LOCAL NEWS.

Ed Dunn went to Portland Monday on a business trip.

T. G. Johnson made a business trip to Arlington last week.

Fred Wilson made a business trip to Arlington Sunday, returning Tuesday.

Mrs. J. K. Fitzwater, who has been quite ill for several days, is some better.

Fresh beef, pork, mutton, fish, vegetables and strawberries at Jordan Bros.' meat market.

Father Briody will hold service in the Catholic church here on Sunday, 26th inst.

Mrs. T. G. Johnson has been on the sick list this week suffering with a severe cold.

Fred Monroe came in from Lone Rock Sunday and reported a heavy rain storm in that section Saturday night.

Mrs. Pinkham, of Fossil, who visited the family of her sister, Mrs. W. L. Wilcox, last week, returned home on Saturday's stage.

Mrs. True, who is teaching school in the Matney Flat district, filed on a ¼ section of land in that vicinity on Monday as a homestead.

On Saturday morning Mont Ward bought of Mrs. Birdie Wright (nee Miss Birdie Downing) 160 acres of land lying southeast of town, consideration $650.

Mrs. T. G. Johnson, Mrs. W. L. Wilcox and Mrs. G. L. Neale returned from their visit to Portland Saturday. They report having had a most enjoyable time.

On Monday D. S. Wright bought the residence property, near the school house, known as the Fitzwater property, of S. P. Shutt, the consideration being $325.

Mrs. C. B. Jordan arrived on Saturday's stage from Oregon City, to spend the summer visiting her sons, the Jordan brothers, of the Delmonico restaurant.

Dr. J. A. Jennings, a dentist from Newport, who has been making a professional trip through the Inland Empire, was a pleasant caller at this office on Tuesday.

J. W. Barr, who left here a few weeks ago, writes from Cheyenne, Wyo., that he had reached that point O. K. and was feeling well. He orders the GLOBE sent to Thermopolis, Wyo., where he will locate for a time.

Road Supervisor Kiser has completed the new road between Ferry Canyon and Clem. This road has long been needed and will greatly facilitate the moving of the big wheat crop of the Ferry Canyon country.

Arlington Review: Wm. Campbell, Walter Myers, G. G. Parman and J. G. Stephenson delivered three carloads of cattle Thursday to an eastern buyer, who is going to ship a trainload of cattle and sheep to Minnesota.

The council did not meet on Monday evening, on account of Mayor Dunn's absence in Portland. The mayor will probably secure considerable information relative to the cost of material for our proposed water works while in the city.

Mrs. E. L. Taylor, and son Roy, were over from Fossil this week looking after her property, which is situated just back of the school house. The land has just been plowed for the first time, and Mrs. Taylor will have it sowed to wheat next fall.

MARRIED—Sunday, June 19, 1898, at the residence of J. A. McMorris, near Condon, Mr. Samuel A. Thompson and Miss Julia K. Harrison, both of Matney, J. A. McMorris (J. P.) officiating. The GLOBE joins their many friends in wishing them a long and happy married life.

Bill Cooke, of the firm of Cooke Bros., who have a small wheat field of a few hundred acres five miles east of town, says that, while the few extremely hot days of a couple of weeks ago injured considerable of the wheat to a greater or less extent, the cool, showery weather since has brought out the very worst of it to such an extent as will insure a first-class crop.

James Snipes, of The Dalles, who is largely interested in the cattle business in this section, drove 12 head of thoroughbred shorthorn cattle through town one day last week which were hard to beat in the line of fine cattle. Among the number was one cow that weighed 1600 lbs. The cattle were taken to his ranch 12 miles east of town and will prove a valuable acquisition to the herd.

The excellent Sunday dinners now being served at the Delmonico restaurant are worthy of special mention. Ice cream and all the delicacies of the season, which the market affords, find a place on the menu, and the hungry public will be sure of a treat if they take their Sunday dinners there. Attention is called to this feature in the Delmonico's ad in another column.

PUBLIC SALE OF HORSES.

The undersigned will offer for sale at public auction, at Johnson's corral in Condon, Oregon, on about 75 head of good sized horses, suitable for farming, team work, driving, riding and general purposes. These horses are not of the ordinary cayuse breed, but are well bred, well built, tractable stock. Persons in need of extra teams for harvest should attend this sale and secure a bargain in what they need.

Terms of sale: Six months' time with approved security, or 5 per cent discount for cash. Sale begins at 10 a. m. sharp.

J. E. DOWNER.

W. W. Steiwer, of Fossil, returned from the Valley on Monday accompanied by one of his children. His little daughter was left in Salem to be treated for throat trouble, with which she has been suffering for some time.

