

THE CONDON GLOBE.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 24, 1898.

THE OFFICIAL PAPER OF GILLIAM COUNTY, OREGON.

Every man in Eastern Oregon, Eastern Washington and Northern Idaho who is interested in the development of this vast region of rich and varied resources should continue, in season and out of season, to insist on their delegates in congress working diligently for an open river from Lewiston to the sea. Water transportation is what is needed to develop the possibilities of this inland Empire, and there should be no dilly-dallying about getting it. It will require plenty of vim and pluck and hard work to accomplish the end desired but it must be accomplished sooner or later, and we believe the delegations of the three states named have the ability to do the work if they receive the proper support from their constituents.

There are 1200 islands in the Philippine group, and when they become a part of Uncle Sam's domain each island will require a custom collector and other federal officers without number. What a boon for the hungry office-seeker that will be. Every wardheeler in the country should be taken care of, in good shape, in the future.

A Morrow county schoolman told one of her pupils to name the presidents, and when he replied that he couldn't, the teacher said: "When I was as old as you, I could name all the presidents in their order." The boy replied with more candor than politeness: "There were only a few presidents then."

Admiral Dewey is to return to America in December, and every American will delight to do him honor. Hurrah for Dewey! Kill the fatted calf and the biggest turkey. There's nothing too good for the hero of Manila bay.

The legislature should think twice before making any appropriation for the state fair, no matter whether it is held at Salem or Portland. We should have a state fair, by all means, and it should be held at Portland, the metropolis of the state and of the Northwest, but Portland should pay the fiddler. Portland can well afford to take the fair without any appropriation and still make big money from it.

OLEX.

The residence of L. O. Ralston with its contents, burned yesterday. Nothing saved. Loss fully $4500 with $2000 insurance. Mrs. Ralston had her hair and eyebrows burned out not seriously. The furniture was being packed for shipment and it is supposed one of the children set fire to some excelsior that was on the porch. The family are stopping at Mr. Randall's for the present.

A Poverty Social will be given at Olex Saturday evening, Nov. 26, for benefit of school. Literary program, lunch and games. Prizes for most poverty-stricken person present, and best-dressed person will be fined two-bits. Admission free. Come.

W. E. Reed's 12-year-old son was kicked in the face by a horse a few days ago and had one of his eyes put out. He was brought here for medical treatment. Their home is in the Olex country.

Harry Mason, the tinner of this place, fell from the top of a two-story house the first of the week and came near losing his life, but escaped with a few broken ribs. He will soon be able to go to work again.

The Ladies' Aid Society gave a basket social last Friday to raise funds to carry on their good work. It was a grand success in every particular, netting them $58. For reasons best known to the buyer, some of the baskets sold for $5.

Andy Carothers went over to Ellensburg last week to do some work on his quartz mine, and his brother having several claims there. They were offered $10,000 for them while there, but refused the offer, as they are very promising properties.

A subscription list was in circulation here this week for the aid of the sufferers of the Canyon City fire. Every one gave freely and felt at if they were giving to people in need—to people that but a few weeks ago could, and would have helped others.
