Footballers Strike.

Professional football players, representing the Scottish League in the International League, struck five minutes before the kick-off in their match against Ireland, refusing to play unless they were given £1 each. They were in receipt of the regular wages, but rather than have the international match stopped the committee league granted the extra pay.

Russian Iron Duty.

The Russian manufacturers of iron have asked for a decrease of duty on cast iron to 20 copecks per pound. These works have an annual output amounting to a value of more than 60,000,000 roubles and employing about 35,000 workmen. According to the present Russian customs tariff cast iron pays a duty of 30 copecks per pound ($1.42 per 220 pounds).
