LOCAL NEWS.

H. N. Frazer went to Portland Monday on a business trip. Joe Trevett was in town Sunday looking as pleasant as ever.

Prof. McCully went to Fossil Friday evening on important business. A fine new set of blackboards have been placed in the school house.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Edwards are at Portland this week taking in the Exposition. R. W. Crane, of Mayville, called at the Globe office Saturday and extended the glad hand.

Don't fail to call and see Dunn Bros.' fine new stock of ladies' dress goods, just received. The Glouss family are having so me living rooms built this week adjoining the Glouss office building.

Jim Cameron went to Lost Valley Monday to meet his sheep on their way from the summer range, in the mountains. W. G. Day, who has been driving stage for some time, has quit the job and gone back to the Valley.

Dr. J. H. Hudson has purchased three lots immediately south of H. N. Frazer's residence and will build a handsome residence on the same next season. Albert Henshaw, Jr., left Tuesday morning for Portland, where he will spend two or three weeks visiting friends and taking in the Industrial Exposition.

Miss Anna Stephens left Sunday for Cascade, Montana, where she will visit her father, and other friends, until spring. She will return to Oregon about May 1st. Dr. B. F. Nett, the well-known dentist of Fossil, will be in Condon in the near future prepared to do all kinds of work in his line.

Remember the ball at Armory hall on the 21st. Don't miss it. Oliver Barr is reported to be down with an attack of typhoid fever at The Dalles.

Rev. Burr preaches next Sunday at Mayville in the morning, and at Condon at night. Mrs. M. S. Eastman, of River Falls, Wis., is visiting her daughter, Mrs. G. G. Parman, whom she had not seen for fifteen years.

J. H. Downing left yesterday for his home at San Jose, Cal. His daughter Miss Dora Downing, will leave tomorrow and join him in Portland. Stuart Campbell and his brother, of Paperack, were in town for a few days during the week seeking a little recreation. They returned home yesterday.

Mrs. H. B. Hendricks narrowly escaped losing the sight of one of her eyes on Monday by a small piece of concentrated fly flying into it. The eye is badly inflamed and very painful. Geo. Schott was a pleasant caller at the Globe office yesterday. Mr. Schott has just returned from Westfall, Malheur county, where he has been all summer looking after his cattle interests in that section.

A ball will be given in Armory hall on Friday evening Oct. 21st, which all lovers of dancing should attend. The gentlemen in charge of the affair will have nothing to do but insure a first-class music will be in attendance and a good time is assured. Mrs. H. B. Hendricks received the sad news Monday afternoon that her brother, George G. Gilkinson, had died at his home in Douglas county on the 2nd inst. Deceased was a young man of excellent qualities and was universally loved and respected by all who knew him.

Dr. Bonham, the famous Dalles dentist, a graduate of Chicago Dental College, will be in Condon in the near future. Dr. Bonham paid Condon a professional visit last spring and has the reputation of being the most skilled dentist that ever visited Condon. The doctor will make regular visits to Condon, and those desiring the services of a thoroughly reliable dentist should wait for him. Andrew Patterson and John Dyart, who have been spending the summer visiting at their old home in Scotland, arrived home on Tuesday. Mr. Dyart brought home with him, a bonnie Scotch lassie for a wife, and he will be kept busy for some time to come receiving the congratulations of his many Oregon friends.

House cleaning is the order of the day at S. B. Barker's store this week. Mr. Barker has just received a fine line of merchandise from the East in which buyers will be interested. W. W. Steiwer, of Fossil, was through town last week to and from Arlington, where he went to meet Mrs. Steiwer on her way home from a visit with friends at Salem and other points in the Valley.

J. R. Clark and Geo. Tatum came in from Mrs. Maley's last Friday, having finished the carpenter work on a fine new residence there. The house is described as one of the very best, in point of elegance and convenience, in Gilliam county. Frank Pitter, Edgar Moore, Myron Clarke, G. W. Rinehart, Geo. Dukes, H. B. Hendricks and Mrs. Al Idenhaw returned Sunday from Portland, where they attended the Industrial Exposition. They all report a good show and a pleasant time generally.

Miss Anna Ogilvie, who got out a very creditable number of the Fossil Journal last week, during Editor Stewart's absence at Portland, was a passenger on the stage Monday on her way to her home in Lane county, after a very pleasant visit with friends in Fossil. Four, six and eight-horse teams are plentiful on the road these days. Thousands of bushels of wheat are moving toward the railroad and tons and tons of freight are being brought back to the interior. The "Inland Empire" is booming already, and the best part of the season is yet to come.

LONE ROCK. Our popular merchant, P. L. Ham, last week received the appointment of P. M. and at once filed his bond for the same. Geo. Perry and Bob Johnson started to Portland Monday to attend the K. of P. Grand Lodge. W. H. Colwell is in our burg looking after business interests for a few days. He just came from Lone, where he has been putting in some of the new lights which some party in Arlington is agent for.

J. B. Goff returned last week from Portland, where he had been for the purpose of placing his 16-year-old son Jesse in the Portland University. Mr. Goff was much pleased with what he saw of the school in the short time he was there. Ed Wineand is making preparations to move his large hall from its present location to the corner south of the Lone Rock Hotel. P. L. Ham will move his stock of merchandise into it as soon as it arrives at the new location. Mr. Goff will have the contract for moving the building for $80.

Ed Wineand and one of his boys and Chas. and Lou Stevens returned last week from their horse selling trip to Walla Walla. While there Lou Stevens had the misfortune to get his leg broken by a horse, but he is now able to get about. They say it is almost impossible to sell a horse at any price up there. They brought nearly half of their horses back with them. Last week George Wick and Annie Wineand "stole a march" on the old man while he was away from home selling mules, and took a short pleasure trip over to Goldendale, Wash. While they were there the young lady became of marriageable age, and the knot was tied and they nearly beat the old man. The boys gave them a tin food sack and some candy. Of course Chas. treated, and all went away happy, with good wishes for the newly mated Mr. and Mrs. Wick.

