LOCAL NEWS.

Nat Scott was over from Lone Rock Wednesday.

The Salem Sentinel is out with a new Souvenir edition.

Kite flying is the order of the day with Condon lads just now.

H. N. Fraser and family returned on last Saturday's stage from their trip to Portland.

Fresh beef, pork, mutton, fish, vegetables and strawberries at Jordan Bros.' meat market.

Condon town cows are looking sleek and fat since grass on the range has become so plentiful.

Wilkinson White, of Papersack, this county, was the guest of P. H. Stephenson and wife last week.

Fred Monroe, who sold his sheep business this spring, is reported to be figuring on engaging in business at this place.

The ships of the American navy will now use smokeless powder. Large quantities of it have just been supplied to them.

The Mayville people will celebrate the 4th of July at W. B. Pentecost's poplar grove, on the new road, three miles north of Mayville.

Mrs. Greiner and daughter Kate, of The Dalles, passed through town a few days ago on their way to visit relatives and friends at Mayville.

J. F. Reischer has recently purchased a lot from H. N. Fraser and will build a neat residence thereon. Lumber for that purpose is now on the ground.

Miss Velen, who is teaching school in the Salspion district, visited the Maddock sisters at the Condon hotel Sunday. Her school will close on the 15th of July.

Fred Wilson left this week for a visit with his mother and sister in Michigan. His father, who came out here a short time ago, will remain here during the summer.

Chas. Baker recently purchased the Thomas threshing machine, and expects to thresh a portion of the enormous crops which Gilliam county promises to produce this fall.

S. B. Barker left for Huntington Tuesday to look after the shipment of his sheep from that point. Mrs. Barker will probably join him in a few days, when they will continue their trip east.

H. T. Booth, the well-known representative of the Massachusetts Mutual Life Insurance Co., is again in Condon. Mr. Booth bears the distinction of having written more life insurance in Gilliam county than has any other man.

There is evidently no law against gambling in Spain else the authorities of that country would have Schley and Sampson arrested. They have been running the shell game in Spanish territory for several weeks.

At the district convention of Woodmen of the World, held in The Dalles recently, Frank B. Stevens, of this place, was elected as one of the delegates to the meeting of the head camp in San Francisco in August.

We understand that the new company who are running the ferry boat at Arlington have been meeting with many mishaps since they took charge of the concern. Whether or not it is due to mismanagement we are unable to say.

A. J. Coe, the popular Arlington saloonist, has removed his establishment to the corner immediately north of the bowling alley, where will be found one of the neatest and best stocked resorts in the county. Note the change in his display ad in another column.

Mr. McFall, representing Russell & Co., of Portland, and who recently sold Geo. Smith, of Olex, a complete threshing outfit, was in town a few days ago trying to sell some of the farmers in this vicinity a steam thresher, with what success we have not learned.

A camp meeting is to be opened near Lone Rock on the 30th of this month, under charge of Rev. Clark, the local pastor, who will be assisted by Rev. Frank Spaulding of Wasco, Rev. F. L. Johns of Fossil, and Mrs. Brown, wife of Rev. Brown, of Arlington.—Fossil Journal.

The Globe was misinformed last week regarding the sale of the Fittwater property, owned by S. P. Shutt, to Mrs. D. S. Wright. The property is not really sold yet, although an offer of $325 was made by Mr. Wright. We have not learned whether or not the offer has been accepted.

W. H. Snell and F. H. Ralston, who started to the Valley a couple of weeks ago with a band of horses for sale, sold out in Sherman county, and have returned home. They report everything booming in Sherman county, and say the crops look better than they ever did since the country was settled.

PUBLIC SALE OF HORSES.

The undersigned will offer for sale at public auction, at Johnson's corral in Condon, Oregon, on about 75 head of good sized horses, suitable for farming, team work, driving, riding and general purposes. These horses are not of the ordinary cayuse breed, but are well bred, well built, tractable stock. Persons in need of extra teams for harvest should attend this sale and secure a bargain in what they need.

Terms of sale: Six months' time with approved security, or 5 per cent discount for cash. Sale begins at 10 a. m. sharp.

J. E. Downen.

The Shurtz & Weir Company, of Arlington, was the only concern to incorporate yesterday. The articles filed at the state department name a capital stock of $15,000, with C. A. Shurtz, E. P. Weir and Emma J. Goldsmith as organizers of record.—Statesman, June 23.

We have been requested to state that the law provides that the county clerk shall deliver certificates of election to the newly elected county officers upon application being made to the clerk at his office. Those desiring their certificates should apply for the same at the clerk's office.

