Miss Alice Bartmiss, of Portland, arrived here Saturday and is the guest of Mrs. W. S. Myers.

W. L. Tobey, of the firm of Tobey Bros., has been appointed postmaster at Olex, vice L. O. Ralston, resigned.

The present is the heaviest snowfall that has visited this section of country since the "hard winter" ten years ago.

Mrs. Ella Rinehart, Mayville's popular postmistress, visited friends and attended to business in the probate court here last week.

Wm. Black, of Mayville, was brought before Judge Neale yesterday on a charge of insanity. His examination was in progress at a late hour last evening.

During the month of December the forfeited railroad lands purchased by residents of this community, at County Clerk Frazer's office, amounted to the sum of $11,200.

William Werhli, of Mayville, passed through here Monday in a sleigh, bound for Arlington, where he went to meet Mrs. Werhli on her return from a visit with friends in California.

W. L. Wilcox left Monday morning for Salem, where he goes to have a peep at the wise men of the Oregon legislature now in session assembled. He expects to be absent about a week.

H. C. Strickland was in town Monday. He says the range horses are slowly starving to death, and that if the present weather continues many weeks they will mostly be out of their misery.

DIED—On Thursday, January 10, 1899, at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. W. S. Myers, Mrs. Margaret Phillips aged about 80 years. The funeral will take place at 11 o'clock today from the church.

Frank Parker has been quite ill for the past week and, being without relatives or means of support, is being taken care of by the county. He is receiving good attention and nursing at the home of Joseph Parrazo

Charlie and Lon Stevens were in from Lone Rock Tuesday. They report stock looking fairly well in their section and hay enough to run them, unless we have an exceptionally hard winter from this time on.

BORN—Friday, Jan. 6, 1899, to the wife of Jim Brown, of Sniption, a son and heir, whose weight was nine pounds. Jim expects to initiate the youngster in the mysteries of coyote hunting with hounds as soon as the snow goes off.

C. S. and Oscar Jayne, two young men from Heppner, have purchased 480 acres of land from Ray Hanson, which is located about five miles west of town, and have taken possession of the same. They expect to engage in the stock business.

Houlton had a very successful Christmas tree. A short programme was rendered, one of the leading features of which was the vocal solo by Miss Birdie Henshaw, of University Park. Miss Henshaw returned to Portland with her aunt, Mrs. D. Henshaw, on Thursday.—Oregon Mist.

A young justice of the peace in Barren valley tied his first matrimonial knot the other day, and became so rattled in the performance that at the close of the ceremony he asked the groom if "cussing was kistomary." And he didn't kiss the bride.—Baker City Republican.

A report has reached here that Bernhart Geidy, who left here about one month ago to visit a sister in Abilene, Texas, is dangerously ill at that place, and that his recovery is considered doubtful. Mr. Geidy's health has been poor for some time and his many friends here will regret to hear of the sudden change for the worse.

Dr. Shaw, of Fossil, was in town last Thursday on professional business and, feeling as though he needed something that was beyond his own skill, called at this office, had his case diagnosed and received a presciption for 52 doses of the GLOBE. The first dose was taken on the spot, and the genial doctor declared that he felt perfectly able to drive back to Fossil.

The following new officers were installed and inducted into office at the regular meeting of Condon Camp W. O. W., on last Thursday evening: S. A. Pattison, Consul Commander; P. H. Stephenson, Adviser Lieutenant; J. R. Frazer, Clerk; Rundle Palmer, Escort; E. A. Nelson, Banker; James Cameron, Watchman; Frank Pliter, Sentry; W. L. Wilcox and W. A. Darling, Managers.

We understand that three of our best-known citizens secured a controlling interest in one of Baker county's most famous gold mines, last week, without being out a cent. The property was given them by an old friend who had more gold mines than he wanted, and it is expected that the next time he strikes town he will pass around a handful of diamonds.

To Build a Court House.

A delegation of representative citizens of this place appeared before the county court on Saturday and laid before that body a proposition looking to the early erection of a suitable court house for Gilliam county.

