The mosquito is said to be the only living thing that sends a bill into a man who does not owe a cent.

"Chub" Weir and wife have moved from Maxville to Arlington, where they will make their home in the future.

Call at the Photo Tent and examine the up-to-date "Platinum" work. Baby photos and animal pictures a specialty.

Geoffrey Scilling was in town Saturday from his home at Matney Flat. He reports crop prospects excellent in his vicinity.

J. G. Stevenson has purchased a fine new steam power thrasher. The engine is of 17-horse power, and the thresher has a 30-inch cylinder.

Chas. Boyce, of Lost Valley, attended the celebration at Rock creek on the 4th and then came to Condon in the evening and took in the dance.

R. K. Wilson, of Matney Flat, lost a valuable horse last week by the animal becoming entangled in a picket rope and choking to death.

High Strickland went to Moro, Sherman county, last week with a band of heavy work horses, which he expects to dispose of to the farmers of that section. Geo. Tatom accompanied him.

B. K. Searey was in from Beecher Flat Saturday. He was arranging for a hunting and fishing trip in the vicinity of Malheur Lake, expecting to start yesterday. Mrs. Searey will accompany him.

Mr. L. Bradley, an artist of fifteen years' experience, accompanied by Mr. B. W. Bass, assistant, will visit Condon about July 12 to 15, to remain a short time. They guarantee satisfaction.

W. L. Wilcox and family, Mr. H. C. Strickland and children, Mrs. J. F. Reischer, Bessie Palmer and family, Dr. Hudson and Oscar Portwood were among the Condonites who took in the Fossil celebration.

A new time schedule has been received by Postmaster Reischer for the Condon-Lone Rock mail route. In the future the mail will leave as follows: Leave Condon, 1 p. m. arrive Lone Rock 7:30 p. m. Leave Lone Rock 8 a. m., arrive at Condon 12:30 p. m.

Malheur lake, a body of water about 20 miles long and 10 miles wide, in Harney county, is to be tapped and a large section of sage brush land is to be irrigated with water through a canal 45 miles long. Work is to commence at once. The project has been under consideration for a year or more.

W. S. Miller, who was formerly in business here, but who has been living in the southern part of the state for the past few years, has returned to Gilliam county, and is living on his ranch, five miles north of town. His brother John Miller, who was also a former resident of Condon, has gone to Alaska.

A Fossil Miss was asked to parse the sentence "He kissed me." "He is a pronoun," she began. "Third person, masculine gender, a gentleman and pretty well to do; universally considered a good catch. Kissed is a verb, transitive—too much so—regular every evening, indicating affections, first and third persons, plural number, and governed by circumstances. Me! Oh! everybody knows me."

Mr. Wm. Rottle was at the scalp holders meeting in Arlington Monday, that was called to take steps to force collections on the unredemmed scalps at Condon, and it was decided, on his suggestion, that the scalp-owners wait until he looked after collecting the amounts due the Sheepmen's Union, which would be done by law, if not collectable otherwise, and that within a short time, the bounty would be paid to the satisfaction of everybody concerned.—Arlington Review.

An editor in a Nebraska town is "dead gone" on the village schoolmaster. This is the way he sounds her praise: "She is the pride of the town, the star of invention and a jewel of brilliancy. She drew a picture of an iceberg on the blackboard. It was so natural that the thermometer froze up solid. With rare presence of mind she seized a crayon and drew a fireplace on the opposite wall. The prompt action saved the school, but nearly all the pupils caught a severe cold from the sudden changes."

E. G. Grant, brother of Dr. Grant, of Portland, spent the fourth in Condon. W. B. Boyer, of Clem, has returned from an extended visit in the Willamette valley.

Miss Leach, who is teaching school at Eightville, attended the dance in Condon the night of the fourth.

Mrs. Harry Ludd, accompanied by her sister, Miss Mary Danneman, of Clem, attended the dance here on the fourth. Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Snell, of Olex, visited friends here, for a few days, during the past week.

