LOCAL NEWS.

Miss Grace Cooke, teacher of Olex, is here attending institute.

The dining-room of the Condon Hotel was repaired this week.

Well, let's have that telephone line or some other telephone line.

Mr. and Mrs. Dave Spaulding, of Trail Fork, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Stephenson this week.

The Condon Hotel has a new ad this week, and it's true, too. When you are hungry, call at the Condon.

The new ad of the Shurtz & Wells Co. in this issue is worthy your attention. Read it and profit by its precepts.

FOUND—A blue ring, Oscar can have same by calling at this office, proving property and paying for this notice.

H. B. Hendricks has been appointed United States Commissioner for the district of Oregon, by Judge Bellinger of the U. S. District court.

W. J. Hight has secured the contract for carrying the mail between Arlington and Fossil. It is reported that the price is to be $2000 per year.

Anyone wishing to trade good 16 inch wood for a saddle or harness should call at the Condon harness shop and interview the proprietor, J. F. Reischer.

Miss Carrie Dannebaum, of Clem, is in town this week attending institute. Miss Dannebaum has charge of the Clem school this summer. She is the guest of Mrs. T. G. Johnson while in town.

H. B. Hendricks, U. S. Commissioner, cordially invites your patronage. Land filings and land proofs can be made through him. Proofs of claims may be made at your homes, at no additional cost to you.

The following persons received 3rd grade certificates at the teachers' examination held here last week: Naomi R. Stengel, of Matney Flat; Lulu Fitzwater, Condon; Lulu Keizer, Condon; H. A. Seagin, Ferry Canyon.

H. N. Frazer, clerk of Gilliam county, arrived down from Condon yesterday and will spend a couple of days in the Capital City, attending to some land matters. Mr. Frazer reports his county in prime condition as to all manner of crops. He is serving his third term as clerk of that bailiwick.—Salem Statesman.

No woman who marries an old soldier after June will be entitled to a pension if he dies. The old soldier with a comfortable pension has furnished inducements for many a designing woman, especially as his death does not stop the pension. But this will be changed next year, and the veteran who gets married after the time named will have the satisfaction of knowing that he furnishes all the attractions himself.—E.

P. H. Stephenson returned from Eugene last Saturday where he went on business connected with the John Linn estate, of which he is administrator. He found the business in better shape than he expected, the trunk and papers belonging to the murdered man being safe in the hands of the sheriff of Linn county. Frank Armstrong went down overlaid and is now on his way back with the horses, the market for that class of horses not being satisfactory to Mr. Stephenson at Eugene.

J. A. Richmond, of Ferry Canyon, returned last week from Oregon City, where he went about a month ago with a band of horses. He found the market good and was able to sell out at better prices than he anticipated. Mr. Richmond returned overlaid with a light rig and found it a pretty rough trip crossing the range. Forest fires are raging in the Cascades, making travel on the roads difficult on account of fallen timber. Fire wardens are kept busy fighting the fire but find it hard to effectually stamp it out.

J. W. Blake returned from Wooming somewhat unexpectedly, on Sunday's stage. He had the misfortune to lose his grip, containing his clothing and all of his papers, in a fire at Thermopolis, Wyo., a short time ago, and his trip home at this time is for the purpose of rendering necessary by the loss of his papers. Mr. Blake had left his grip in a big mercantile house in Thermopolis which was fired by an incendiary and completely destroyed. The firm's loss was $30,000, and there was no insurance.

We have just received a copy of an interesting pamphlet, from the press of the Heppner Gazette, and issued as a supplement to that paper, entitled "Heppner and Morrow Counties." It contains a concise and well written history of the county and city, with a description of their varied resources and industries, together with short, biographical sketches of leading citizens. The mechanical part of the work is excellent and, taken altogether, the pamphlet is one which every citizen of Morrow county should feel proud of. The management of the Gazette is to be congratulated on the excellent character of the work.

Teachers' Institute.

The annual Normal Institute, for teachers, is in session this week in the public school building in this city.

Prof. W. A. Wozel, of Portland, is present as instructor, and the large experience he has had in this line of work should insure a most profitable institute for the teachers of Gilliam county.