The proposition was based on the fact that the present structure, in which are located the county offices, is entirely inadequate to the needs of the county, that a large majority of the taxpayers of the county are believed to be in favor of the erection of a suitable building, and that the present is perhaps as opportune a time to make the necessary improvement as any time in the future will be. The proposition was accompanied by a city warrant for $500 and a guarantee from the people of this city for $500 additional, making $1,000 which the city of Condon agrees to donate toward a court house for Gilliam county.

The matter was discussed at length by the members of the court and the visitors, and during the discussion both of the Commissioners expressed themselves as being of the opinion that the county needs a new court house, and that it should be built without further delay. Judge Mariner, however, appeared to wish to adopt more dilatory tactics, and, while he admitted that the county seat is unquestionably permanently located at Condon, that a new court house will have to be built sometime, and that the county can well afford to build it now, and that it can be done without either jeopardizing the credit of the county, or becoming a preceptable burden on the taxpayers, still he seemed to think that the matter might be laid over for a year or two.

It was finally decided to allow the matter to go over to the next meeting and during the interim the members of the court will post themselves as to the real sentiment of the people on the matter. It seemed to be the unanimous opinion of the court that if a house is built it should be a substantial, brick structure, one that would answer the purpose for which it is intended for years to come, and it was believed that such a building could be erected for something like $6,000.

Birthday Party.

Mr. Wilkinson White, of Trail Fork, celebrated his 73d birthday on Sunday, there being about 20 of his friends present to wish him many happy returns of the day.

The old gentleman is hale and hearty for a man of his years and guests at his comfortable home are always royally entertained by himself and his family. Those present from this place were, P. H. Stephenson, Jean Lebous and John Gross.

State Tax Levy Made.

SALEM, Or., Jan. 5.—The state tax levy for 1899 will be 5 7-10 mills, against 3½ mills for 1898. This decision was reached by the governor, secretary of state and state treasurer at a meeting held today, when they inspected the summaries of assessment rolls of all the counties in the state, which they obtained at the secretary of state's office. The amount expected to be raised has not yet been made public.

The increase in this year's levy over that of last year is due to unexpected items in the general appropriation bill passed at the special session of the legislature, including $41,000 for the legislature of 1897, which did not organize; $33,000 for the purchase of the branch asylum site at Union; $25,000 for the replacing of the burned buildings of the state agricultural college at Corvallis, and $15,000 for the expenses of the Oregon commission at the Omaha exposition.

Resolutions of Respect.

WHEREAS, Our esteemed neighbor, John A. Linn, having, on the 15th day of June, 1898, been made the victim of murder most foul, being shot down by the hand of one whom he believed to be his friend, and his body dismembered and almost totally cremated by the fiendish hands of those who had been his companions and messmates, and

RESOLVED, That we, the members of Condon Camp No. 58 W. O. W., do most deeply deplore the horrible and tragic manner of his death, and that our most tender sympathies are hereby extended to his brother and sisters in their distant eastern homes, whose bereavement must be all the more bitter because of the shocking manner of his demise.

RESOLVED, That we heartily commend the vigilance and energy displayed by the officials of Lane county, Oregon, in which county the crime was committed, in the speedy conviction of the murderer and his accomplice.

RESOLVED, That your committee recommend that our lodge room be draped in mourning for a period of 30 days as a mark of respect to our deceased neighbor.

Range horses are faring very poorly just now and many of them must give up in despair and give their carcasses to the prior occupants of the country—the coyotes.

We have had 10 inches of snow for a week, which is more than we have had before for many years. It may cause the stockmen some inconvenience, but will be of much benefit to the wheat crop in this section of the county.

At the late city election at this place the following officers were elected: For mayor, Ross Beardsley; for councilmen, A. W. Sharrard, W. H. Colwell, O. S. Ebi, T. W. Compton; recorder, H. Crass; treasurer, F. T. Hurlburt.

Al. Smith, of this place, who, with Brick Balding, has been hauling wood to Condon this winter, was seriously injured by a runaway at Black Butte last Friday. The team started to run down the grade, and Al. was thrown from his seat and alighted on his head and shoulders on the frozen ground. He was rendered unconscious for several hours, but was getting all right again at last accounts.

At present the health of the neighbors is good with the exception of Mr. Boyer, whose health is very poor.

Cold and blustering is the new year. It almost makes one feel blue to look out, but we must not forget the many blessings and days of sunshine we have enjoyed in the past year.