Mrs. Stevens, who has been visiting in California for some time, will be up Tuesday morning. Mr. Stevens will be down with a team to meet her.—Arlington Review.

In an item which appeared in this column last week in regard to the failure of our auxiliary prints to arrive on time and the consequent delay of one day in getting that issue of the Globe published, an error occurred which tended to give the impression that the writer laid the blame in the matter at the door of the Pacific Express Co. Such an impression was entirely foreign to the idea which we intended to convey, for the reason that in our past experience with that company we have never had the slightest reason to charge them with carelessness in any matter entrusted to them, and while that institution is too well known throughout the Pacific Northwest to require any endorsement from the Globe, it is only justice to state that the fault in this particular case was not theirs. The term "express company," in the item referred to, was used inadvertently, when another term was intended, and the error was not noticed until after that issue of the Globe had been printed.

The Fourth.

Condon did not celebrate Independence Day, this year, in the proper acceptance of the term, but, when the stage arrived at 3 p. m. bringing a report of Sampson's victory at Santiago, an impromptu celebration was indulged in that showed the patriotism of our people to be fully up to par. In the evening a ball was given by the Condon Cornet Band in Armory hall, which, while not as much of a financial success as it should have been, was a most enjoyable affair for those who were so fortunate as to be present. A large number of our people spent the day at other points where celebrations were held, and all reported a good time.

AT HARRISON'S GROVE.

A picnic was held at this pleasant resort on Thirty-mile which was well attended by the people of that section, with a good representation from Condon. A first-class platform had been erected and those who enjoyed dancing had ample opportunity to indulge in that pastime. Others gave the day over to visiting and social intercourse, while the grateful shade of the pretty grove, and the well filled lunch baskets were no small factors in the real enjoyment of the day.

AT MAGEE'S.

About one-half mile below Harrison's, at Magee's place, another picnic was held, and those who were present report a good time. Some good horse races were pulled off there, and dancing was indulged in during the evening.

AT FOSSIL.

Our neighboring town of Fossil indulged in perhaps the most elaborate celebration of any point in the county and the large number of Condon people who attended it report a good time. The usual accessories of a genuine Fourth-of-July celebration were on hand and everybody were said to have enjoyed the occasion to the limit.

In this manner the good people of Gilliam county celebrated the event of passing the one-hundred-and-twenty-second milestone in American history. Long may she wave!

The Lamp Exploded.

What might have been a fatal accident occurred at Fossil on the night of the fourth. Miss Shelton, a young lady of Mayville, had retired in her room at the Donabson hotel, leaving the lamp burning for the use of a young lady friend, who expected to occupy the room with her, and after she had fallen asleep the lamp, from some unknown cause, exploded, scattering burning oil in every direction. The report and flames awoke her and at the same time attracted the attention of Dr. J. H. Hudson, of this place, and H. T. Booth, of Portland, who happened to be occupants of the adjoining room. The gentlemen at once rushed to the lady's assistance, and without much difficulty the flames were subdued before much damage was done. Dr. Hudson was unfortunate enough to cut his hand severely on the broken glass, an artery being severed and an injury sustained which will take some time to heal.

Had the flames not been discovered until a moment or two later they would have been beyond control, and a disastrous and perhaps fatal fire would have resulted.

The Telephone.

Mayor Dunn received a letter from L. C. Edwards, of Arlington, on Tuesday which stated in substance that he had definite information from the management of the telephone company, at Spokane, to the effect that the poles for the Arlington-Condon line will begin to arrive at Arlington the last of this week, and that the line will be completed by September 1st. The letter stated that the delay was caused by the scarcity of poles, there being such a demand for them that the parties who furnish them had got behind with their orders.

ARLINGTON.

The revenue stamp business is booming, and nobody kicks.

The town was very quiet on the 4th, most of our citizens going to other points to celebrate.

T. W. Compton is repairing the old Vance building, and will put in a stock of goods about August 1st.

The Arlington band boys report a good time at The Dalles on the fourth. The Dalles and Dufur bands were also present, but ours was pronounced the best of the three.

