LOCAL NEWS.

W. J. Edwards was over from Mayville Saturday. Bert Wells is building a new cellar at the Condon Hotel.

George Angell was called to Fossil Monday morning by the serious illness of his little son Lloyd, who lives with his grandmother, Mrs. Meteer, at that place.

Harry Halstead, a sawmill man, of Gilliam county, called at this office the 30th ult. He is looking over Grant county with a view of putting in a sawmill plant.—Long Creek Eagle.

Don't overlook the new ad of Tobey Bros., of Olex, which appears in this issue. This well-known firm has purchased the stock of L. O. Ralston at that place and are prepared to make every word of their advertisement good.

An undertaker in an Idaho town recently received the following letter: "Sar, my wife is dead and wants to be buried tomorrow at 10 o'clock; you no whar to dig the hole in the side of my other 2 wife—let it be deep."

Dr. L. P. Mullinnix, the eminent physician and surgeon, with his assistant, will be at the Maddock Hotel, Condon, Dec. 14th, 15th and 16th; Mayville Hotel, Mayville, Dec. 17th and 18th; McKenale Hotel, Fossil, Dec. 19th, 20th and 21st. Consultation free to all.

Our esteemed neighbor, the Arlington Record, takes us to task for an item which appeared in this column two weeks ago in regard to the "mail route."

Our Lone Rock correspondence came too late for this issue. If you want Xmas Presents, Toys, Christmas Wares, Bells, etc., call at Compton & George's, Arlington, Or.

The report that Condon is the most windy place on earth is unfounded. Charlie Fix has been chopping barley by horse power this week, for the simple reason that there is not enough wind to drive his big wind engine that ordinarily furnishes motive power for his establishment.

An ordinance was introduced in the city council, at their meeting Monday night, providing for a license of $2.50 per day on all traveling and advertising doctors who practice their profession in the city.

Condon Camp, No. 33, Woodmen of the World, held an election of officers on Thursday evening of last week, and the following officers were elected for the ensuing term: S. A. Pattison, Con-ndl Commander; J. F. Reisacher, Ad-visor; Lieberman, Ed. Nelson, Banker; J. R. Frazer, Clerk; Rundle Palmer, Excort; James Cameron, Watchman; W. L. Wilcox and W. A. Darling, Managers.

Manley Downing's six-horse team included in a lively runaway the other evening. They started on Oregon street near Hendricks' law office, turned down Spring street to Main, and then turned north. Just above Hendricks' & Co.'s saloon they got too close to the water main ditch and three of the horses piled up in it.

The new Masonic building is rapidly nearing completion. The building is a neat and handsome structure and is a credit to the town. The first floor contains two handsome and commodious store rooms, one of which will be occupied by Dr. J. H. Hudson's drug store, and the other by J. F. Reisacher's hardware and shoe store.

On Tuesday, Dec. 6th a merry crowd of invited guests assembled at the home of W. J. Edwards to witness the marriage of Mr. James W. Dyer and Miss Emma B. Edwards, Rev. Burr, of Condon, performing the marriage ceremony in a very impressive manner.

The happy couple were made the recipients of many beautiful and valuable presents, of which the following is a list: Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Edwards, a fine Jersey milk cow; Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Shelton, set of sauce dishes; Mr. and Mrs. I. A. Henderson, rug; Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Stinchfield, set of goblets; W. G. Keys and wife and Wm. Keys and wife, fine hanging lamp; Misses Alice and Mary Keys, decorated water set; Mr. and Mrs. John McConnell, pair linen towels; Ira Carter, set of silver spoons; Geo. B. Duke, set of silver knives and forks; Mr. and Mrs. Al McConnell, glass water pitcher; Mrs. Ella Rinehart, mantle lambrequin; Mrs. Sadie, decorated China fruit dish; Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Livingston, majolica bread plate; Mrs. Nettie Anderson, set of glass sauce dishes; Miss Maggie Wilson, pair of linen towels; Laura Simmons, silver soap ladle; Frank Simmons,; Charlie Dyer, set of decorated sauce dishes; Maude Hankins, salt and pepper shaker.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwards received several handsome presents as follows: Mrs. Simmons, pair of vases; calendar for 1899; Mrs. Ella Rinehart, tinted cracker jar.

