to the people of this section, having stopped here several weeks last summer.

Prices on the bill for lumber for Condon's proposed new parsonage were received early this week, and the order will soon be in the hands of the most generous dealer. The hauling will soon begin, and the hills will echo to the ring of the hammer and the buzz of the saw.

A photograph is the latest attraction at the Summit saloon. T. G. Earhart received the machine a few days ago and since then has been kept busy "turning it loose" for the edification of his friends. The repertoire embraces a fine selection of popular songs, solos etc.

Rev. W. H. Barr, handed us a copy of "Congregational Work," a paper devoted to the interests of the different missionary societies of the Congregational church. Mr. Barr is taking subscriptions for the paper, and all those interested in such work will find the publication an interesting one.

Constable L. D. Sweetin, of Arlington, brought Stephen Nolan over on Thursday of last week and lodged him in the county jail, where he will await trial in the circuit court on the charge of cutting the hose that connects the air brakes to the engine on one of the O. R. & N. Co.'s trains at Arlington recently.

MARRIED:—At the residence of the bride's parents near Condon, Sunday afternoon March 8, 1898, Mr. Wayne Grider and Miss Cora Myers, Rev. W. H. Barr officiating. A few relatives and invited friends of the bride and groom were present to witness the ceremony. The Gloucester joins their many friends in wishing them a long and happy life.

H. B. Hendricks has several fine farms to sell at a bargain, and those wishing to either sell or purchase land in this county would do well to call on him. Mr. Hendricks has a full line of conveyance blanks such as deeds, mortgages, bill of sales, power of attorney abstracts, wills, &c. Will do your business as cheap as it can be done elsewhere, and satisfaction guaranteed. His motto is: "Live and let live."

MARRIED:—At the residence of the groom's parents near Condon, Wednesday evening, March 9, 1898, Mr. Steven V. Moore and Miss Minnie A. Clark, Elder A. B. Moore, uncle of the groom, officiating. The bride and groom are well known to the people of Condon, having resided in this section several years. They will reside in Condon, as Mr. Moore is one of our leading business men and also one of the councilmen who were elected Tuesday. The Gloucester joins the army of friends of both the bride and groom in hearty congratulations.

City Election.

The city election on Tuesday was one of the most interesting in the history of Condon. Edward Dunn and George Tatom were in the field for the office of mayor, and the contest was so close, on account of a number of doubtful ballots, that the Gloucester is not able to state at this writing which one of the gentlemen will preside over the destinies of Condon for the next year.

J. H. Hudson, S. B. Barker, T. G. Johnson, Al. Henshaw, S. V. Moore, G. W. Rinehart, G. S. Clark and Charles Fix were candidates for councilmen, Rinehart, Johnson, Moore and Fix being elected.

P. H. Stephenson and W. A. Darling made the race for the office of recorder, Mr. Darling winning by a neck.

For treasurer, Wm. Dunlap and H. B. Hendricks were candidates, and Mr. Dunlap was elected.

Lone Rock School.

The Lone Rock public school closed Friday, March 4th, after a six months' term. As teacher, I thank the patrons and pupils for the interest shown in making it a successful and profitable one. Should we have had another term the following would have finished the 8th grade work: Jesse Goff, John Madden, Oscar Vouth, Aley Robinson, Elie Williams, Bertha Williams, Flora Ward, Clarence Neel, Della Ward and Arthur Madden.

Synopsis of report: Number of days taught, 119; number of days attendance, 4261; number of days absent, 174; number of days tardy, 150; average daily attendance, 36. S. I. STRATTON, Teacher.

Republican Call.

The Republicans of Gilliam county, Oregon, will meet at the usual voting place in their respective precincts on SATURDAY, the 19th day of March, 1898, at 2 o'clock p. m. and nominate candidates for precinct officers and elect delegates to the Republican County Convention for Gilliam county, which is called to meet at Condon on Saturday, April 9, 1898, at 10 o'clock a. m. for the purpose of nominating candidates for all the county offices (except one County Commissioner) and to elect 4 delegates to represent Gilliam county at the Republican State and District Conventions for Oregon. The County Convention will consist of 4 delegates, chosen from the various precincts as follows:

Arlington	4	Blalock	2
Condon	5	Crown Rock	2
Idaho	2	Lone Rock	2
Matney	2	Rock Creek	4
Butte Creek	2	Ferry Canyon	2
Mayville	3	Row Creek	2
Trail Fork	2

The apportionment is one delegate at large from each precinct, one for every 20 votes and one for every fractional over one-half thereof cast for President McKinley at the November election 1896.

By order of the Republican County Central Committee, S. G. HAWSON, Chairman.

Populist Primaries.
The populists of Gilliam county are requested to meet at the usual voting places in the different precincts on March 14, 1898, at 2 o'clock p. m. and elect delegates to the Populist county convention, which is called to meet at Condon on Saturday, March 19, 1898, at 10 o'clock a. m. to elect delegates to the state convention, which meets at Portland on March 23d; and for any other business that may properly come before the convention. Each precinct is entitled to one delegate at large and one for every 15 votes and one for every fraction of 5 or over, the apportionment being made from the vote cast two years ago for W. J. Edwards for representative, as follows:

Condon	4	Butte Creek	3
Lone Rock	3	Rock Creek	3
Mayville	6	Ferry Canyon	3
Rown Creek	1	Matney	2
Trailfork	2	Arlington	2
Blalock	1	Crown Rock	1
Idaho	2
Total	33

All populists are urged to attend the primaries and take part in the selection of representative populists as delegates, and all delegates so chosen are urged to attend the convention in person.