Twenty teachers were present yesterday and others are expected to be present before the session closes, which will not be until some time next week.

The following teachers were present yesterday:

Miss Mollie E. Harburt and Henry Cross, of Arlington; Miss Grace Cooke, of Olex; Miss Carrie Dannebaum, of Clem; Misses Mabel Halstead, Birdie Howland, Grace, Grace Fitzwater, Daisy Downing, Lorena Luffery, Lulu Keizer, Marie Musgrave and Myrtle Fitzwater, of Condon; R. A. McNulty and Miss Minnie Frickey, of Maxwell; S. M. Remway and Miss Lela Broussard, of Fossil, and Naomi Stengel, of Mouthout.

Judge Mariner Heard From.

Editor Condon Globe: I have read in your issue of the 11th inst. J. J. Nott's "protest" against the action of the county court in making an allowance for deputy line for the clerk and sheriff; also your review of the aforesaid "protest." Your article correctly sets forth the law in the case and the facts as the court understands them.

LONE ROCK.

Considerable sickness is yet reported about here.

The late war (domestic) has caused another grass widow in our burg.

J. M. Brown made a trip to Heppner with his team the first of the week.

Morgan Ward and his mother-in-law went to Condon the first of the week.

Due Brown, of Condon, was up visiting relatives in this place the fore part of the week.

L. W. Darling and wife, of Condon, spent a couple of days visiting friends here this week.

The baby of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Wright died last Monday. It was but a few days old.

Hunting grouse and riding wheels seem to be the order of the day with a good many people about our town.

Last Wednesday was the hottest day ever experienced in our locality. Some say that the mercury got so hot that it "boiled," but at any rate it was 100 in the shade, which is pretty tropical for this high altitude.

Quite a number of our people evidently want a new school teacher, from the way they have signed a remonstrance against the one the directors contracted with, and a general jangle seems to prevail in school affairs.

DIED—Thursday, Aug. 11, 1898, the 8 month-old child of Mr. and Mrs. N. Anderson. The interment took place Friday evening in the Lone Rock cemetery. The funeral sermon was preached by Rev. Clark. A deep sympathy is felt in our entire community for the bereaved parents in their time of sorrow and affliction.

CLERM.

Hon. Chas. Hilton was in Clem last week.

Miss Grace Cooke was a guest in this city Monday.

Mr. E. B. Aldrich is around delivering his books this week.

Miss Bertha Hill returned to her home in The Dalles Wednesday.

Quid Hoy has taken charge of the cooking department at the "Wayside Inn."

Miss Lura Welshons, who has been visiting with Miss McGuire at Arlington, has returned home.

There was no preaching in the Western school house as announced, owing to the illness of Rev. Barnhart.

Mr. Wm. Huxley has moved his family from Condon, and they are at present residing on Mr. Larch's place.

Mrs. W. Barker, also Mrs. El Cornett, went to Shurtler Fiat last Wednesday, where Mr. Barker is threshing. He will be in this section about Aug. 10th.

LOST VALLEY.

Hot! hot!—101 in the shade.

Mr. Henry Hughes is visiting at Lone Rock this week.

Mr. E. R. Sloan is sick, with what is feared to be lung fever.

F. W. Courtwright, of this place, has returned home, not having gone to the Coast, as intended.

Sam Baxter came over from Condon about last Saturday and paid us a visit. Come again, Mr. Baxter.

Mr. A. A. Anderson had a narrow escape the 10th inst. from being his dwelling by being burned by a timber fire that was started by parties unknown. The fire was fanned by a brisk wind, and the timely aid of several neighbors was all that saved Mr. Anderson's buildings.

We are having considerable fire in the timber this season. On the 8th inst. fire broke out close to Albert Smith's premises. Mr. Charles Moe took his team and plowed the ground around the premises, thereby preventing the chance of receding another loss by fire. Any one caught setting out fire, or leaving their camp-fire without first being sure that it is out will suffer the full penalty, as we have state laws that are unmistakably severe on such offenders. Life and property should not be allowed to be jeopardized by the carelessness of uninterested individuals.

