LOCAL NEWS.

Mrs. Kate Grainger, of Mayville, was visiting friends in town Sunday. Mrs. Stella Darling visited her sister, Mrs. P. H. Stephenson, this week.

Bicycle riding in the moonlight is sometimes not what it is cracked up to be. Harvesting is in full blast in Gilliam county, and the yield is reported good.

C. C. Wilson, of Astoria, formerly of this place, is here this week visiting old friends. Geo. A. Robbins, a drummer for a Portland grocery house, was in town Monday.

Carpenters are now at work on J. F. Reischer's new residence on south Main street. Miss Mary Maddock is out to their ranch helping with the household work during harvest.

Mrs. Bessie Palmer and family returned Tuesday from a week's outing at Lambersen's ranch. Dr. Hogan will spend a few days enjoying an outing among friends at Lone Rock and Last Valley.

H. T. Booth, representative of the Massachusetts Mutual Life Insurance Co., is in town this week. Father Briely left on Monday's stage for Tillamook, where he will take charge of the Catholic church work.

P. H. Stephenson left today for Eugene, on business connected with the John Linn estate. There's a hot time in this old town every night lately, and each succeeding day seems to beat the other in torridity.

There will be no preaching at Condon Sunday morning. Preaching in the evening by the pastor. Subject, "Omnipotence." The Christian Endeavor social held at the farm of Mr. Gilles Parman last Friday was pronounced a success by all who attended.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Congregational church of this place holds its first social gathering this (Thursday) afternoon at the home of Mrs. Burr. Prince Bismarck, for many years prime minister of Germany, died on July 30th at his home in Friedrichshagen. The prince was in his 80th year.

J. F. Reischer returned last Friday from Portland, where he was called by the serious illness of his sister. Her condition is not much improved. Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Robinson, of Arlington, called on their cousin, Mrs. P. H. Stephenson, on Saturday while on their way home from a visit at Lone Rock.

Dr. Hudson expects to go to Arlington tomorrow to meet his wife and two little sons on their return from an extended visit with friends at Toronto and other Canadian points. Producers will please remember that their exhibits will be taken to the Oregon Industrial Exposition free of charge. For shipping tags and information, drop a card to Secretary Industrial Exposition, Portland, Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Armstrong went to Shuttler Flat Saturday, where they will take charge of the cooking and thrashing crew. They will work for the harvesting of about 1100 acres of grain. There is no discount on the good quality of our grains and grasses. People here at home recognize that fact. But farmers should save a few samples for strangers to use upon at the coming Oregon Industrial Exposition.

Word has been received by the pastor, from Rev. Cephas F. Clapp, of Forest Grove, Sup. of Congregational work in Oregon, that he is going to visit Condon this fall, with a Gospel Chorus, and a quartette of evangelistic singers and workers. Jordan Brook, now run a butcher wagon, making three trips a week into the country to supply the busy farmers and thrashing crews with beef, pork, mutton, etc., during harvest. They request the farmers to do their best to pay cash for meat or they will not be able to keep the business going.

Chas. Pinkham and family returned from the mountains several days ago, much sooner than they expected. The cause of their speedy return was the illness of Mrs. Pinkham, who suffered a severe attack of pleurisy. Dr. Shaw went out to Pine creek to see her Wednesday.—Journal.

O. W. Barr and Syl Palmer are ready along this week getting ready for a pleasure trip to the high mountains in Grant county. They expect to start next Monday, and will spend three or four weeks in the high altitudes. Billing up on the grouse, mountain trout and huckleberry shortcake.

The Royal Baking Powder Co. has released $10,000 for its business. This is a tremendous testimonial to the value of advertising. The business has built up from a modest beginning to present gigantic proportions by the wise use of newspaper advertising.—Times-Mountain.

The other day a newly married couple, Rev. Hodgekiss and wife, boarded the train at Brida Vail station, for Portland on their wedding trip. As the train was moving along, the conductor, who is an acquaintance of the groom, after exchanging his congratulations, said: "Bride, please; although the Lord has made you one you will have to have two tickets when you travel." The remark caused much merriment among the passengers in the car.—Evening Telegram.

LONE ROCK.

J. B. Goff made a business trip to Condon Monday. Rev. Frank Spaulding will preach at Lone Rock next Sunday, 7th.

Rev. Clark, of this place, is at Fossil assisting in the camp meeting which is in progress there this week. John M. Brown went to Heppner the first of the week for the doors, windows and fixtures for the new church.

Rev. Warner will hold quarterly meetings at Lone Rock next Tuesday, 9th. Everybody cordially invited to attend. Dr. Lina went to Condon Saturday. He will perhaps take a trip over to Sherman county before returning to Lone Rock.