"Above The Clouds." An interesting drama, bearing the above title, will be presented in Armory hall on Friday evening, December 23rd by a home talent company. The play is a good one and no trouble or time will be spared by the company to produce it in a first-class manner.

Time for Purchasing Railroad Forfeited Lands Expires January 1, 1899.

Parties having lately handed County Clerk Frazer a letter, signed by the officials of the U. S. Land Office at The Dalles, dated Jan. 10, 1898, wherein it was stated that claimants were entitled to purchase, under the Forfeiture Act, at any time before Dec. 31, 1899.

Mr. Frazer forwarded the letter to the Dalles Land Office, and asked for an explanation and their opinion as to the expiration of time within which settlers could purchase their lands; and the following reply was received: "UNITED STATES LAND OFFICE, The Dalles, Ore., Dec. 5, 1898, Ma. H. N. FRAZER, County Clerk, Condon, Oregon.

DEAR SIR:— In reply to your favor of the 21 inst., I will say: The Act of Congress, approved February 18, 1897, provides that the lands forfeited by Act of September 29, 1890, may be purchased at any time prior to January 1, 1899, page 535, R. S.

So, it appears that there is no doubt about the end of the present year being the limit within which R. R. forfeited lands can be purchased.

FOSSIL.

George Duke, of Mayville, was in town Saturday and Sunday. The ground was barely covered with snow and the thermometer registered 10 above zero on Tuesday.

Mr. Milton Scott, of Fossil, has sold one of his fine Jacks to Mr. Sloan, of Lost Valley, for the sum of $300. George Angell, who has been running Louis Barker's sheep the past summer, while in the mountains, is in town for a few days.

J. W. Gillman will winter some 300 or 400 head of cattle on Mayville Flat, where he has bought straw from a number of ranchers.

The new mail contractor between here and Arlington seems to be well pleased with the route, and, so far, has made good time, considering the bad condition of the roads.

Mr. C. E. Miller, who has been a resident of Fossil and vicinity for the past 10 or 12 years, and who was known by all to be a hard working, upright, honorable man in every respect, left last week for the Sound country, in Wash., to join his wife and daughter. Mr. Miller thinks he will not stay in that country long, but will visit the Colville country in the spring, as he thinks there is a great opening in that country for a hard working man.

ARLINGTON.

The first good rain of the season fell here last week. The weather has been foggy here for the past few days, the first of the season to amount to anything.

R. S. Robinson, of Lone Rock, was in town the first of the week attending to his interest in the water company. The Arlington bowling team bowled the Goldenstate team here last Saturday, getting defeated by 24 pins. The Goldenstate boys now have about 90 pins the best of our boys, but there are two more games to roll off yet. The last game stood 530 to 551.

R. M. Johnson and wife, of Lone Rock, were Arlington visitors last week. Mr. Johnson spent several days killing geese while here. He only got about 20, but says it was not his fault that he didn't get more. The goose season is about over, as the greater part of them have gone south.

It is not generally known that Gilliam county has a grove of walnut trees, but such is the case. Seven miles south of Arlington, near the Junction House, there is about 100 walnut trees that bore about 50 bushels of nuts last year and quite a lot this year. The trees grow thickly and without irrigation, proving that walnuts will do well in this part of the state. There is also a few hickory trees that are doing fine in the same grove.

Preparations are being made to have a fine Christmas tree here by the two Sunday schools uniting and having one tree. There is also some talk of having a shooting match and other attractions. Santa Claus has been around and left lots of pretty things at the different stores. We suppose he intends for the kids to buy their own presents this year, as times are good, and he is getting along in years anyway and feels as though he had already done his share by leaving his stock of Christmas goods with the kind-hearted merchants who have never forgotten the good little boys and girls on Christmas.
