

From the way trusts are being formed lately it begins to look as though the small manufacturer and tradesman will have to soon "trust" in God for a livelihood.

The next thing in order in the trust line should be the organization of a universal trust big enough and rich enough to gobble up all the other trusts now in existence.

A striking example of "the ruling passion strong in death" is found in the telegraphic reports of the death of Joseph Medill, editor-in-chief of the Chicago Tribune, which occurred at San Antonio, Texas, on the 16th inst.

It remains to be seen whether the next congress will be a congress for the people or for the tinplate trust. In the three months in which the trust has been in existence the price of tinplate has been advanced 75 cents per box.

Admiral George Dewey has emphatically stated that he is not and never will be a candidate for the presidency, and while there are none who doubt his sincerity in making the statement, there are many who believe that the hero of Manila Bay may be mistaken in this matter, if in no other.

Oscar Lund, of Cove, will plant this spring a new kind of potato, which he brought from Europe, and which is considered a prize variety there.

A good story is told at Washington, D. C., on Representative Tongue. Wu Tingfang, the Chinese minister, is a great society man, Since congress decided not to grant any franchises in Cuba the people interested in trusts and other monopolies will not care much whether the United States take up "The White Man's Burden" by retaining the Gem of the Antilles or not.—Cannonburg (Pa.) Notes.

ARLINGTON.

Green peas, lettuce, radishes and asparagus are in the market here now.

Crops are reported as being in fine condition as a rule, with the ground also in good shape.

The city will put in a new boiler in its pumping plant in a short time. The order has been placed with an Eastern firm.

Several parties have made application for city bonds which will be issued in a short time. One firm offered a good premium for them.

Mr. Miles Shurtz slipped off last week and got married. What do you think of that? It seems to be epidemic here and very contagious. Only three within a week.

Frank Hurlbert was establishing the street and grade lines the first of the week. Some few found that their houses are in the street by several feet, having placed them on their lots by guess.

are supposed to cost more money than those which have been out some time, but we are selling new goods as reasonably as ever.

The following nicely illustrates some people: Assistant (to employer)—Please sir, what shall I mark this new lot of silk?

Employer—Mark the selling price at a dollar and a half a yard.

Assistant—But the cost price is four bits a yard.

Employer—Don't care what it cost. We are selling off regardless of cost.

We are not selling that way, but we have some new and handsome shirt waists and undershirts, JUST IN which we are selling cheap. Ask to see them. Many are already sold. Our large, new spring stock, consisting of all kinds of merchandise, is already on the way here. Wait and see it.

Do you want a fine six-hole range, with complete furniture, for $40.00? We have it.

Have you seen our line of machinery? Everything from a Right Lap, Stockton or New Departure Gang Plow, to the latest helps for harvest. Investigate.
