LOCAL NEWS.

John Welmar of Olex, transacted business here last Thursday.

P. H. Stephenson is having his building repainted this week. S. S. Orider and Frank Pliter are doing the work.

Joe Trevett is the boss coyote hunter so far heard from. He has brought in 34 scalps already and he is still after them.

H. R. Ramsey, the celebrated maker of good butter, of Beecher Flat, was in town Saturday on his first trip of the season.

Josh Hardy sheared 155 head of sheep at Alex Duttile's place the other day. Josh is one of the fastest shearers in the country.

Charlie Royle, of Gooseberry, went back to Montana last week with the cattle buyers. He expects to return about June 1st.

The "Diamond Anniversary" (75th.) of the American Sunday School Union will be held at Philadelphia on the 24th and 25th of the present month.

E. P. Weir returned to Arlington Friday from his home at Mayville where he has been spending a few days since recovering from the effects of his recent accident.

Miss Myra Mack and Lucy Harlbart of Arlington, and M. A. Glascock of H-pffer came in Monday to attend the teachers' examination. They are registered at the Condon hotel.

Miss Dora Downing passed through on the stage Saturday from her home in San Jose California, enroute to Fossil where she goes to assist in nursing her sister, Mrs. Wright who is seriously ill at that place.

The first "tap" was put in the water main last Thursday by S. B. Barker, who will use the water on his lawn for irrigation purposes.

An entertainment will be given by members of the Congregational choir, and others, on Friday evening May 26, 1899. Don't forget the date while you wait for further announcement which will appear next week. Proceeds for benefit of church.

Messrs Baily, Wain and King all recent arrivals from Salem drove out a few miles west Sunday afternoon to look for some of Uncle Sam's domain which they desired to locate. They were all suited and will become full fledged Gilliam county farmers at once.

Judge Mariner left Saturday morning for Canyon City where he goes to meet G. O. Butler, county clerk of Wheeler county, and Judge Laycock, of Grant county. These gentlemen will constitute a board whose duty it shall be to determine the amount of the debt of Grant county that shall be assumed by Wheeler county.

Harry Halstead was in town from Lost Valley for a few days last week closing up his affairs here before leaving for Grant county where he will go shortly to engage in the sawmill business in the vicinity of Canyon City. Mr. Halstead is a thorough mill man capable and energetic and we predict for him success in his new field.

Attorney Sam E. Van Vactor left yesterday for Canyon City where he goes to defend Dick Hinkle charged with the murder of George A. Scott in 1895. William Barr is now doing time in the penitentiary for the same murder and Hinkle was arrested and has been once tried as an accomplice. The former trial resulted in a verdict of man slaughter. Mr Van Vactor will be absent about two weeks. Attorney Jay Bowerman accompanied him on the trip.

The ladies of the Eastern Star entertained a number of guests at their lodge rooms Saturday evening the occasion being in the nature of a farewell reception, given in honor of Mrs. J. H. Hudson on the eve of her departure for her new home at The Dalles. A pleasing program was rendered in the early part of the evening after which the company spent an hour or two in social moment and the discussion of a most dainty and appetizing luncheon. The Star members, and other friends of Mrs. Hudson here, will much regret her departure from our city.

Frank Kinney, a nephew of the late John A. Linn, is here from Illinois and will probably locate permanently in this vicinity. Mr Kinney was a member of the 3rd Ill. Infantry, in the Port Rico campaign last summer, returning from that island in November. He had more than a taste of canned and embalmed beef, a la Alger, over there, and says it was a hard dose to take but the directions said "take it." The soldiers almost starved during the campaign, for which Mr. Kinney says there was but little excuse as fresh native beef, of excellent quality, could have been readily obtained on the islands. The boys stood their hardships without a murmur so long as they were kept busy fighting, but when that work was done they were all ready to come home.