M. A. Fleming has retired from the U. M. Clay farm.

Ella Walton made a trip to Lone last week. She has sold her Mayville property to Mr. Edwards.

Thos. Sulvester arrived last week from Harney to remain. Tom says it is more like home in the vicinity.

The rains continue to come, and Gilliam county will this year be the banner wheat county of the state.

Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Clay are now on Rock creek again to remain. Ed will look after the estate of the late H. M. Clay.

We were pained Sunday to read of the loss of a thousand of our brave soldiers at Santiago. We hope this is the worst fight our army will have.

We are authorized to say that the Olex store will open on Sundays to deliver mail, but will not sell goods, and patrons are requested not to ask for goods on Sunday.

At the auction horse sale at Olex on the 1st inst. the horses seemed to bring about all they were worth and about three times as much as they would have brought a year ago.

W. E. Reed and Clarence Scoggin met with quite a misfortune at Thirty-mile last week while hauling for L. O. Ralston's store. The former lost three of his horses, and the latter broke one of the front wheels to his wagon all to pieces.

Miss Parrish closed her school at Olex last Friday. A very interesting program was rendered in Ralston's grove. The pupils acquitted themselves in an able manner, showing that Miss Parrish is an accomplished teacher, and the residents of Olex are sorry to have her leave and hope for her return from Monmouth this fall.

Well, the glorious 4th is past, and business is resuming its natural activity. After the people got all their fix-ups at the Olex store it was rather quiet in town, although there was a continual coming and going all day and into the night—until the last suit for the ball was sold. The celebration was held at Lone Rock Grove this year, and a very delightful time is reported. A large crowd was in attendance, good program, good address by Rev. Brown, good water and grove, and everybody well pleased.

LONE ROCK.

The Lone Rock Hotel did a big business on the 4th, surpassing any day's run in its previous history.

The Fourth-of-July celebration passed off pleasantly and was attended by a large crowd. The ball in the evening was largely attended.

It is very gratifying to record the fact that there was not a drunken man to be seen at our celebration, which is the first record of the kind in our town's history.

A couple of our big lads preface the 4th on the evening of the 31 by an animated scrapping match. A patriotic eye for one and a battered nose for the other was about the size of the fracas.

Rev. Bramlet and family arrived in Lone Rock last week, after having been down in California for a couple of years. They stopped over and spent the 4th here and will visit for a few days longer and will then go on up to Portland and visit their daughter.

The stage horses on the Lone Rock-Hepburn route got feebly for the day, last Monday and ran away and bounded him off the stage, but strange to say, the outfit was not damaged, the driver only slightly bruised and John Hager, who was a passenger, was not even scared.

CLEM.

Harvesting in line.

Mrs. C. A. Danneman returned from Portland Sunday.

John Watson is down from Ferry Canyon looking after his ranch.

The election is over and most of the legal voters are drinking water again.

Geo. Welshons says he is the best four-horse driver in the county and we are afraid to dispute it, so here's looking at you, George.

That telephone line? Why yes, why not? It surely would be a great convenience for nearly every one, so let us all get down and see what we can do.

A. S. Thomas has just finished digging a large well, and has been rewarded with an abundance of water. He has laid three thousand feet of galvanized iron pipe to carry the water from the well to his house, consequently has the water very convenient.

We understand that a Sunday school has been organized in the Wester district. This we think, a good move in the way of associating, morality, etc., and we also think this would be a good field for a preacher, as we are the only really good person in this part of the vineyard, and we feel so sorry for our neighbors.

Here is what Peter Cooper, who died worth many millions, said of a newspaper: "In all the towns where a newspaper is published every man should advertise in it, if nothing more than a card stating his name and the business he is in. It does not only pay the advertiser, but it lets the people at a distance know the town in which you reside is a prosperous community of business men. As the seed is sown so the seed recompenses. Never pull down your sign while you expect to do business."
