LOCAL NEWS.

J. W. Blake visited Heppner and Portland last week. Mess Mand Evans, of Fossil, is visiting in Condon this week.

Mrs. Young has gone out to their ranch to spend the summer. Miss Mary Walton and Mrs. Jas. Brown were visiting friends in town Sunday.

T. G. Johnson, Oscar Portland and S. A. Pattison returned Sunday from a visit to Portland. Mrs. Ed McKinney is assisting in the kitchen work at the Condon hotel during Mrs. Maddock's absence.

Rev. Johns, of Fossil, will hold services in the church at this place next Sunday, morning and evening. Wm. McKinney was in town Monday morning with a load of early vegetables from his Rock creek ranch.

Any man who is consumed with a desire to fill a long-felt want in this life can do so by starting a meat market in Condon.

Harry Halstead and Mrs. Herbert Halstead, of Lost Valley, are in Portland having their eyes treated by an oculist of that city.

Darling and McFarland repaired the court house this week. They have also secured the contract for painting the building inside and out.

Mr. Robert Wilson, of Michigan, father of the Wilson brothers here, arrived in Condon last week and will remain with his sons during the summer.

G. H. Neel has commenced an action against Geo. Earhart for trespass, in Justice Tatom's court. Trial set for May 5th. Another sheep trespass case.

Subscriptions for the San Francisco Examiner taken at the Globe office. Save postage, time and trouble by subscribing here.

Edgar Moore and J. W. Barr have been elected delegates from Summit Lodge No. 130 I. O. O. F. to the Grand Lodge, which meets next month at Roseburg.

E. P. Weir, George Gibbons, F. B. Moore and B. K. Searcy were among the Mayville delegation who took in the Old Fellows' celebration here Tuesday.

Some very neat silk badges have been turned out from this office lately for admirers of various candidates. You would better order some for your favorite. Call in and see us about it.

Mrs. J. W. Gilman, and family, of Fossil, stopped in town Sunday night while on their way to visit their old home in New Hampshire. They expect to be gone about four months.

John Gross was kicked by a horse one day last week and seriously injured while employed on Chas. White's ranch about 12 miles from town. Dr. Shaw, of Fossil, was summoned to attend him.

Will Searcy, of Beecher Flat, returned to Portland on Tuesday, for further treatment. He had been at home only a few days but found he had not recovered sufficiently to leave his physician.

E. B. and F. D. Cornett, of Linn county, are here visiting their father Wm. Cornett, of Matney Flat. They are favorably impressed with this country, and one of them, at least, may locate here permanently.

Gentle Spring was made to tremble in her slippers when the cold wind and sleet storm of Tuesday struck the country. Her ladyship should provide herself with a seal skin sacque and arctic overshoes before tackling Eastern Oregon.

W. W. Steiwer, of Fossil, and Mrs. J. F. Reischer, of this place, returned Saturday from Portland. Mrs. Reischer went down expecting to bring her sister-in-law, who is an invalid, home with her, but found her unable to stand the trip.

Mrs. E. Hoxter, of Portland, was here last week in the interest of the Florence Crittenden Refuge of that city. The Refuge is a home for homeless and unfortunate girls, and is a worthy institution. Mrs. Hoxter collected about $25 here.

The lumber for the new parsonage has arrived at Arlington and those who have subscribed hauling can bring their load, and others who are hauling wheat and have no load back are invited to bring a load of lumber and help the good work along.

Walter Foster, who has been employed in Fix's bowling alley, met with a serious accident on Thursday of last week, by stepping on a rusty nail and running it almost through the ball of his foot. The wound was better Monday morning and Walter and his young sister, Ethel, started for Portland where their sister resides.

The state encampment of the G. A. R. will meet at The Dalles on May 17, 18 and 19. A number of veterans in this vicinity have already signified their intention of attending. Spanish toast will occupy a prominent place on the bill of fare and will be served hot sixty times a minute during the encampment. All veterans and prospective veterans should attend and acquire a taste for stewed Spanish which will also be served hot.

Mr. H. B. Hendricks desires to say, through the columns of this paper, to those who received their quota of free distribution of seeds sent by U. S. Senator Hon. Geo. W. McBride, (distributed by Mr. Hendricks) to please hand him, at your earliest convenience, a report concerning the success, or otherwise, that you have had planting your garden with these seeds. We learn there has been some fine vegetables raised from these seeds in this section; but a report is what is wanted by the department to verify this statement.

SUMMARY OF LATE WAR NEWS.