The violin solo by Mr. Gesner at Masonic hall Saturday evening will long be remembered by those so fortunate as to hear him. Mr. Gesner is one of the few young violinists has seen fit to crown. His style is very broad and his tones are very rich and melodious. The first movement of his solo was a waltz in which he displayed wonderful technique, gradually working up a crescendo, almost startling in the immense tones produced. Mr. Gesner's work was highly appreciated and lovers of good music here will hope to be frequently favored during his sojourn among us.

Teacher's Examination. E. W. Daggett, the Co. Supt. is conducting the regular teacher's examination this week, beginning Wednesday afternoon, at the school house. Miss Clara Chamberlain, and Miss Mabel Halstead, of Condon, are the assistant examiners. Lucy Harlbart and Myra Mack, of Arlington, Alice Glascock, of Blalock, Emma Phillips and Nora Miller of Olex, and Susie Stevenson and Grace Harding, of Condon, are the applicants. This is the last examination under the old law. The new school law goes into effect May 20th and henceforth examinations will occur but twice a year, beginning at 9 o'clock on the second Wednesday of April and August each year. Beginning next April, the additional branches Civil Government and Oregon School Law will be added to the present list of ten now required, and the minimum of 40 per cent for a third grade will be raised to 55 per cent. The fee for a county certificate will be raised to $2.00 and must be paid whether the applicant passes or not instead of being as now conducted. The examination in August will be conducted the same as at present, the changes contemplated taking place in 1900.

Ed Copner Dead. A dispatch from Albany, Oregon, under date of May 6th says: Edward W. Copner, a traveling salesman for Schilling & Co., died suddenly at 3 o'clock this morning, of heart failure, at the home of Mrs. C. W. Watts. He had been on a spree for several days and was drinking heavily. He was registered at the hotel but spent most of his time with Mrs. Watts and daughter. He leaves a wife and daughter at San Jose California.

Copner was well known here having at one time been engaged in business at Lone Rock. He was one of the most popular traveling men on the road but an uncontrollable appetite for drink caused his downfall. He had many friends all over the northwest who will regret to learn of his untimely end.

LONE ROCK. Andrew Neal commenced hearing Monday morning. Rev. Clark made a trip to Heppner Monday, returning Thursday.

The weather has been very changeable and disagreeable the past week, rain and hail with a very little sunshine. All the cow boys who went to Arlington with the Reynolds' cattle, got back Sunday and reported having had a fine trip.

Mrs. J. B. Goff started for Portland Wednesday, where she expects to remain for several weeks, and will undergo medical and surgical treatment. The sympathy of many friends as well as that of her family is felt for her in her absence.

Rev. Evans, the Epworth League man, came over from Fossil Sunday, and delivered an interesting discourse to a large and appreciative congregation in the M. E. Church in the evening, and on Monday morning he filled the place of the presiding Elder at the business meeting.

Married—Saturday, May 6th, 1899, at the residence of Judge Goff, Mr. Lewis Moody and Mrs. Mary Armstrong, Judge Goff officiating. Some of the ladies present broke over all rules of etiquette and as so on as the ceremony was over they proceeded to devour the whole business. The result was that the bridegroom was stuck for the treats all round.

CLEM. MARK IT DOWN. When those pretty girls get here, Mark it down, They'll be taken, don't you fear, Mark it down, For every "bach" will take a wife, And start on a new life, And end their bachelor strife, Mark it down.

There is Charlie, Bill and Fred, Mark it down, All three anxious to wed, Mark it down, And Dave and Jim and Jake We are three that they could take, Now girls, come, for heaven's sake, Mark it down.

There is Jess and Tobey T, Mark it down, They're quite anxious you may see, Mark it down, And there's 'Lige and Bert and Will They want help to run the mill, They can be captured still, Mark it down.

Charles and Henry have fair fame, Mark it down, Before long they'll change a name, Mark it down, Jake and Charlie there are sick, For that widow on the creek, But I fear she'll make a kick, Mark it down.

From us you must not stay, Mark it down, But come to us right away, Mark it down, And before the summer's over, You must come from every shore, And bless us forever more, Mark it down.