The Globe is one day late this week on account of the failure of our auxiliary prints to arrive on time. We regret the occurrence exceedingly, but, as the trouble is undoubtedly due to some oversight or blunder on the part of the express company, there is nothing to do but put up with the inconvenience, and trust that it will not occur again.

Otis Patterson Esq., of Heppner, grand chancellor Knights of Pythias, will make an official visit to the branch of that order in this place on July 8th. Mr. Patterson will be accompanied by Mr. McKibben, editor of the Senator, the Knights official paper. All members of the order should be present on this occasion and meet these brothers.

It was reported a few days ago that the body of James Phillips, who was drowned in the John Day river on the 29th of last month, had been found, but the report was erroneous, however, as a gentleman from that section was in town this week and informed us that the river had been dragged where the body was supposed to be, but without success.

Wm. Dunlap has been so crowded with wagon and machinery repair jobs since haying commenced that he was forced to hire a mechanic in order to be able to accommodate his many patrons. A mammoth hay rack was built at his shop last week for J. K. Fitzwater, and S. B. Barker and T. G. Johnson have each placed an order with Mr. Dunlap for a new hay rack.

Geo. Neale and wife, who had been employed on Cooke Bros.' ranch since last November, last week moved back to their farm, and Wm. Day and wife have been employed by Cooke Bros. to take the place of Mr. Neale and wife, and will move onto the Cooke ranch as soon as the house is ready for occupancy, as it has just been painted by Jas. Kiser, and cannot be occupied until the paint is dry.

Last Saturday evening about 5 o'clock a swarm of wild bees were seen hovering around a post just back of Al Henshaw's furniture store, and by sundown the bees had all alighted on the post, and the whole town turned out to take a look at them. Jordan Bros., of the Delmonico restaurant, captured the bees by placing a box over the whole swarm while they were snugly huddled together to keep warm.

One of the finest young orchards to be found in Eastern Oregon is that of H. C. Strickland, some eight miles northwest of town. It contains the very choicest varieties of all the standard fruits, and the clean, healthy, thrifty appearance of the trees is a pleasure to behold, to a man, who, like the writer, has been accustomed to seeing the scaly, scabby, disease infested fruit of other sections of the country. Besides his fine orchard Mr. Strickland has one of the best stock and grain ranches in this section, and his 300-acre wheat field is a living witness of what Gilliam county soil will produce.

The new advertisement of the Shurtz & Weir Co., of Arlington, appears in this issue. This firm has succeeded to the old established mercantile business of Jas. W. Smith, which has been a landmark in this section of Eastern Oregon for the past 21 years. C. A. Shurtz, the senior member of the new firm, has been with Mr. Smith for some 15 years, for the last few years occupying the position of general manager of the establishment, and is well and favorably known to the Gilliam county public, while E. P. Weir is also one of the county's best known citizens and most prominent business men. He has also had a wide experience in the mercantile business, and under the efficient management of these gentlemen the business of the house cannot be otherwise than prosperous. The new firm claim that the stock purchased from Mr. Smith was bought at figures that will enable them to sell at such prices as will insure satisfaction to customers, and their new goods, now arriving, will be placed on sale at bed-rock prices. Read their advertisement, and when in Arlington call and see them.

The Glorious Fourth

Will be celebrated at Harrison's Grove, 10 miles southeast of Condon, in a first-class manner. This is said to be one of the prettiest spots in Gilliam county. There is plenty of green grass, and cool, inviting shade, a beautiful stream of water, and nothing will be left undone to provide first-class entertainment for the public. A good floor has been put down and those who enjoy dancing can do so during the day, evening or all night if they wish. The public are cordially invited to attend this celebration and join together in a fitting celebration of Independence Day. Free pasture furnished for horses.

Wedding Bells.

Married, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Graham, near John Day river, Wednesday, June 22, 1898, Miss Neva J. Graham to Mr. F. B. Moore, of Mayville. The bride was handsomely dressed in cream casimere, and the groom wore customary black. Miss Ida Morry acted as bridesmaid and was attired in white. John Graham, brother of the bride, was groomsmen. We wish much happiness to Mr. and Mrs. Moore.

Fruit Trees! Fruit Trees!

Wm. B. Neidemyer, agent for The Vancouver Nursery Co., is making a thorough canvass of this section of Gilliam county in the interest of his firm. If you need fruit, shade or ornamental trees, small fruit, shrubbery, etc. you should reserve your order until he calls.

ARLINGTON.

