How to Choose a Husband.

An experienced writer on this momentous question gives the following advice to the fair sex: "For a man's birth, look to his linen and his fingernails and observe the inflections of his voice. For his tastes, study the color of his ties, the pattern and hang of his trousers, his friends, his rings (if any). For his propensities, walk around and look carefully at the back of his head, and remember, girls, never marry a man whose neck bulges ever so little over his collar. If you want a successful man, see that he has a neat foot; he will move quicker, get over obstacles faster than a man who falls over his own toes, and trips up other people with 'em, too. For his breeding, talk sentiment to him when he is starving, and ask him to carry a handbox down the street when you've just had a row. To test his temper tell him his nose is a little on one side, and you don't like the way his hair grows, and if that don't fetch him nothing will."—Ex.

There is no danger of anybody being troubled with dyspepsia, sour stomach, nightmares or ill temper who uses Fossil flour. Nothing ruins the health so quickly and surely as bad bread, and nothing creates so much harmony and cheerfulness in a family as good, light bread and biscuits, "the kind your mother baked." The only way to accomplish this is to use Fossil flour—the best and cheapest in the world.
