

Hon. Francis Pierpont, the first governor of West Virginia, died at Pittsburg on the 24th inst. He was 86 years of age and was the last of the "war governors."

Portland consumes 24,000,000 gallons of water per day. Most Portlanders use water for a "chaser" after taking a drink of whiskey which will account for the large consumption of aqua pura.

Canonsburg (Pa.) and Fairmount (W. Va.) claim to be the only towns on earth that can boast of negro hotel proprietors, and if these towns were a few hundred miles farther south they would not boast much about it.

Li Hung Chang is about to be returned to power in China. It looked for awhile as though Li might be Hung by his enemies, but Hung wisely decided to Li low and bide his time. Chang may live "chu hang" his political enemies yet.

The Minnesota legislature has passed a bill authorizing the parole of the Younger brothers, who are serving life terms in the penitentiary of that state for certain exploits committed in the bank and train robbery line. If the Youngers are paroled their first job should be to assume the role of "fool killers" and "hold up" that legislature in good old Missouri style.

The plan outlined in Dr. Blacklock's statement in another column of this impression, for the construction of boats on the Columbia, portage roads around the rapids and spur roads to points in the interior, will, if carried out, prove of inestimable value in the development of the Inland Empire. The Columbia is Nature's highway, and any plan that will give the producer the benefit of cheaper transportation will be gladly welcomed by everybody.

The city of Portland, and the entire state of Oregon, will be honored in July by the presence of the National Editorial Association. It will not be an empty honor, however, but the visit of these bright pencil pushers from all over the country will redound to the material advancement of the state in more ways than one. It will not only prove a first-class advertisement for Oregon, but it will give our eastern brothers a chance to see and get acquainted with western people and western ways. Many eastern people have no conception of what the western two-thirds of our great common country is, and this trip will be a revelation to them. It will pay them to come and it will pay us to have them come, and as hosts Oregon people should spare no trouble or expense to show them the elephant in first-class style.

are supposed to cost more money than those which have been so some time, but we are selling new goods as reasonably as ever.

The following nicely illustrates some people: Assistant (to employer)—Please sir, what shall I mark this new lot of silk?

Employer—Mark the selling price at a dollar and a half a yard. Assistant—But the cost price is four bits a yard.

Employer—Don't care what it cost. We are selling off regardless of cost.

We are not selling that way, but we have some new and handsome shirt waists and undershirts, JUST IN which we are selling cheap. Ask to see them. Many are already sold. Our large, new spring stock, consisting of all kinds of merchandise, is already on the way here. Wait and see it.