The strawberry season closed last Friday, the merchants getting notice that no more would be shipped.

Mrs. R. H. Robinson started the first of the week to Portland and vicinity to visit friends for a month or more.

Mrs. Dall Reed recently purchased the old store building owned by John Wood, and will convert it into a dwelling house.

Fin Thomas moved his stock and rigs from his old stable to the Dall Reed stable last Monday, he having bought the Reed stand.

Frank Bebee launched his new boat a few days ago. It is the largest and finest sail boat on the river, and it will carry eight tons in ordinary weather.

The town was taken in by a traveling dog show the first of the week. They traveled in a special car and take in special suckers at every stopping place.

Nearly a hundred of Arlingtonites will go to The Dalles to celebrate the 4th of July. A special car has been chartered to carry them. The car will be decorated in grand style for the occasion.

The new steam ferry boat has been brought up from the lower river, and as soon as the machinery can be readjusted the boat will be put in commission, and Arlington people will be assured of good service.

John Wood has bought the Red Front Barn, and has commenced to remodel it, converting it into a first-class store building. The building will have a large, glass front and will be an ornament to the city. Mr. Wood will stock the store with a full line of house furnishing goods.

OLEX.

Rev. Brown will preach at Olex next Sunday.

Editor Pattison paid Olex a short visit last week.

There is to be an auction sale of horses at Olex on July 1st.

Wm. Head has a machine boring through the rock for water on his farm.

By a vote taken last Sunday it was decided to continue the Sunday school at Olex.

Fred Hanna has returned from Philomath. He reports his wife's health fast improving.

Mrs. W. W. Weatherford and family are rusticiating in the mountains near Hood River.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Smith, of Tallman, Linn county, father and mother of G. S. Smith, are visiting at Olex.

Jake Brown and Parman Bros., of Gooseberry, purchased a Haines Oregon Header of L. O. Ralston last week.

J. W. McKinney has three crops of wheat growing—some just out of the ground, some about six inches high and some is headed out.

W. E. Reed, Ern Taylor and Clarence Scoggins started for Halstead's saw mill Tuesday morning for lumber for L. O. Ralston's new store building.

What has become of our telephone system from Arlington to Condon? The residents of Olex would like to see it put in and would give assistance.

Frank Ralston and Wm. Snell have returned from a trip to Wasco, Sherman county, where they sold about 60 head of their horses at satisfactory figures.

There is some talk of putting in a roller flour mill at Olex. This would be a paying investment and at the same time fill a long felt want of the residents of Olex and vicinity.

Mr. Mathews, who has been teaching school at Matney Flat, passed through Olex a few days ago on his wheel, bound for Eugene. He rode from Mayville to Olex in about five hours.

LONE ROCK.

The nights have been very cold the past week for this season of the year.

The contract for building the new M. E. church at Lone Rock was awarded to W. A. Goodwin for $273.

Wood Gilman was over in our burg the first of the week and brought several hundred pounds of fine dried fruit which he sold to P. L. Ham. Miss Hattie Loana accompanied him home.

J. B. Goff is busy getting his stage outfit ready to start on the Heppner Lone Rock line next Friday. He has a splendid new outfit all round, and it is the best passenger rig that has ever been on the route.

Wm. Snell and Frank Ralston sold their horses, consisting of about 60 head, at Wasco and Moro, most of them being sold at auction, the average price being about $25 per head. Frank Ralston went on to Portland.

J. M. Williams has bought the Lone Rock Hotel from Ira Reed for $600. Mr. Williams has been running the hotel for the last few months and is the right man in the right place and is rightly deserving of the public patronage.

What has become of the road supervisor? He came up from Condon a couple of weeks ago and reported the ridge road in a bad condition, and said he would have the road cleared of rocks, but it has not been done, however, and every one who travels the road has just cause to think that a straightening up of the road business would be a good job for the county court to take in hand.

MAYVILLE.

Florence McConnell is down with the measles.

Mr. Caleb Poirin is sick this week with mumps.

The young people of Mayville organized a Christian Endeavor Sunday last.

Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Moore, who were married on the 22nd inst., will at once commence housekeeping on Mr. Moore's farm 1 1/2 miles west of Mayville.

The highest score yet made on the alley is that made by Chub Weir last week, he scoring 67. This won for Mr. Weir the prize of one dollar, which was offered for the person scoring 60.

Miss Mand McConnell came home Saturday from Corvallis, where she has been attending school. Mrs. L. C. Trank and children accompanied her and will visit relatives here for three weeks or more.