Mrs. C. A. Danneman and daughter, Mrs. Harry Ladd, of Clem, are at Portland this week, where they went to meet Miss Carrie Danneman, who is on her way home from Corvallis, where she has been attending school.

The wool market is slow about opening up this season. A number of buyers have been in Arlington recently, but no sales are reported. In Idaho, the ice has been broken by a sale of a clip of 100,000 pounds at Caldwell, the other day, but the price paid has not been made public.

Don't fail to secure a ticket for the grand ball to be given by the cornet band on the night of the Fourth. The boys need a little help now and then, and by attending this ball you will help them, celebrate the Fourth and have a good time yourself all for a dollar. See their ad in another column.

Mrs. Frank Sweeney and daughter and Miss Louise Gerulf, of Astoria, were in town during the week, the guests of the family of Al Henshaw. The party were on their way to Lone Rock to visit old friends. Mrs. Sweeney is a sister of W. H. Colwell, the popular sheepman of Arlington.

A report was current here on Sunday, that Add and George Renner, who left here about one year ago with a band of sheep, bound for the Big Horn Basin in Wyoming, had recently lost 3000 head of sheep, the animals straying away from the herders and getting lost in the mountains. The report lacks confirmation and is here given for what it is worth.

The old mother of Lieutenant Hobson is about to lose her homestead because of a mortgage. The amount of the debt is not great, but it is larger than the hero of Santiago can hope to pay out of his salary as an officer in the United States navy. A popular subscription has been started to lift the mortgage on the Hobson homestead. The American people can be depended upon to save that home.—Ex.

Henry Hartman met with a serious accident last Saturday at his home west of town. He was riding on a loaded wagon on the farm when a sudden lurch, caused by the wheel striking a ditch, threw him on the wagon tongue between the horses. The team, a span of wild colts, became frightened and ran away, dragging Henry a considerable distance. When picked up he was unconscious, and although terribly bruised he is fortunate in having no broken bones as a result of his experience.

S. B. Barker will leave Tuesday for Huntington, where he goes to superintend the shipment of the band of sheep lately driven from here by Louis Barker and J. M. Cameron. The sheep will be shipped by rail from Huntington to Montpelier, Idaho, in order to avoid the drive through Idaho, where feed and water are scarce and fenced lanes numerous. Mr. and Mrs. Barker contemplate a visit to friends in Vermont and Maine in the near future which they may decide to make at once, in which event Mrs. Barker will accompany her husband on Tuesday, and they will continue their trip east from Huntington.

An Irish lad entered the confessional of a priest and hinted at sanguinary revelations. "What, murther is it ye mane?" "Indade, an' it is, father, and a many of them. What, father, now, if it moight be a matter of six or eight?" He recounted a grewsome list. "I don't think there were any more," he said doubtfully as he closed. "Now, what were all these people?" sternly demanded the confessor, Well, father, they was jist tax-githerers." "Tax-githerers is it, ye say," exclaimed the priest; "now why didn't ye tell that at first? There was no need to be takin' up me time; ye don't come here to gossip, ye come to confess yer sins!"—Ex.

A stranger in the city, who was sadly afflicted with the stuttering habit, attempted to inquire his way of a gentleman whom he met on the street but all to no purpose, his vocal organs refusing to work. An Irish policeman who happened along, mistakingly supposing him to be drunk or crazy, arrested him and took him before the police magistrate. "What is your name?," asked the judge. "S-s-s-s-s-s—," stuttered the poor fellow, unable to articulate a single syllable. "What is this man's name, and what is he charged with?," inquired the judge of the policeman. "Sure, your honor, I belave his name is Smith, and from the way he acts I think he's charged wid sody wather."

Run Over and Killed.

Special Correspondence.

Arlington, June 22—Yesterday afternoon as John Madison, of Bickleton, Wn., was driving a heavily loaded wagon from the ferry boat, at this place, he was thrown from his seat and the wheel, passing over the lower part of his body, inflicted injuries from which he died 20 minutes later.

An inquest was held and the jury returned a verdict of accidental death no blame being attached to the owners of the ferry. The frequent rise and fall of the river at this season renders it impossible for the company to maintain a good landing at all times.

Deceased leaves a widow and seven children at Bickleton.

Another Wagon Accident.

Yesterday afternoon as H. F. Downer, and family were on their way from their ranch, on Matney Flat, to the Spaulding place their little girl, three years old, fell from the wagon and before the team could be stopped, the wheel passed over the child's thigh, breaking the bone. The little sufferer was brought to town where Dr. Hogan reduced the fractue and she is now resting as well as could be expected.

OLEX.

Rev. Brown preached a very able sermon at Olex Sunday.

Grant Wade and family, of Scott Canyon, attended church here Sunday.

All the Olex people who were on the sick list last week are again on deck.