Harbor of Havana blockaded by U. S. fleet—Spaniards in Moro Castle fire 10 shots at our fleet without effect, ships remaining silent—President issues call for 125,000 troops—Submarine cable connecting Havana with Madrid cut by U. S. dispatch boat, Mangrove—Battle-ship Oregon reported safe and in position to take care of herself—Eleven Spanish vessels, so far, reported captured by our navy—Secretary of State Sherman resigns and is succeeded by W. R. Day—Oregon is called upon for one regiment of infantry to be recruited from O. N. G.

Fire in Ferry Canyon.

On Wednesday of last week August Seekamp's house and the entire contents therein were destroyed by fire. Besides the household effects about 600 sides of fine bacon went up in smoke. Mr. Vanblair, who was staying with Mr. Seekamp, also lost everything he had. They had to fight fire pretty lively in order to save the barn, which would have added several hundred dollars to Mr. Seekamp's loss had it burned, as his threshing machine, engine, etc. are stored therein. We have not learned whether the house was insured or not; if not, the loss of course will be more keenly felt by Mr. Seekamp.

I. O. O. F. Celebration.

The members of Summit Lodge No. 130, I. O. O. F. entertained their friends and the public generally on Tuesday, the occasion being the 79th anniversary of the establishment of the order in the United States—as well as the fourth birthday of Summit Lodge. The lodge entertained their visitors with an elegant dinner, served at the Rinehart restaurant, where dinner had been ordered for 100 guests. Visitors were present from all the neighboring towns and settlements, and everybody seemed to have a good time. At 2.00 p. m. the crowd assembled in Armory hall, where an excellent program of vocal and instrumental music, speeches, recitations, select readings, etc. was rendered, which was highly enjoyed by all present. The festivities of the day were closed with a grand ball in the evening, which was well attended. Fifty-two numbers were sold and the dance lasted well into the wee suna' hours. Midnight supper was served at the Condon hotel and at Rinehart's restaurant much to the satisfaction of the hungry dancers.

OLEX.

Mr. A. L. Gardner is on the sick list. Chas. Martin is at Arlington again doctoring.

Those green straw hats at Olex store are just the thing. R. O. Vetto is going to move to Mayville for the summer.

B. Lane, formerly of Olex, is now located at John Day City. Road Supervisor J. A. Kiser is again here leveling down the hills.

J. W. Maguire had a horse buyer out to Olex and vicinity last week. There was a large attendance at church Sunday. The house was crowded.

S. A. Pattison made Olex a friendly call last week while on his way to Portland. H. P. Meade, a blacksmith, from New Era, arrived in Olex Monday to remain permanently.

J. E. Redmond is going to tear down the Short house and barn and rebuild at his residence. Dall Reed's father and mother stayed in Olex one night last week while on their way to Arlington.

News is getting scarce. Somebody had better do something to get their name in the Olex column. Jess Lewis says he don't like for Brick Morris to be boarding at S. A. Foster's. Chops are high since war broke out.

Mrs. Fred Hanna read the item in the Globe about Fred coming to share all topped up, and came home post haste. Mrs. H. J. Nott left for the Valley Tuesday to visit her relatives. H. J. is now figuring on the price of a new cut-away coat.

French and Guy Nott are soliciting horses to take to the mountains to graze until harvest, at $1 a head. They have about 150 contracted. Mrs. Brown delivered two very interesting sermons at Olex last Sunday. Revival meetings have been held during the week, with good attendance.

Mr. A. H. Holcomb, of Seattle, purchased a car load of horses at Olex last week. He will be back in about one month for some more. Notice will be given ahead and then the horses can be brought to Olex. This would be a good way to advertise Olex as a horse center. If the horses are not all purchased that are brought in it will be a way of letting the outside world know that we have good horses in Gilliam and if they will pay enough they can get them.

The teachers' quarterly examination will be held in this city on May 11th. Yesterday at noon as Frankie Maddock was starting a fire at Joe Wilson's camp on Six-mile, an explosion occurred which burned his face very badly. He rode home alone and at this writing is resting easy.

$5 Reward. Lost or Stolen. From Arlington about the 15th of August, 1897. One yellow and white cow with young calf. Cow is branded M (with half circle over) on hip, crop and under or upper bit over each ear, range on Rock Creek and Hay Creek. The above reward will be paid for the return of cow and calf or information as shall lead to the recovery of same. Anyone detaining this cow after this notice will be prosecuted. R. A. W. BARFOOT, Administrator, Arlington, Ore.

NOTICE OF SALE OF HORSES. Notice is hereby given that the undersigned, administrator of the estate of Biram F. Nelson, deceased, will sell to the highest bidder for cash, or approved security, all of the horses belonging to said estate, being about 20 head of range horses and 8 head of broke horses, on Saturday, the 14th day of May, 1909, at Condon, Oregon. Six months' time will be given on all approved accounts over $10. FRANK PALMER, Administrator. Dated April 28, 1909.

