

For Tacoma and Suppose Senator
has recently been to mourn the tragic of his life companion, has certain things in his private or official career that is objectionable to certain would-be "molders of public opinion." Is it the proper action for such journals to utterly disregard the sanctity of such an hour and hurl forth vindictive criticism and brutal assaults against those who have been called into the "silent land," or those who are left heart-broken behind? Oregonian please copy.

The way Lord & Co. are selling things Plows they must be doing all the plow business.

NON-ALCOHOLIC.
No man who lives on meat was ever known to lick his wife, or ask for a divorce. A vegetable diet woman is as cold and clammy as a turnip. If you want your girl to have rosy cheeks and vitality in her motion, feed her on beef steak with occasional doses of Dr. Haw-son's Tonic Bitters. Sold everywhere.

For Sale.
I have for sale the Albert L. Crosby farm; the J. N. McKinney farm; the C. B. Henson farm and several other good farms and stock ranches in Gilliam county. Call and secure a bargain.

tation at my office. Interest closes after this date. S. B. BANKER.

OUT IN IN.

If a public official turns out to be a rascal, turn him out. If he proves to be incompetent, prove to him that you demand ability in the management of public affairs by retiring him to private life. If he neglects his business, the best way to get even with him is to neglect to vote for him next time. If, however, his past record proves him to be honest, competent and faithful, in the discharge of his duties, the best thing to do with him is to keep him right where he is. An ounce of common sense and business judgment, in affairs political, is often worth a train load of partisan zeal.

FOOD AND MUSKETS.

The speech by Senator Thurston, of Nebraska, on Thursday of last week, on the Cuban question was one of the strongest that has yet been delivered on that subject in congress. Prior to the senator's recent visit to that unhappy island he was one who counseled moderation on the part of this government in dealing with the Cuban problem, but the scenes of utter desolation and wretchedness that he witnessed there appears to have caused a radical change in his views, and he now advocates stern measures on our part to put a stop to the barbarities of the Spanish. "The time has arrived," he said, "when muskets should go with the food we are sending to the suffering Cubans."

MERELY A SUGGESTION.

Misfortunes never come singly.
With a red-hot political campaign and a foreign war both on their hands, the men of Oregon will be obliged to tackle the discomforts of the house cleaning season under a decided disadvantage. We would respectfully suggest to the wives and mothers and daughters of the state that the very best way in which they can show their patriotism in these troublous times will be by the organization of a society, the principal feature of which will be a pledge, taken by each member, to the effect that her husband or father or brother, as the case may be, will not be asked nor expected to beat a carpet, carry wood, draw water, mind the baby or eat cold victuals during the next six months.

RESPECT THE DEAD.

It is an unwritten law among civilized beings that when the grim reaper, Death, claims a victim, even the bitterest personal, political or business enemies of the deceased will desist from further attack upon him. The same rule applies to the household that has been recently called upon to give up its loved one. Men and women whose breasts the quality of kindness is not abnormally developed invariably respect the dead more death is, and if they say no word of comfort or consolation to the mourners, or respect the departed, they re-