FOSSIL.

Eugene Ward, of Independence, Polk county, is here, visiting his aunt, Mrs. Frazell.

Mr. John Blake, of Condon, passed through Fossil Tuesday on his way to day creek on business.

Mr. George S. Carpenter, of the firm of Stiver, Carpenter & Co., is still quite ill, but has hopes of being able to start to the Coast, sometime in the near future.

Tom Rhea, of Heppner, was in town Sunday looking over the country with the calculation of buying sheep for the fall market, but says sheep are too high for his market.

Chas. Prindle started his big threshing the first of the week on Frank Prindle's ranch, just east of town, and in a few hours threshed 800 bushels of barley and wheat. Pretty good for the first half-day, eh?

Mr. C. L. Prindle, of Cotton Wood, will start the last of the week, with his big threshing and complete outfit, for the Ferry Canyon country, where he has threshing enough engaged to keep him busy until snow flies, but Charlie is a red-hot No. 1 and will get through with it as soon as any one.

Prairie City.

It has been very dry and hot lately, for the high mountains, making feed rather short.

Condon sheep are in fairly good condition, some better than others. Those Dillon's band is the best, owing to the Comanally boys being with them.

Jim Dann is the champion "sorr dough" artist up here. Jim's bread is a poem but his appetite is one of the stern realities of life. After a hearty meal Jim actually looks fat.

Chas. L. Dugas, who is herding for L. Barker, killed a 9 foot cougar the other day for getting after his sheep.

We learn from the Globe that Palmer and Barr have started for the mountains. You should have "billed" them. They have not been heard of up here and we fear they are strayed or stolen.

There's a hot time in the old town of Prairie when the campers all meet there. Tap beer? Well we never tell tales out of school so you'll have to ask the other fellow.

Card of Thanks.

We wish to express our gratitude to our friends and neighbors who did so much to alleviate the sorrow of our household during our recent sad bereavement; also to thank the people of Lone Rock and vicinity for their kind services at the funeral of our beloved baby.

MR. AND MRS. H. N. ANDERSON.

OLEX.

P. Marvel has departed for Kansas. Rev. Brown is not improving very fast.

Fred Douglas purchased a new buggy last week.

T. C. Mabley is building a substantial new residence.

Last week E. O. Ralston sold a corner lot in Arlington to Mrs. D. Reed.

S. A. Foster is repairing the Clay hay press and will soon commence baling hay.

Mr. Blair is suffering from a swollen hand, and was taken to Arlington for repairs.

Chas. Oberherer was rushing through the streets of Olex last Monday at a rapid rate.

R. F. Yarnet has gone to his family at Ellensburg while the machinery for the mill is on the way here.

McGaughrin & Chamberlain's steam thrasher arrived at Olex last week and will soon be ready for threshing.

Mr. Slade, of Grants, was over the Arlington-Fossil stage route a few days ago. He does not think he can handle it for the amount offered.

We regret to learn of the destructive fire in The Dalles in which Paces & Gays and Max & Crow's extensive mercantile companies, together with two blocks, were entirely consumed by fire.

Last Saturday while Mr. Wm. Barker and wife were in the Olex store their back caught fire from some unknown cause and burned up his robe, whip, shoes for Mrs. Barker, and charred the inside of the back before it could be extinguished.

Business is rushing at Olex. Blacksmith shops, wagon shops, carpenters, store, and everything connected with Olex is run to its fullest capacity. When Olex gets her railroad out from Arlington she will be the head of "navigation" for Gilliam county. Come to Olex if you want satisfaction in any line.

Henry Billing, an old resident of this community, died on Saturday, August 15, 1898, of general debility. Mr. Billing had been in ill health for some time, and lately himself and his wife had been stopping at the home of J. C. Cooney and it was there he died. He was born in Northamptonshire, Eng., in 1828, and was married in 1852 to the woman who for 46 years has been his helpmate and companion, and who still survives him. To them were born ten children, all of whom are now dead.

The funeral occurred on Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock, the services being conducted in the church by Rev. W. H. Bier.
