The semi-annual report of the county officers, with the county court proceedings, takes up so much of our space this week as to make a supplementary sheet necessary. Considerable news is crowded out which will appear next week.

The Globe is in receipt of a letter from Wm. Wehrli, of Mayville, who is now on his way to Omaha with a trainload of cattle. The letter was written at Salt Lake, where the cattle were being rested, and reported a good trip so far.

Hon. S. G. Hawson, republican nominee for representative, addressed the people of Condon, last evening, in Armory hall. (This was the initial meeting of the campaign here and, for an impromptu one with no previous notice, was well attended.)

S. P. Shutt has traded his residence property to Mrs. J. K. Fitzwater for the property she now occupies, near the school house, and 4000. Mrs. Fitzwater and family will take possession of their new home June 1st. It is understood that Mr. Shutt will move his family to Heppner.

A race was pulled off last Friday on the level stretch just north of town, between horses owned by Marion Woodfin, of Trail Fork, and George Gray, of Heppner. The distance ran was 300 yds., the purse amounted to $5, and Woodfin's horse showed his competitor 40 feet of daylight and took the money.

H. H. Hendricks, the popular attorney of Fossil, returned last Saturday from Pendleton, where he had been attending supreme court, where he argued the Elk vs. Hunt appeal case from Canyon City, Grant county. The decision will not be handed down until July. Mrs. Hendricks, who has been visiting the family of H. B. Hendricks at this place during his absence, returned home with him Sunday.

Syl Palmer went fishing on Thursday the other day and had a phenomenal run of luck. His catch consisted of 24 fish six inches long, or was it six feet 24 feet long?—no matter, we want you a good fish story by too close attention to details—anyway, while Syl was standing on a high bank overlooking the creek, intently watching his silk line and waiting for a bite, he says there came a sudden jerk on the line accompanied by so much force that he lost his balance and landed plump in the middle of the creek. "Was the water cold?" inquired Geo. Fletcher as Syl was relating his experience, on his return to town. "I don't know," replied Syl, "I landed on the fish."

FOSSIL.

Mr. Ed Horn is over from the river and reports grain and alfalfa badly in need of rain.

Mr. John Vanhousen, wife and two children, from Twickenham, spent Sunday in town.

Mr. H. H. Hendricks returned the first of the week from Pendleton, where he had been attending supreme court.

Chas. McKinzie, together with four carpenters, has the frame work on the big hotel almost completed.

Teachers' Examination.

Teachers' examination began Wednesday at 1 p. m. Supt. E. W. Daggett, Chas. Royle and Mrs. L. R. Stevens constitute the examining board, and the following teachers are present: Anna Leach, Davidson; Minnie Frick, Mayville; Naomi Stergel, Condon; Grace Baldwin, Condon; Harry F. Stricklin, Olex.