Last Sunday was the warmest day of the season in this locality. The thermometer registered 103 in the shade, which is pretty warm for Eastern Oregon. Several young people from Lone Rock visited the lake up at the Wineland saw mill Sunday. Herbert Halstead and family were also at the lake.

J. W. Connoway, of Wagner, passed through Lone Rock Sunday with a threshing machine, which he had brought from Shuttler Flat. It took four men, twelve horses and three wagons to move the outfit over.

Frank Golden, of Mayville, was over here last week and appeared before our Justice of the Peace with a complaint regarding the ownership of a horse. After hearing a statement of the case, our Justice J. B. Goff very properly advised all parties concerned to settle the matter without going to law, which they finally did, thereby saving costs and useless expense.

Mrs. C. A. Dannehan made a trip to Arlington last week. The mercury registered 110 in the shade at Cleon Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Robinson, of Arlington, were guests of the Dannehan family Saturday.

There seems to be a big demand for harvest hands in this neighborhood just at present. The Cleon Academy, with Miss Carrie Dannehan at the helm, is running smoothly, with a large attendance. W. J. Edwards, of Mayville, passed through Cleon last Thursday with a band of beef cattle for the Portland market.

Mr. and Mrs. John Jackson, after a brief visit with their daughter, Mrs. J. T. Doleen, returned to their home at Pine City. Mrs. Clay and Miss Hulbert have returned to Arlington. Mrs. Moss McKinney visited her relatives at Olex last week.

Mr. M. Fisk wishes to sell his Rock creek farm so he can take his stock to Willows. Rev. Brown has been under the weather lately but is still camping on the creek and thinks he is improving. J. M. Wad has his new Cave separator at Olex undergoing repairs preparing to thresh for W. M. McKinney.

A small fire got started in Thos. Malanophy's stable last Sunday, caused by some one throwing a lighted cigarette or cigar down. People should be very careful of fire during these dry times. Mr. Williams, representing M. L. Gardner, the mail contractor, was in Olex Saturday looking for some one to take the route. The contract was closed Monday by H. D. Randall signing it.

The stage horses will hereafter be kept at Olex. Now if the short road from Olex to Cleon was opened up it would be very beneficial to the stage line and reduce expenses by shortening the distance. Last Saturday A. L. Gardner's residence, on the farm known as the N. H. Suggins farm, was totally consumed by fire. Everything the old gentleman had was destroyed. A valuable property destroyed was a valuable collection of books worth several hundred dollars. There was no insurance.

The thermometer has stood at from 93 to 101 in the shade the last week. J. W. Gillman started 430 head of fine beef cattle to The Dalles yesterday. They are for the Portland market. Mr. Harry Cracker, of California, nephew of Henry D. Suggins, of Bate Creek, left by stage Saturday morning for Arlington.

J. H. Clayton, agent for the Racine Fire Extinguisher, and agent for the Mutual Protective Insurance Association of Portland, is in town. Judah Thompson, of Cotton Wood, is still very hot, and, considering the extremely hot weather and the age of the patient, it will require very careful nursing to get him out of bed at an early date.

A team left Fossil Tuesday for Arlington for the purpose of bringing out Mrs. C. L. Brown, of San Francisco, Cal., who will visit her brother, Coe D. Barnard, of this place, and other relatives in this vicinity the balance of the summer. W. W. Hoover and family, L. C. Kelley and family and others will leave the last of this week for Danville, where the men will hunt and fish, while the women will gather and can huckleberries. They expect to be gone about one month.

B. K. Sorey and party passed through town the first of the week from an extended hunting and fishing tour. They boast of having bagged one antelope, four deer and lots of fish. B. K. Sorey for the party and states that the crowd of four continued on the trip of fifteen days the following ration: deer, 1, 140 lbs.; deer, 3 lbs.; coffee, 27 lbs.; tea, 5 lbs.; beans, 50 lbs., besides the game killed.

The wheat crop is larger than was expected. Almost every field is making two to four bushels more to the acre than was expected. Wool buyers are offering 10 and 11 cts. for wool. The sheepmen are in a position to hold their wool this year, which works a hardship on the buyers.

Capt. Nelson has his new gasoline boat completed and his new gold washing machine installed. He expects to start up the river in a short time to go to work. His boat has a very comfortable cabin and otherwise fixed up for the purpose for which it was built.

No More Lieu Land. The indemnity school land, known as "lieu land," has been exhausted, and no more applications to purchase such land can be approved by the state land department. A bill was before congress authorizing the use of some 40,000 acres of land in the Cascade timber reserve as a further base for such selections, but it failed to become a law, and notice to that effect has been received by County Clerk Frazer from the State Land Department.