Jas. D. McKinney and wife were visiting Jim's parents the first of the week.

A. L. Gardner says there will be more wheat raised in Gilliam county this year than ever before.

There have about enough new men arrived to take care of the large hay crop along Rock creek.

Dr. Nott has had a great pull on Olex this week. He has pulled everything he could get his forceps on.

Mrs. H. J. Nott arrived at Olex last week, after spending a few weeks very pleasantly at Aumsville, the home of her parents.

Mrs. Thos. Solvester and children have come in from Harney to stay, and Tom is coming presently. They have enough of Harney.

Mr. E. Haner has a fine garden at Olex, and any one desiring choice vegetables can get the same by inquiring at the store.

Olex post office has been designated by the department as a money order office, and as soon as the necessary papers are properly arranged it will be opened up.

One more week of school and then the youngsters will get a vacation. Miss Parrish, the efficient teacher of the school, will visit awhile with friends before returning to Monmouth.

Claude Randall will give a ball at Olex on the night of the 4th of July and wishes all who wish to "trip the light fantastic" to bear the announcement in mind. West Bros. have been engaged to furnish the music for the occasion.

ARLINGTON.

The crop prospect is the best for many years is this section of country.

The Arlington cornet band has been engaged to play at The Dalles on July 4th. They had several offers but could not take them all.

Every one who can spare the time is catching drift wood just now. Lord & Co. bought one man's catch the other day, paying $100 for it.

J. P. Lucas will soon leave here for The Dalles to take charge of the land office there. We are glad to see Jay get the place.

Joe Ward is improving the property that he purchased from Hosey Ward. He is making a fine piece of residence property of it.

Headers are in demand just now, several having been sold lately. The prospect for a big crop make times lively in the machinery line.

R. A. Hankins bought and moved the dwelling house that stood in the upper end of town. The house was moved to his down town lots, making him a neat little residence.

Mrs. Frank Sweeney and daughter Alice, and Miss Louise Gerulf started to Lone Rock the first of the week to spend a few weeks during the hot weather.

Tramps are getting to be so numerous that one gets killed every day or so by falling off the truck of the cars, or brake beam, as the case may be, several having been killed in this section lately.

A man by the name of Harkins was brought to town last week by constable Sweetin charged with stealing a horse from Sam Thomas. He was placed under $400 bonds to appear at next term of court.

We understand that McConnell, over in Washington, had the bad luck of having 700 head of three and four-year-old wethers killed recently by a pile-up. Quite a loss for him. It seems that they got to running down into a ditch, and when the ditch was full of sheep, making a bridge, as it were, the remainder of the band crossed over them, with the result above stated.

FOSSIL.

Miss Louie Freeze and Miss Pearl Shelton, of Mayville, were in town this week.

One dozen mechanics are employed on the McKinzie Hotel. The hotel will be ready for occupancy by the 28th inst.

The roads are lined with people moving from the drouth-stricken country of California. They are all headed north for the Pendleton and Palouse countries.

W. W. Steiwer returned Monday from Salem and Portland, where he went to attend the Masonic Grand Lodge, which was held in Portland the middle of the present month.

The prospects for crops of all kinds were never better than at the present time, in this part of the country. The recent heavy rains have damaged lots of alfalfa hay in the John Day Country, but to take it all in all the rains have enriched the farmers to the extent of several thousand dollars.

A man was arrested in Fossil the other day and fined for offering for sale on our streets a willow basket which he had manufactured with his jack-knife just outside the city limits while his team was resting. Our recorder informed the culprit that he made a mistake in cutting his willow boughs outside the city.

MAYVILLE.

The sick in this neighborhood are all on the road to recovery.

Miss Maggie Wilson closed a successful term of school here last Friday.

Mrs. Evans and son, of Lane county, are visiting her sister, Mrs. W. J. Edwards, this week.

Miss Ida Morry, of Grass Valley, accompanied Miss Neva Graham home from the Association, and is visiting friends here.

A. J. Shelton started Monday for Arlington to meet Capt. Withers, who is returning from the hospital in Portland, where he went for treatment.

Some of the Fossil boys came over Monday and played against the Mayville boys at the bowling alley. The Mayville boys came out victorious.

The people of Keys Flat are making arrangements to have a celebration on 30-mile the Fourth. The school of that place has arranged a programme and other amusements for the day. Their teacher is assisting them, and Mr. Crass will also lend his assistance, and everybody is expecting a pleasant time. Everybody invited to participate in the celebration.

Notice to Wood Haulers.

Bids will be received by the undersigned between now and July 15, 1898, for the delivery of fifteen (15) cords of first-class, clear, two-foot wood at the school house in Condon, Oregon, wood to be delivered on or before October 1, 1898.
