THE CONDON GLOBE.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 12, 1899.

THE OFFICIAL PAPER OF GILLIAM COUNTY, OREGON.

It is probable that a bill will be passed by the present legislature prohibiting the "crimping" business in Portland and other ports of the state. "Crimps" are a class of men who conduct sailor boarding houses, and who, in addition to that business, decoy sailors from their vessels, hold them until the vessel sails and then demand a big commission from the next vessel needing a crew. It is a pernicious practice, and Portland is said to enjoy the most unsavory reputation of any port on the globe along that line. It is a system of slavery and should be stamped out if to do so it were necessary to sink every "crimp" in the state in the Pacific ocean.

County Court Proceedings.

STATE OF OREGON, } ss
County of Gilliam }

I, H. N. Frazer, county clerk of said Gilliam county, hereby certify that the foregoing transcript has been by me carefully compared with, and is a true copy, and the whole thereof of the original docket entries of the county court proceedings of Gilliam county, Or., Jan. term, 1899.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my official seal this 7th day of January, 1899. H. N. FRAZER, County Clerk.

Messrs. Greenfield, Woodfin and Stahl were in from the Lost Valley neighborhood last Thursday evening attending the Woodman installation.

S. D. Fletcher and Robert B. Poag of Canada and W. J. Russell of Ireland were granted their final papers and made full American citizens by the late session of the county court.

A great deal of land is being homesteaded in this county. It is estimated that not one acre in fifty of the arable land in central Gilliam county has yet been cultivated, and that when the railroad comes near enough to make farming profitable, it will get a yearly haul of three million bushels of wheat from the south half of Gilliam county.—Fossil Journal.

The Oregon Statesman is out with an excellent holiday edition of 30 pages. The number is printed on fine book paper, and the typographical work is first-class. It is replete with information concerning the principal industries of Salem and the surrounding counties and is a credit to the city and the state. The management of the Statesman is to be congratulated on the excellence of their number.

Bud Roberts, who was recently apprehended at Heppner, has confessed to the stealing of a buckboard, team and harness at Dayton, Wash., also to the larceny of 5 head of horses and 15 head of cattle at Walla Walla. He is now in the custody of Sheriff Lydon, of Lewiston, Idaho. Roberts is also wanted in Montana. It has only been about eight months since he was released from the penitentiary at Walla Walla, where he served a two and a half years' term for cattle stealing.

LOOKING AHEAD.

LOOKING AHEAD.

'Long about a month ahead,
Dad, he grinned and laughed and said:
"Jim, when that new baby 'rives—
If he takes a-hold an' thrives—
Guess we'll name him Dewey, hey?—
The hero of Manila Bay;
Or, perhaps, though, Robson'd
Be better yet," says dad to me.

'Long about a week before,
Dad an' me, we talked it o'er;
I said "Ashley," but dad, he 'lowed
"Dewey" best o' the whole blame crowd.
Ma, she didn't say a word—
Only smiled, like, when she heard—
* * * * *
Say, that baby's name is Rees!
Dad an' me, we lost our guess.

LOOKING AHEAD for a good place to trade is laudable and perfectly proper. We will please you. We will satisfy you. We will meet your wants, be they large or small, at the fairest prices.
