THE CONDON GLOBE.

THURSDAY, MAY 18, 1899.

THE OFFICIAL PAPER OF GILLIAM COUNTY, OREGON.

How about that Fourth of July celebration? If we are to have it, it is time something was being done. Don't all speak at once.

George Dewey, a sailor who formerly lived in Vermont, but who has been working near Manila, in the Phillipine islands, for a year or so will take a lay off this summer and visit his folks in the Green Mountain state. Mr Dewey took the contract a little over a year ago to fill in the bay at Manila with Spanish war ships, but before he got the contract more than half completed he ran out of material and had to quit.

The report comes from Washington that the beef-packers are after General Miles' scalp and are bringing all the pressure in their power to bear on President McKinley to remove Miles from command of the army. The people are not prepared to believe that the president will do the bidding of the Chicago Hog in this matter, but if the unexpected should happen, and Miles should be removed, and further humiliated, the people will not fail to remember that Miles made a vigorous protest against the policy of feeding rotten beef to soldiers in the field and for that action was censured and humiliated while Alger and Eagan and the beef-packers who are directly responsible for the outrage have been upheld and protected by the president of the United States.

We understand that some of the ladies of our community are talking up a reading room for the town, and that they expect to have it in running order before another winter. The movement is a good one and should receive the support of every citizen. There is a large class of young men here who are away from home, and home influence who would not only appreciate and enjoy such an institution but who would be benefitted both morally and intellectually by it. A reading room comfortably kept, and supplied with an abundance of first class reading matter, newspapers, magazines, etc., with facilities for letter writing, would, we believe, be a popular institution and once under way it would be but another step for it to form the nucleus of a circulating library, which every country town the size of Condon should have. The GLOBE hopes to hear a favorable report from those interested in this matter in the near future.

Some democratic editors make themselves ridiculous by claiming that the best fighting regiments in the Philippines are those from the democratic-populist states. Some republican editors make themselves ridiculous by claiming that 90 per cent of the volunteers are republicans. All this gush and moonshine tends to make sensible people tired. The fact is that men and boys who possess the requisite amount of that quality called "nerve," will fight, when they go to war, no matter to what political party they may chance to belong. Political belief is, after all, largely a matter of heredity. The boy adheres to the party to which his father and grand father belonged, just as he adheres to their religious belief. That politics is largely a matter of predjudice is proven every day by the senseless utterances of partisan editors who, on most other subjects, are generally sensible men and good fellows. A state may be republican at one election, populist at the next and two years later go democratic and the character of the people of that state will not change one iota. They will be good or bad citizens, as the case may be, go to war, hoe corn or make love to a pretty girl just the same under one administration as under another. There is some humbug about politics and a great deal of it about the average political editor of the violent partisan variety.

Portage Railway

Dr. Blalock, of Walla Walla, and other gentlemen from Eastern Oregon and Washington, have been in Portland for several days past, figuring on organizing a company to construct a portage railway at that point.

They [illegible]

the freight transferred from the boats on the upper river to those leaving The Dalles for Portland.

How much the proposed portage railway would cost, and how far the organization of Dr. Blalock's company has gone, are yet unknown, but, from a trustworthy source, it is learned that the prospects for building the lines are good.—Telegram.
