

NOTICE.

The yearly subscription to the Globe is $1.50, if paid in advance. If not paid in advance $2 will be charged. A pencil mark around this notice indicates that your subscription has expired. Please renew promptly.

LOCAL NEWS.

How do you like our new dress?

O. L. Lillie, of Mayville, was in town last Sunday.

Bert Piersol was in town the first of the week from Rock creek.

"Now the only danger is want of fusion in the republican ranks," naively remarks the Salem Statesman.

J. C. Meek came in from Fossil last Sunday to visit his sister, Mrs. S. P. Shutt.

S. P. Shutt returned last Sunday from a business trip to Heppner and other points.

Billy Barr is now dealing out "wet" goods at the Arlington saloon during Oliver Barr's absence.

There will be service in the Catholic church on Palm Sunday, April 3d, conducted by Father Briody.

The late "spell of weather" has been a "deadener" on thousands of young lambs in Eastern Oregon.

J. G. Stevenson was a pleasant caller on Saturday. He will in the future read the CONDON GLOBE every week.

W. A. Darling returned from Portland Sunday, where he spent last week as a delegate to the Populist state convention.

The C. E. social given at the residence of Rev. and Mrs. W. H. Burr on Monday evening was well attended and a pleasant evening was spent.

The Wool Record of March 22nd gives quotations on Eastern Oregon wool, in the New York market as follows: Choice, 15c; average, 12@13c; heavy, 10@11c.

W. L. Wilcox and E. P. Weir returned Sunday from Portland, where they represented Gilliam county in the Democratic state convention.

The Wasco Warehouse Co., of Arlington, have a new display ad in this issue. Wheat and wool men all over Gilliam county will find it of special interest. Look it up.

George and Mertie Stevenson, son and daughter of J. G. Stevenson, of near this place, each filed on a homestead on Saturday. The land taken adjoins their father's farm.

W. S. Myers, Geo. Tatom and G. W. Rinehart, who were appointed by the probate court at the last session, as appraisers of the estate of Charles Gross, insane, performed that duty on Friday of last week.

A big freight outfit, loaded with new furniture and household effects belonging to Mr. and Mrs. S. V. Moore, arrived in town Monday. Mr. and Mrs. Moore are now housekeeping and are occupying the Halstead property.

Ed Portwood and family this week moved out to Henry Moore's place on Rock creek, which Ed has rented for a term of five years. Ed is an ambitious young man and if he don't make a stake out there we'll miss our guess.

A marriage license was issued on Tuesday to Wm. H. Musgrove and Gertrude Wakeman, both well known young people of the Ferry Canyon country, and Rev. Burr had business out that way on Wednesday. Full particulars next week.

The Congregational church will observe the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper at 11 a. m. next Sunday. Sermon: "Lessons from the Last Supper." All denominations are invited to commune. Everybody welcome at both morning and evening services.

The political kettle is simmering right merrily this week and by the time the Republicans add a few cords more of official timber to the flames beneath it there is danger that the pot will boil over and cause a grand disturbance in the county and state.

Mr. French, of Mayville, was kicked by a horse last Sunday and sustained an ugly cut on top of the head and on the upper lip. He came to town for surgical aid and had the wounds dressed by Dr. Hudson. Several stitches were required to close the wounds.

Rev. O. D. Taylor, from Dallas, has received a term of imprisonment in the county jail for the offense of being drunk on the public streets.

The new neon sign at the Arlington saloon is now in operation and is a sight to behold. It is a very attractive sight and is a credit to the Arlington saloon.

Franklin, of the Wasco Warehouse Co., of Arlington, is in town on a business visit. Mr. Franklin is a very interesting man and is a credit to the Wasco Warehouse Co.

winter will not of a certain dim habits marshy p and the voices of era an' uncl is heard in frogs and look

Mr. C. A. E. who left for Portland go a course of treatment the stomach, returned a week a well man. He was under the care of Dr. A. W. Moore, one of the best physicians that ever visited Portland, and has gained 27 pounds in weight since he left here, and his friends hardly know him on his return. Mr. Simpson will herd sheep during the coming summer, partly for pleasure and partly for the money that's in it.

The souvenir number of the Payette (Idaho) Independent, which was issued last week, is before us. It is devoted to the interests of the Payette valley, and, both as regards class of matter contained and typographical appearance, it is an excellent number. The publication seems to have been liberally patronized by the business men of Payette, New Plymouth and Falk's Store, while Emmett is rendered conspicuous by her total absence of advertisements. The town gets nine lines of a "write-up" and the only "prominent citizen" mentioned is a man who has been dead for about ten years. Editor Venable "didn't do a thing" to the Emmett fellows.

W. L. Wilcox recently returned from P. B. Southworth some land in the Mayville area, who has lately been a member of families in California, in view of the prospect to come to Gilliam county for the purpose of becoming permanent. Southworth further expects to return to Gilliam county near future to remain permanently supplied with place of residence. Mr. Southworth's the fact that he ordered to his address to keep Gilliam county until he has ample proof that he is in when he sees it.

Latest War News

The report of the court of the cause of the Maine disaster to congress on Monday together with a special message from the president to the court finds that the Maine was sunk from without but fails to establish the responsibility of the act of the president's message. Both branches of congress are most ready for an open rupture with the executive which will result in the declaration of war. Senators and Foraker have introduced resolutions, in the House, to declare war on Spain, and the executive will introduce a message as a result of the war.

Spain, and the executive will introduce a message as a result of the war.

Spain, and the executive will introduce a message as a result of the war.

Spain, and the executive will introduce a message as a result of the war.

Spain, and the executive will introduce a message as a result of the war.

Spain, and the executive will introduce a message as a result of the war.

Spain, and the executive will introduce a message as a result of the war.

Spain, and the executive will introduce a message as a result of the war.

Spain, and the executive will introduce a message as a result of the war.