At the same time and place I will offer for sale to the highest bidder for cash, or approved security, about 25 head of range horses. Six months' time will be given on all approved accounts over $10. J. W. CLARK, Administrator. Dated April 29, 1909.

COUNTY NEWS.

Interesting Items Gathered by Live Correspondents in all Quarters of the county.

ARLINGTON.

Wheat sold here on Tuesday at 80 1/2 cents per bushel. Rain is needed in this section of country. Although crops look well at present, they will need rain soon to insure a good yield.

The DeMoss Family are doing this part of the country. They gave a concert here last week to a good-sized and appreciative audience.

Some of our political friends are shaking hands as though it all depended on the amount and quality of handshaking done within the next month.

John Madden was in town the first of the week taking subscriptions to finish the Lone Rock road. He succeeded in raising $275, which will put the road in good order.

Jay P. Lucas received an order to report at The Dalles on the 26th, he being a member of the O. N. G. We hope to see Jay return from Cuba wearing the insignia of a high officer.

The Arlington Water Co. has applied for a receiver to take charge of its business and sell the plant, there being some dissatisfaction among the stockholders. The city of Arlington has a large share of the stock, but according to its charter it cannot own stock, so can do nothing with the working of the company.

CLEM.

The fields and trees are putting on their deepest green. James Larch has just finished sowing barley. He thinks the sowing late but will get there, just the same.

Miss Mary Danneman has been on the sick list lately and hardly able to smile on the old bachelors who call for their mail.

The candidates are all wearing the deepest wrinkles on the front of their heads and shaking hands to beat the Dutch.

J. F. Wade is rapidly recovering from his late illness and is able to get about though he is still rather weak. We hope he will soon regain his usual health.

The usual crank meeting was held at Boyer's last Sunday, and all the topics of the day—from planting potatoes to the Cuban revolution—were discussed.

David Bowman and Chas. Wester have just returned from Arlington with a load of blacksmith supplies, etc. Now our people will hear a kind of anvil chorus.

A man owning a well-digging machine has been looking the country over, but as yet we have heard of no work engaged, though it might be a great benefit to the country.

LONE ROCK.

Mrs. Hogan was over at Heppner for a few days' visit this week. R. G. Robinson made a business trip to Arlington last week.

Rev. Johns and family are visiting friends in this locality this week. Grass is growing fast, and stock of all kinds are in fairly good condition.

Several of our sheepshearers have gone down on Rock creek to commence shearing. The weather turned cold and rainy on Tuesday, but at this writing the weather is a fine as one would wish for.

A gentle rain fell on Wednesday morning of last week and the benefit it has been to the growing crops can already be noticed.

Dr. Looney, of this place, had a bad case to handle this week, it being his own head that was trying to go to pieces with neuralgia.

There are several hundred head of fine beef cattle for sale in this locality, and the stock raisers all wondering what has become of all the cattle buyers.

Last week P. L. Ham bought Henry Neel's town property, which consists of two lots, a neat dwelling house, new barn, out buildings, etc.; consideration $500. Henry will embark in the sheep business shortly.

Our mining expert, Andy Sprouls, is over in Grant county prospecting. His attention has probably been attracted by the recent big gold discoveries in that section, where they whittle gold out of the decayed quartz with a jack-knife.

James Giles, the war horse of Oregon, is now in our burg. He is trying to raise a company of soldiers to go over and give Spain a good drubbing. Capt. Jimmy is right at home on the battle field, and he will always be found in the front rank fighting for the honor of his country.

A fire broke out in J. R. Ralston's dwelling one day last week, caused by a bed having been placed too close to the stovepipe. The bed clothes caught fire and were half burned up, but fortunately plenty of water and sufficient help was at hand and the fire was extinguished before any more damage was done.

FOSSIL.

J. C. Meek visited his sister, Mrs. J. H. Putnam, this week. W. W. Steiwer returned last Saturday from Astoria, Salem and other points in the Valley.

Geo. Hamilton and son Preston returned Sunday from Salem, where they had been visiting a couple of weeks. Miss Cora Brown, of this place, started Sunday to visit her uncle in Southern California. Cora will be missed, as she was a general favorite.

Mr. Danneman, of Clem, was in Fossil Saturday and Sunday delivering cattle, and shaking hands with his numerous republican friends. We understand Mr. John McCallum has sold his butcher shop and store at this place to a couple of men by the name of Allen and Davidson.

The entertainment given here last Saturday evening by the Fossil school was a most decided success financially and otherwise, as people from all over the country attended.