OLEX. Mrs. Woodland is improving. Stock is being invoiced in the store at Olex. Ed Hofer arrived at his home in Olex last night. He is much improved in health. Fred Dorler arrived in Olex last week from Annesville. He says he has enough of the Valley and has come back to stay. Mr. J. A. Cram died last Saturday and was buried Sunday. A large crowd of sorrowing friends gathered to pay tribute to a respected friend.

Last Monday L. O. Halston sold his Olex store to Tobey Bros., of Arlington. They are a strong financial firm, and they will likely startle the Olex people with low prices. We wish them success. If the Columbia Southern Co. wants a good route for Condon they can get the best by coming down the valley canyon, crossing the John Day river below the mouth of Rock creek and coming up Rock creek to Olex. We suggest that the people of Olex correspond with Pres. Lytle.

Mr. Herbert Halstead has gone to Fossil to reside while her husband is over at the Wineand mill. Mr. Ellis Hughes returned home this week from the Walla Walla country, where he had been harvesting. Mrs. T. C. Livingston returned to her home in Mayville Sunday for a visit while Tom is at the Wineand mill. Mr. L. E. Thompson, of Backhorn, started the 10th inst. for Dr. Wash, to see his wife and child, his child having been very sick the past month.

We are pleased to chronicle the fact that Mrs. Chas. Mote, of this place, is fast recovering from her recent serious illness and will soon be able to be about. Mr. Albert Smith, of this place, has moved with his family over to the Old Robinson place, at the crossing on Rock creek, on the Heppner-Lone Rock road, where they will reside this winter. The Lost Valley Lumbering Company shot down last Saturday night. Herbert Halstead and crew is now over at the Wineand mill, where they expect to remain about two weeks, and run the saw mill and also the shingle mill and planer, then return to start up their mill, which will be run at its fullest capacity until snow flies.

FOSSIL. Dr. Paul Grant left for Antelope the 9th inst. Mr. Ax, the Arlington insurance man, is in town. Mrs. Jos. Frizzell is quite sick, with Mrs. Dr. Shaw in attendance. Mrs. E. Meek, of Ferry Canyon, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. J. H. Putnam. J. H. Putnam has lumber, etc. on the ground to build an addition to his dwelling. Chas. Prindle and his crew are moving McCallum's butcher shop from behind the McKinzie hotel to the east side of Main street, just south of the barber shop.

Mr. H. R. Ramsey, of Beecher Flat, was in town the first of the week and purchased a big fine team of bay horses of Ted Whitehead, who was on his way to the Valley. The price paid was $80. Coe D. Barnard left the first of the week for Antelope, where he has a race horse in training for the Stockman's Fair to be held at that place this week. The horse that beats Coe's will know he has been in a race. Mrs. Annie Colby sold her ranch, at the mouth of Bridge creek, Crook county, last week to Mr. E. Harte, the consideration being $6,000. The ranch consists of 640 acres of land, and something like 150 tons of good alfalfa hay was counted in the sale.

When price is low, the chances are quality is low too. The prices of Schilling's Best tea, baking powder, coffee, flavoring extracts and spices are not low—they are fair. The quality is high. For sale by Dunn Brothers. Fruit Trees! Fruit Trees! Wm. B. Neidemeyer, agent for The Vancouver Nursery Co., is making a thorough canvass of this section of Gilliam county in the interest of his firm. If you need fruit, shade or ornamental trees, small fruit, shrubbery, etc. you should reserve your order until he calls.

Recent Deaths. Crum. J. A. Cram, an old resident of Olex, and a man well known throughout the county, died at his home, on Rock creek, on Saturday, Oct. 8, 1893, of typhoid fever. The deceased was aged about 55 years and had been a resident of Gilliam county for the past 15 years, coming here from Aurora, Marion county. He was married in Grande Ronde valley about 25 years ago to Miss Sarah Rinehart, a sister of G. W. Rinehart, of this city. This is the fourth death recorded in Mr. Cram's family within the last month, three of his grown sons having succumbed to the same disease within that time. The surviving members of the family have the heart-felt sympathy of the entire county in their terrible affliction.

Washburn. Royal Washburn, a young boy aged about 15 years, died very suddenly at the Woodfin ranch, on Trail Fork, on Sunday, the 9th inst. He had been in his usual health until Sunday morning, when he complained of a severe pain in his head and went to the house and laid down. As the pain did not abate, those who were with him went to another room to prepare some remedy and when they returned to the boy they found that he was dead. The funeral occurred on Monday. Thompson. Josiah Thompson, an old resident of Gilliam county, died at his home on Cottonwood, near Fossil, on Thursday, Oct. 6th, aged 61 years. He was well known and highly respected by a large circle of friends. He leaves a widow, four sons and one daughter to mourn his death. The funeral occurred Saturday at Fossil.

Social Dance. A pleasant social dance was indulged in by the young folks last Friday night in Armory hall. A sufficient number were present to run three quadrilles, and everybody had a good time. An appetizing lunch was served to the dancers at the Condon Hotel at midnight, after which the dancing continued well into the "wee sun" hours.

NON-ALCOHOLIC. No man who lives on meat was ever known to flick his wife, or sell a divorce. A vegetable diet woman is as cold and clammy as a turnip. If you want your girl to have rosy cheeks and vitals in her motion, feed her on beef steak with occasional doses of Dr. Hassen's Tonic Bitters. Sold everywhere.
